I Cast My Ballot for the Christ

*It Matters Not Who Is the Victor on Earth
as Long as God Be the Victor in the Hearts of the People*

I AM the Elohim of the first ray! I stand in the center of the earth and I blaze forth my ray of the will of God! I AM come for the Herculean task of the saving of a mighty nation and a mighty people! I AM come to send forth the ray of the government of God!

I release to you, as a torch that is passed from ascended heights of consciousness, that light of the ages which must be carried here on earth if the earth is indeed to be filled with the knowledge of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea.¹

I come in the hour of treachery. I come in the hour of the compromise of the will of God. I come in the hour when mankind, unknowing, will go forth to elect individuals to the offices of this land and the highest office of this land. Yet they have not the understanding or the knowledge of the LORD and, therefore, how can they divide the word of truth?²

As it goes, then, the democracy is not the expression of the will of the soul tethered to Christ, but it is the expression of souls who are not in the will of God. But like the cork upon the waters, this way and that way the souls of America are pulled. And they are wooed by the personality cult and they are wooed by promises that are not fulfilled. And therefore the people that have not the vision, how can they carry the torch of the will of God to the age?

It must come, then, by the very miracle of the Lord's descent into the midst of this habitation. It must come by divine intercession, by the power of the Elohim and the archangels and the hosts of the Lord's Presence. It must come because the Lord lives and not because the people have received him—therefore not because of their consciousness but in spite of the density and all manner of wickedness that has been practiced against them. This is the sign of the hour of the coming of the Holy Ghost. It is when all human planning and all human solutions do fail. Then there is no other way for salvation than by the direct intercession of his Spirit.

Would you have that intercession, O people of God? Would you have it in this hour? Pray tell me what is your word this day? [“Yes!”]

Fast as a Sign of Sacrifice

Blessed souls and hearts of light, have you not heard the word of the Christ concerning the one who was possessed of the evil spirit: “This kind cometh not out but by prayer and fasting”?³

I urge you to fast, then, to allow your consciousness to be purified and your consciousness to be exalted in the Lord. I urge you to make sacrifices. If you would have the spirit of healing in your midst, then surrender those lesser aspects of consciousness. You must be a people marked by the ultimate sacrifice. For I tell you, there are few across the land who are willing to lay down their life that the flame of liberty might continue to burn brightly in the torch of Liberty, in the torch of the Divine Mother.

Understand, then, that where many are weak in the calling of God, you must be strong. Let those who would, then, offer themselves the living sacrifice—the quickened, the active, the alive atoms. Let them, then, fast, following this meal that is established by the Lord and blessed by him, following this celebration of Communion at the noon hour. Let them, then, fast as a sign that they are willing to sacrifice something as a token for purification, as a token for the welcome of the Holy Ghost. For indeed the fasting in the physical plane⁴ prepares the way for the fasting in the subconscious whereby those forces of darkness are ejected from the very house of the Lord.

We will work the sign and the wonder in your day. We only wait the crystal chalice raised on high, your consciousness that says: “I am willing to do more than feast at the Lord’s table. I am willing to do more than enjoy his presence. I will also observe the fasting which he observed, and thereby I will conquer the dragon that comes again in this age to tempt the Woman and her seed,⁵ to draw them out of the way of the high way, of the flaming presence of the exalted ones. I will do something to show that God is more to me than meat and the daily surfeiting of my consciousness in the stimulations and the delights of this world.”

The Miracle Presence of the Holy Spirit

So let your sacrifice be for the victory of God on election day. For it matters not who is the victor on earth as long as God be the victor in the hearts of the people. And when the people are filled with God, then there is a compelling action of the Lord’s Spirit, even in those who have been aligned with the forces of Antichrist. And in spite of themselves, they become the instruments en masse of the mighty swelling of the consciousness of the Holy Spirit.

So it will come. But you must believe in the miracle presence of the Holy Spirit to overcome, not by entering into and dividing the arguments and the platforms of the candidates, but by overriding, by sweeping through, by transmuting and transforming until the consciousness of the leaders themselves is so in the presence of the light that they, in spite of themselves, unknowingly even, become his instruments for the judgment, for the overcoming and for the reign of the Prince of Peace.

You must not give power to mammon. You must not give power to the princes of this world who sit in the seat of their authority by the authority of their carnal-mindedness.⁶ In God they have no power, and they have no power except you give it unto them.

Therefore let us see the Faithful and True. Let us see the hosts of the LORD. And let us know that in spite of appearances the victory is unto him! And therefore, precious ones, give of your life and of your energy that Christ might live this day as the governor of the nations, as the King of kings and Lord of lords.⁷

So let it be that by the alchemy of the transforming power of the Word, in the twinkling of the eye the last trump of the Evil One shall sound.⁸ And suddenly that rushing of the mighty wind shall fill all the house of the tabernacle of the Lord.⁹ And the earth shall indeed be filled with his Spirit, and wisdom shall abound and love indeed shall be for the binding of all souls of God unto light. This is hope and this is salvation.

I come for the light of victory and I come for the power of the will of God! Let it be, then, that manifestation that goes forth.

Be not dismayed, then, at what you hear and see of the testimony of the voices of the night. For the voice of light is here! And the LORD of hosts is his name.¹⁰ And the Ancient of Days yet lives to rule on earth because sons and daughters of God will yet call upon the name of the Lord. And thereby not by machinations or by design but by the blood of the Lamb and the word of their testimony¹¹ will they overcome all manifestations of the dragon in every avenue of life on earth.

The Signs of the Coming of the Lord

I AM come. I leap in the flame! I march with the legions of Victory. We are the hosts of the LORD and we are real! If only the children of light would accept our reality, then we could enter and transform this earth, as Christ did promise.

Look, then, for the signs of the alchemy of the end of the age. For the disturbances in the elemental kingdom and in the earth and in the consciousness of the people are but the sign of the coming of the light. And that light is the sword of truth. And that light is a disturbance, as there is a stirring, as there is upheaval, as the old man is rejected and the new man is born.¹²

So let it come and fear it not. For this is the alchemy of worlds and this is the melting of the elements with a fervent heat of the sacred fire. Let it come! Let go of your tatters! Let go of your old ways, and let the Lord's Spirit come unto you. And see what miracles of healing love will be, within your midst, the sign of the Holy Ghost!

I AM the Elohim in the ray of the will of God. Come and join me if you will! There is room for another and another and another where I stand. There is room for the one who is one more in God.

I AM for the victory of Christ and I cast my ballot for Christ on this election day! So, do thou likewise and all will go well with thee. All will go well with thee in the land, in thine house and in the flame that is in thine heart!
