The Test of Selfhood

The All-Consuming Power

That Will Transform Selfhood into Godhood

I AM the fullness of the all One. For only in the Spirit of Selflessness can you be aware of the allness of Being. For the awareness of a self apart from God is a shadow that prevails—to separate, to prevent the fullness of consciousness from coalescing a cosmos about the flame of identity.

Increment by increment, this world you call your home is being brought into alignment with the will of God. Holy is the light that descends on the arc of consciousness. And as that light penetrates the four lower bodies of the earth, there is a certain adjustment that takes place. And as the earth is required to contain greater and greater light, its evolutions and their habitation experience a quaking, a trembling and a precipitation of elements of pollution, in the earth...

The Test of Selfhood

The All-Consuming Power That Will Transform Selfhood into Godhood

I AM the fullness of the all One. For only in the Spirit of Selflessness can you be aware of the allness of Being. For the awareness of a self apart from God is a shadow that prevails—to separate, to prevent the fullness of consciousness from coalescing a cosmos about the flame of identity.

Increment by increment, this world you call your home is being brought into alignment with the will of God. Holy is the light that descends on the arc of consciousness. And as that light penetrates the four lower bodies of the earth, there is a certain adjustment that takes place. And as the earth is required to contain greater and greater light, its evolutions and their habitation experience a quaking, a trembling and a precipitation of elements of pollution, in the earth, of doubt and fear and darkness in the body of man. For the more light that is released, the more darkness must give an accounting, and the dark consciousness that is aligned with it.

Take care, then, that in the release of energies you are not caught between that dark and that daylight of God's consciousness. For in that movement and in that trembling, there is war and death and famine and pestilence as that which is aware of self apart from God ceases to be in the fullness of Reality.

Staying the Intensity of the Light

Almighty God has stepped down the rays of light so that mankind should not be utterly overcome by the adjustment of planetary cycles to the new quivering of light from the Central Sun. And therefore the earth is not able to take the allotment that it could have, for mankind are not able to bear the brilliance of this white fire. But for the elect, those who have elected to ensoul harmony, there is an opportunity to bear more than one portion of that light that must ultimately come. The delay is as though one were to put the foot on the brake momentarily in a downhill ride. Yet the ride is downhill and the light is oncoming, and the light floods all of cosmos.

We offer the staying of the intensity that you might have further opportunity to bring untold thousands into the teaching of the white-fire core and the chanting of I AM THAT I AM. Let it ring from the hillsides as mankind join hands to make a garland of their beings, to surround the earth as a floral offering to the Almighty One.

And so, let us ring the earth with our heart ties. Let us encircle Terra with the love of the chelas of light. How long the intensity can be stayed is a matter of calculus, of a formula locked in the mind of God.

The Less Aware of Self You Become the More of God You Contain

I bring you this information that you might be aware that, for the most part, mankind are behind the scheduling of cosmic forces and that you might know that the woes and the disturbances and the upheavals are these planetary adjustments, which mankind would not have if they would only understand the Spirit of Selflessness. It is not a false humility; it is not a false pride. It is an awareness of the circumference of God and of the dot inside, the point of contact that is the Self of God with which you totally identify. And therefore, you are not deprived of the identity when you embrace this Spirit, but you have the return of the allness of Being. The less aware of self you become, the more of God you contain.

And so, for the record and for the victory of the light, ultimately, I place in the core of the earth the flame of this one. I place it in your heart. Let the spiral of selflessness be unto each Keeper of the Flame the identity of the flame, the magnetism of the flame, the inner name, the I AM THAT I AM. In this Spirit is the all-consuming power of the action that will transform selfhood into Godhood, even while retaining the individualization of a God flame.

To Be Examples and Teachers to Other Evolutions

I am imparting in silence, to all who are ready upon Terra, increments of the mind of God, a blueprint for the adjustment of planetary cycles, which is also placed in the retreat of Cuzco.¹ So let all who are able to bear this flame keep it unto their hearts forever and forever.

And so may this earth be an example of Cosmic Christ awareness to the solar system and to other systems of worlds. And may the graduates from earth's schoolroom be examples and teachers to other evolutions, who one day must also face the test of selfhood, of identity, and give answer to the question, "Who am I?" "I AM THAT I AM." [20-second pause]

As I anchor the flame, legions of light hold back the intensity of Alpha, of Omega, that only that portion which is allowed to descend is anchored here and no more, that sanity and life might be preserved.

So increase this Spirit within yourselves, and see how through you God will release the spirals for the fulfillment of the physical straightening of the axis, of the purification of the elements, of the freedom of the elementals by the resurrection flame.

AUM. AUM. AUM.

In the name of the Nameless One, I return to the heart of the Great Central Sun Magnet. As you magnetize love in your heart, think upon the Spirit of Selflessness and invoke that Spirit.

AUM. AUM. AUM.
