

Beloved Saint Germain

Service to the Great Light Always Brings About Victory

Heart friends of the ages, I am come this night. And yet with the breaking of this [morning's] dawn, I knew that I should speak to you here. For here are many who have long loved me and have served to keep the holy commandments of God.

The gracious breaking of this day, then, brought to me a certain happiness which I hope to share with you, that the mighty power of your own God Self may seize all recalcitrant energies in your worlds and bring you into that spirit of completeness and cosmic harmony where you can obtain entrée into our octave of purity and bliss.

As I speak to you tonight, it is my God-determination to bring to you an awareness that although there may be gaps and intervals in our communications (in the sense that some of you have not been afforded the opportunity of hearing from me for a long time), there has been no surcease of my love or my watchful care over your endeavors and over your worlds.

Service to the Great Light Always Brings About Victory

Heart friends of the ages, I am come this night. And yet with the breaking of this [morning's] dawn, I knew that I should speak to you here. For here are many who have long loved me and have served to keep the holy commandments of God.

The gracious breaking of this day, then, brought to me a certain happiness which I hope to share with you, that the mighty power of your own God Self may seize all recalcitrant energies in your worlds and bring you into that spirit of completeness and cosmic harmony where you can obtain entrée into our octave of purity and bliss.

As I speak to you tonight, it is my God-determination to bring to you an awareness that although there may be gaps and intervals in our communications (in the sense that some of you have not been afforded the opportunity of hearing from me for a long time), there has been no surcease of my love or my watchful care over your endeavors and over your worlds. I admonish you, then, to hold a sense of celestial gratitude within your blessed hearts for the causes of heaven that have been fulfilled by the ministrations of the angelic hosts in their gentle responses to your calls and decrees.

The hour is at hand when a greater spirit of cosmic unity than has previously existed shall sweep across the hearts of America and the world to bring into fulfillment some greater measure of those dreams which I have held for so long and which so filled the very fiber of my being when I, long ago, first uttered my words of admonishment to you through beloved Godfré.¹ I AM come, then, this night, to bless you and to sanctify within you that Holy Spirit of grace which has perpetually kept ablaze the flame of God within your blessed hearts.

Beloved ones, there is never any need whatsoever to enter into a spirit of human competition. For it is the spirit of divine love that has made possible this moment which you now share with me—a spirit of divine love which floods forth and fills the hearts of those who lead you in this place* and who have directed you with all of the love of their being for so many years.

Express, then, your gratitude to God for the love in all hearts, which creates a perfect spirit of divine grace and understanding. This is fulfilling the plan of heaven that speaks of the living Christ as being like an evergreen tree, with its beauteous odor of sanctity permeating the atmosphere with the [fragrance of] eternal pine and its spires pointing heavenward. Mankind recognize that these spires are pointing the way toward the ascension and the victory in the light for every man.

Like a tall tree upon the hillside, every lifestream dedicated to our cause and the cause of immortal perfection within his own heart flame helps to renew the eternal covenant of the ages and to fulfill his own immortal destiny, while linking himself with the blessed angelic host and those who are sent forth from the heart of God to serve the holy cause.

Blessed ones, remember the words of the living Christ,

*Saint Germain gave this dictation in Los Angeles at the "I AM" Reading Room.

“Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do,”² and let your hearts apply this blessed blessing of the Christ to all men who walk not in the light as you do. Chastise them never in your consciousness. For without the spirit of cosmic grace, you would yet walk among them, a part of the mass consciousness and human effluvia.

You are today, then, by reason of the spirit of divine grace, standing in that spiritual echelon which you presently inhabit for a great cosmic purpose—the installation of grace in the hearts of men upon the planet Earth and the serving of the holy cause of freedom. I, then, urge you now to capture a vision of my own God mind and the minds of illumined avatars of the ages.

Consider the mighty forcefield that exists around this building. Consider also the forcefield of love’s protection that exists around your blessed hearts. And recognize the virtue in a multitude of such sanctuaries [as this one] being dotted across the nation, as though a giant saltshaker were sprinkling the savor of heaven over the earth and dotting the countryside with holy sanctuaries—abodes for the weary traveler to enter, to take rest and to receive the cup of life, the cup of liquid light from on high, and to bask in the sunlight of divine purity.

Your services are not in vain. Your decrees are not in vain. Your cosmic energies and the offerings which you bring, both in floral tribute and in those flowers of virtue within your hearts—these all, ladies and gentlemen of divine grace, are not in vain. They are not a part of mankind’s vanity, but they are a part of the offering of service unto the great ones in the name of your own cosmic victory.

Beloved ones of the light, the hour is coming when you will be able to have a greater and greater demonstration of the wonders of the ascended masters’ octave made manifest for you. Not only will this be made manifest in the physical octave, but it will be made manifest so that all mankind will be able to recognize for themselves the wonders of God’s love. But ere that time shall come and ere the Great Law will permit this, you must understand that a great deal of ground-work and foundation work must be laid across the heart of America and the world so that we may free many souls from among mankind who are yet pining for reunion with their God-identity.

These blessed souls have a vibratory action which cries unto heaven for release from the chains of bondage which now presently enclose them round about. Some of these—who are bound by the chains of schism and corruption, by confusion and anguish—are the potential ascended master youth of the world. Blessed be the name, then, of the living Christ and of every potential saint who would make invocations and calls for the freeing of these individuals who are as much a part of God as ye are.

I say unto you, then, in this cosmic moment of light’s perfection when the glories of heaven and the angelic host draw very close to your blessed hearts: Let the spirit of God and the songs (the melodies of the angelic host) sink down into your feeling worlds. Open up to the great continents of the air, the great continents of love and light, and let the ministrations of the cosmic angels pour down the great ladder of light into your blessed souls.

Drink in, then, as the buttercup drinks in the light of the morning sun, the wondrous rays of purity and perfection which we are now pouring out upon you—to comfort you, to bless you, to bring you into complete God-union with your own immortal I AM Presence, and to tell you that our love shall never cease for the students of this great light.

I tell you, beloved ones, the power of God's name, I AM, is and remains supreme as the power of the I AM Presence, which is that I AM THAT I AM and that ye are also. This, then, is the Be-ness of all mankind, the great cosmic reality which abides in the temple of men's hearts. And yet they know it not with their minds.

Through opening up the great spirit of the consciousness of Christ-victory within the hearts of men, greater understanding will flow from the Christ-illuminated minds of mankind until, through the flame of cosmic illumination, men will come to understand one another to a greater degree. And in this understanding, they will recognize that differences [between them] do not exist any more than they do in the floral kingdom, where the rose grows beside the daffodil and where all the various fruits of the earth may manifest after their kind without a spirit of competition or pain. And they breathe their fragrance into space to hallow the atmosphere.

So be it with all men, in God's holy name, I AM! Let the spirit of freedom flow from the roots of the Tree of Life,³ pass up the trunk, and flow into the flowers until the air is simply laden with the blessings of heavenly compassion, uniting men and destroying the lion nature of mankind. And [let the spirit of freedom] bring into manifestation the mighty power of the Lamb of God, who taketh away the sins, the stains, and the spots of the world⁴ by the power of Christ-virtue radiant within each lifestream.

[The Lamb of God] is determined to bring all to their own Christ-victory—a manifestation of the mighty power of light's perfection which existed in great temples of light long ago and was nourished and fed by mankind and which, to the present hour, exists in the etheric realm to serve the needs of mankind. Let these flames, then, which have been nourished, be called forth into physical manifestation in due time, until mankind are able to have the benefit of direct visual contact with these flames, even as you behold at this moment our living messenger speaking to you our words and flashing them forth into your consciousness by the power of our love.

I tell you, ladies and gentlemen, we have not forsaken the students of truth and the students who have long served our light. And we are still reaching out into the world of form to call to our counsel all those who love the light and ought to serve it. And we are extending our hand of service to those who yet sit in the shadow of pain and anguish and who have not yet understood the meaning of life. These, too, are a part of life. And the caravan of life will be incomplete until every son of heaven has joined his energies with ours to pursue the virtue of his own God-identity, in the cause of the resurrection flame, and to find a clean escape from all error and bondage.

I tell you, I wish to pay some great tribute tonight to your service on behalf of* the destruction of entities within the people who are sitting in this sanctuary. For it is a most wondrous gift for an ascended being to be able to enter a place that is free from entities and relatively free from human emotions.

I tell you, beloved ones, the service that mankind pay to the great light is always a service which brings about victory! And although some men, by reason of a lack of understanding, may criticize the service that is performed, it does not mean that we of the ascended octave do. For we praise the power of all virtue and beauty in its complete unfoldment. And we recognize the need for various individuals to exist in various activities and organizations throughout the world in order to promote the spirit of eternal felicity of the Great White Brotherhood and to encourage the hearts of the many who are the children of God.

*on behalf of: as concerns, with regard to, in the matter of (obsolete)

This morning, many proceeded to leave their homes and to enter their automobiles and other modes of transportation in order to enter houses of worship. Do you think, beloved ones, that the angelic host and the ascended masters were absent from all such services? I tell you, nay. For inasmuch as the Great Law permits us, we take advantage of that Great Law and try to minister to the needs of all mankind.

But, oh, how we consider the special activity of those individuals who by their decrees call forth that energy which the world needs and which we require, by reason of the Great Law, in order to release the sanctimonious* and pure power of the Holy Spirit in living manifestation to change and transmute lives! [And the Holy Spirit will transmute lives] until the glowing coals on the altar of heaven radiate their own cosmic purity and the dead ash of unregenerate emotion and human wickedness is purified by the great angelic host and the holy cause of freedom—divine freedom, I say now—to which we are dedicated.

It is true that we aspire to see political freedom for all the nations of the world. But it is also so very true that our greatest aspiration is to see living souls God-free in the light of their own mighty I AM God Presence so that the ascension in the light will become the living hope of all men.

And although some may fall short of it, they shall find—by reason of their struggles, which will cease in the glorious overcoming of their mighty I AM Presence over the human—that although they might have failed in one [particular] embodiment to make their ascension, the Great Karmic Board, out of its own great heart of mercy, will extend to them in their next embodiment the absolute dominion and scepter of authority by reason of their previous invocations to fulfill their fond hopes to join the ranks of the ascended masters and to obtain their own precious freedom.

May I extend to you, then, tonight, my own hands of eternal felicity in the cause so holy? May I extend to you from out the Great Central Sun the radiance of my Presence? And may I place the invisible yet powerful cloak of violet flame upon your shoulders that you may know its protection and glory until there is fulfilled in you that wondrous God-design which is our hope?

Ladies and gentlemen, children of God's wonderful light, with what words could I admonish you of the great need of mankind—of the great need for understanding, of the great need for felicity and goodwill? I say to you, look upon these floral symbols here, these yellow roses, as though they were living flames of cosmic illumination. Recognize in the great cosmic flame of illumination blazing so brightly in South America from the God and Goddess Meru⁵ that there is a wondrous enfolding radiance which all three Americas* shall one day know. And the hour is being hastened by each erg of energy which you contribute to the cause so pure.

May I bow to the light within your heart. And may I enfold you now and always in my flame of freedom. I thank you, I bless you, and I bid you good evening.

“The Summit Lighthouse Sheds Its Radiance o’er All the World to Manifest as Pearls of Wisdom.” This previously unpublished dictation by Saint Germain was delivered by the Messenger of the Great White Brotherhood Mark L. Prophet on Sunday, September 22, 1963, at the “I AM” Reading Room in Los Angeles, California. [N.B. Bracketed words have been added for clarity in the written word.] (1) In the early 1930s Saint Germain contacted Guy and Edna Ballard and trained them as his messengers. Through them, the master founded the I AM Activity in Chicago. Under the pen name Godfré Ray King, Guy Ballard (known as Daddy Ballard) wrote Unveiled Mysteries and The Magic Presence in which he tells of his experiences with Saint Germain and other masters and gives basic teachings in cosmic law. Edna, who used the pen name of Lotus Ray King, was also Saint Germain’s messenger. Completing his round of service for his master, Guy Ballard made his ascension on December 31, 1939, and is now the ascended master Godfre. Edna carried on the work as messenger until her own ascension on February 12, 1971. She is now the ascended lady master Lotus. (2) Luke 23:34. (3) Tree of Life. Gen. 2:9; 3:22, 24; Rev. 2:7; 22:2, 14. In the teachings of the ascended masters, the Tree of Life has been equated with the I AM Presence and causal body and with the Chart of Your Divine Self. In her book Kabbalah: Key to Your Inner Power, the messenger Elizabeth Clare Prophet explains that in Kabbalah, the sefirot, who represent the ten aspects of God’s being that manifest from Ein Sof (“the Infinite”), are shown on the Kabbalists’ diagram called the Tree of Life. In this diagram, the uppermost sefirah, Keter, the Crown, represents our divine essence, our awareness of God as the Divine Presence and First Cause. In the ascended masters’ teachings, the upper figure in the Chart of Your Divine Self represents the Presence of God individualized for each one of us, called the I AM Presence, corresponding to the Father-Mother God. See Elizabeth Clare Prophet, Kabbalah: Key to Your Inner Power (Summit University Press, 1997), chap. 4. (4) John 1:29. (5) The God and Goddess Meru maintain a retreat (the Temple of Illumination) in the etheric plane over Lake Titicaca in the Andes Mountains on the Peru-Bolivia border. The God and Goddess Meru are the Manus (Sanskrit, “progenitors” or “lawgivers”) of the sixth root race.

The Way of Love by Saint Germain

From Love I came, to Love I go;
And all this swing both to and fro
Alters not any jot
Of Cosmic Purpose I forgot.

I reach out now, to Truth I vow;
To Love in all I ever bow.
The universe is one alone—
No clash of multifacet tone.

The chime I hear is ever near;
'Tis Love that casts out every fear.
Where'er I AM Thy Love lives, too,
To free the many and the few.

Command Perfection, Love’s great Law!
Command Perfection, Love’s great Light!
Thy glowing beauty through the night
As star eternal, Light supernal,
Woos us all by present might.

For Love I AM and Love I live;
This is the allness that I give.
To each manchild the spark is given—
'Twill rend the veil and bring to heaven.*
