You Are Potential Ascended Masters

the Scepter of Your Divine Authority*

Part 1

May the profound radiance of your Divine Selves descend. And with that descent, [may this radiance] bring to your hearts an awareness that I AM here and that as I come, escorted by legions of cosmic angels, I bring to old friends and new the breathing awareness of their own Divine Source. I bring the love that is able to give to all the fullness of deliverance from every evil condition and that is able to assist every lifestream in finding the fullness of their divine victory.

O beloved ones, the passage of human thought across the consciousness and the firmament of individuality is not always one of illumination. For the thoughts that men think are so frequently but the contagion which itself dwells within the insipid atmosphere of the planet, charged with all of the negative influences and the effluvia of human creation to which mankind unwittingly pay homage.

Lift, then, this night, your consciousness above all outer conditions of the world and above those who abide in the consciousness of the world. Lift your consciousness tonight and recognize that this is a holy night. Recognize that the spiritual stars shining in the firmament of your beings are the radiant points of spiritual light pouring forth their mighty light rays into your waiting hearts and identities, that you may absorb from those light rays a feeling of compassionate oneness with all who live upon this planetary body and with all who dwell in this blessed universe.

Ladies and gentlemen, the power of divine grace is sufficient for every problem which you encounter. And you need not “go under” or submit to outer conditions that are directed against you. You must master the lesson of being able to seize energy for yourselves, by the power of the God flame within your heart, and to take that energy and wrap it round about you as a cloak of cosmic light substance which possesses the power of instantaneous transmutation. [In this way] all substance that is directed at you is transmuted on the instant, like a drop of water as it strikes the lid of a hot stove. Your consciousness must be imbued with the sacred fire. You must radiate, from within, your own protection against all outward conditions.

As you gaze upon humanity today and recognize the many types of individuals upon this planetary body, you must not develop a feeling, like the Pharisee of old, that you yourselves are grateful that you are not as other men are.<sup>1</sup> For you must bear full well in mind and consciousness that it is the power of divine grace that has elected you to a very high and noble calling. You yourselves, in accepting this precious calling, have ratified the divine act of grace and have sealed within your consciousness the holy will of God.

Long ago, upon that holy night when beloved Jesus came forth into manifestation and the angelic host sang and the shepherds kneeled in adoration as the wise men of the East brought forth their gifts, my heart* also was stirred by the fires of immortality and perfection manifest in that Holy Child. With what hope every mother brings forth her son! With what hope every mother brings forth her firstborn child!

I ask you, then, in the name of holy paternity, to bear in mind the greatest message that the Christ brought to mankind, the greatest message that has ever been revealed: the knowledge of the heavenly Father, or your own beloved God Presence, and the knowledge of the spiritual law whereby man, in a divine union, passes through the sacrament of holy marriage and is wedded unto the Deity. The alchemical marriage,<sup>2</sup> in all of its wonder and beauty, is the transcendent yearning of every man and woman upon the planetary body.

And although the negative and positive polarities may manifest in both men and women, I am certain that all recognize the words that in the beginning God “created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them.”<sup>3</sup> And therefore I am certain that all will also recognize that it is intended that mankind shall absorb all of the deep spirituality that is so wonderfully resident within womankind and that womankind shall absorb all of those marvelous qualities of mastery manifest in mankind. And they shall, by a balancing action of absorption, find that perfect equality and spiritual balance whereby they are complete within themselves, sealed by the power of their own mighty God Self and completely, wholly identified with that Divine Self.

This does not mean, beloved ones, that lifestreams must walk alone in the universe. It does not mean an end to paternity or maternity for humanity. It simply means an integration of individuality with the great spiritual flaming sea of identity that is the God Self of all. In this merger there is an epoch of completion and accomplishment whereby men fulfill their immortal destiny.

I ask you now to recall from the pages of history that in times past, when the world was ruled primarily by monarchs and kings, select individuals were brought forth and chosen from among the people to be the king of a country. There is something very wonderful, beloved ones, in this idea of a monarchy. And although it was my desire to foster a spirit of republic in mankind and to create a spirit of democracy everywhere, I would like to point out to mankind that the ideal spirit of the monarchy embodied some very wonderful concepts whereby Christ the King is enthroned in the heart of every man and whereby the Queen of Heaven is the Cosmic Mother manifesting in the heart [of every woman].

Beloved ones, most of you at some time or another, caught up in the idea and wonder of kings and queens, have had a yearning within your own heart to be one. And this is not an inordinate desire. But it stems from the great spiritual monarchy, which is related to the word mono-,* or one, whereby God enthroned in each man makes of him a king and the Holy Mother enthroned in each woman makes of her a queen. And it was intended, then, that princelings† and princesses should manifest upon the planetary body and not urchins who wander the streets and know not whither they are going.

The ideal, then, of paternity, based on the words “Our Father,” is a spiritual manifestation of great power and potency that has been lost upon the present-day civilization. And yet, I must pay homage and give credit to many among mankind who have nobly raised sons and daughters to a higher standard of life’s perfection.

**mon-* or mono-: a prefix used in words adopted from Greek and in English formations modeled on these, with the senses “one, alone, single”

†princeling: a little or young prince

And yet I ask you, ladies and gentlemen, in the name of heaven: Can you deny that the world is filled with spiritual orphans who know not their own God-identity and find themselves cast upon the wheel of life and know not whither they are going?

It is these blessed souls, as much a part of God as you and I, who ought to be relieved of this tremendous vacuum within their consciousness—a vacuum of nothingness which causes them to desire to depart this life, finding in oblivion (or imagined oblivion) a better and preferred attitude than the constant boredom of everyday existence.

These blessed lifestreams do not understand the perfection of their own Divine Self and the great glory which God intends to manifest upon the screen of life for them individually. [If they did understand this,] they would not have these desires. And it is up to the student body to recognize the need to call forth a special fiat on behalf of these lifestreams, by the power of the spoken Word in decrees, so that greater understanding will descend upon this planetary body.

This will enable [such souls] to recognize that this life is a life filled with vibrant, divine purpose for all. And all must recognize the ladder of light, and also the stairway of life, as a place intended by God [for them] to place their feet firmly and to plant their consciousness within the heart of a spiritual haven of refuge.

I tell you, those individuals who desired to leap from the Golden Gate Bridge recently in San Francisco must be given assistance by the student body so that they will understand the error of their ways. For they were seized [by the suicide entity] in that almost unheard of occasion when three individuals [on the same day] attempted to destroy themselves [and remove themselves] from the screen of life.<sup>4</sup> But they were spared because of the great light of the Goddess of Purity which was recently released in San Francisco.<sup>5</sup>

Life is precious, beloved ones. And to no one upon this earth did this come with greater awareness than [it came] to beloved Mother Mary as she heard the first low cry of the Christ when Jesus drew his first breath in that embodiment, so wonderfully and fearfully wrought in God's holy name.

I tell you, beloved ones, the sense of spiritual hush, the awe that filled the hearts of men, the great wonder, must also stimulate present-day men and women so that they will understand, whenever they gaze upon the stars above, that each night is a holy night and that God is no more absent from life upon this night or any other night than he was upon that holy night. For God was present, and the angelic host descended and accompanied the living Christ into manifestation.

I tell you, ladies and gentlemen, God's eye is upon the sparrow and is also upon every lifestream,<sup>6</sup> and the words and ideas embodied in that concept must sink down deeply into the hearts of men. The drama of the ages is fulfilled in your worlds individually. For were you at this moment to find your consciousness extinguished, as a flame is blown out or a shade pulled down, I tell you that life would go on, both for you and for those who would be left behind. For life is not easily extinguished!

Life is God, and it is a gentle radiation when manifest in a newborn child. It is no longer, then, charged with the turbulence of the former life. But it has come into reemodiment to once again infuse form, to obtain another and fresh opportunity whereby the mercies of God, which endure forever,<sup>7</sup> may manifest for that lifestream. And the great schoolrooms of life may admit a new pupil who will thereby have a renewed opportunity to obtain freedom.

But in the drama of reemodiment there is nothing happening that does not happen daily. For each night when you close your eyes, blessed ones, in restful slumber, you depart the scenes of this world and you are no longer in contact with your [conscious] identity and your conscious awareness. But you have entered into that quality of sleep and bliss whereby the soul—cut free from the body prison, if it can escape the coil of the mortality<sup>8</sup> which is wrapped around it—is enabled to arise and to rise to a higher octave of purity, where it ought to and must absorb a greater quality of perfection from its own Divine Self. [Then the soul returns] with the fresh light of the morning and the dawn, renewed and revived and ready to master the problems of the day that cometh forth.

Ladies and gentlemen, the challenges of life are intended to be met and to be met victoriously! And we stand ready to assist the students everywhere to meet the problems of each day. We have not departed from this earth and planetary body. And we do not intend to do so in the near future, ladies and gentlemen, or (for that matter) for hundreds of years! Regardless of what any individual may tell you, we intend to stand by the evolutions of this planetary body and to assist the individuals who are embodied here to find their freedom. And that freedom is the freedom which God intends you to have!

O precious ladies and gentlemen, I know how great is your love for me. And I know how great your love is for your own Divine Source, for I can measure it in a manner even you cannot do. And I understand how at times you are almost overawed by the words that we blaze forth before your eyes and the thoughts that we flash through your consciousness.

For while I AM speaking to you now in words, I know that many of you are aware of the great spiritual charge which I AM releasing into the atmosphere. This will find its way into your physical form and will gently steal into your heart flame and into your consciousness, conveying to that blessed consciousness an awareness of God and the spiritual hierarchy far beyond the power of words alone. And you will recognize, then, that my words are cups of light and that they are charged with the vibrancy of the higher octaves and the perfection and purity which abide in those octaves.

The angelic host that are with me are now determined to convey a special blessing to those individuals who have attended every session held within this hall, and therefore they are going to release a mighty stream of energy to those students. Those who were not present at every session shall also receive a special blessing. But it cannot, according to the great cosmic law, excel that blessing which must be given to the faithful whom the angelic host desire to reward and will reward this night with a special blessing of great magnitude.

Ladies and gentlemen, I ask you to stand now upon your feet for a moment and raise your hands to your shoulders' height, cupping them in a gentle manner while the angelic host radiate to all within this room their blessing.

[Congregation stands and holds up their hands at shoulder level.]

I wish to point out that it is not my desire to diminish that blessing for anyone. And, therefore, I shall balance [with a blessing] from my lifestream that which the angels do not convey to those who were not present [at every session] so that all will receive the blessing of the light in equal proportion. This is perfectly agreeable with the hierarchy of the angelic host, who radiate to you now that divine blessing which the Great Law desires to confer upon your lifestreams for the blessings which have gone forth [from this class] to the people of Los Angeles.

The city of Los Angeles has been swept by a mighty wave of cosmic light, which has gone forth not only to purify the atmosphere for this class but also to assist in purifying elemental life. And therefore we caused a great downpour of rain to flash forth upon this area in a manner which has not happened for a considerable period of time. [We caused this] so you might recognize that not only was the outer rain pouring forth, but the latter rain<sup>9</sup> of spiritual illumination [was pouring forth] to kindle the hearts of men with the power of their own God flame and to sweep them into greater awareness of their own God-identity.

Oh, it is so easy, blessed ones, for mankind to forget their own God-identity, to be immersed in a sea of troubles<sup>10</sup> (which encompasses them round about), and to forget that the power to eliminate those troubles is in the flame within their own heart. And therefore I say, I shall now cease [speaking] while you may absorb these blessings for a few moments.

[64-second pause]

O gentle angels, forces of the elements, beloved Prince Oromasis, beloved Neptune, beloved Aries and beloved Pelleur,<sup>11</sup> convey the blessings of the four elements to these thy children so that they may recognize the power of the square and the power of the cosmic circle of spiritual illumination and understand inwardly the methods of squaring the circle and obtaining their own divine identity from the four corners of the earth.

(Won't you please be seated.)
