Part 2

The [kinds of] problems that existed in ages past in various forms are now current for mankind. But the power of the spiritual light in many eras past was not nearly so great in manifestation as it is in this present hour. I call to your attention the words of the beloved Jesus: "He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father."¹

I would like to point out to the students here assembled that each lifestream that is given the blessing of the ascension is convoyed into the higher octaves as a God-free being and anchors for mankind, yet unascended, a special radiance and quality of divine love...

Saint Germain's Class of the Angels

You Are Potential Ascended Masters

Part 2

The [kinds of] problems that existed in ages past in various forms are now current for mankind. But the power of the spiritual light in many eras past was not nearly so great in manifestation as it is in this present hour. I call to your attention the words of the beloved Jesus: "He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father."¹

I would like to point out to the students here assembled that each lifestream that is given the blessing of the ascension is convoyed into the higher octaves as a God-free being and anchors for mankind, yet unascended, a special radiance and quality of divine love—a love extended to the planetary body from the very heart flame of the ascending one. This love, then, completes the fulfillment of the law uttered by the Christ.² And with each addition to the ascended host, the powers of light for this planetary body are strengthened.

In view of the fact that there have been a multitude of ascensions (including my own) since Jesus rose from Bethany's hill,³ I am certain you will recognize that the chorus of the heavenly hierarchy is being swelled each year. And therefore you are most fortunate, O mankind of earth, to have a greater assistance, by far, to cope with your problems than was ever given to this planet before.

And yet, blessed ones, today the problems have been multiplied manifold. And mankind require our assistance in order to cope with those conditions which they find abiding in human densities, complicated by a release of those lifestreams who were so discordant in the past that they were held, as it were, in a prison house, bound and not permitted to manifest upon the screen of this planet. Recently many of these rebellious lifestreams have come into embodiment and have complicated conditions for mankind,⁴ making it necessary that the students of the light call forth a greater than ordinary activity of the angelic host to take up this discordant energy and purify it.

Ladies and gentlemen, I hope you will recognize that opportunity is given to you daily to help and assist your brothers [and sisters] who are here with you. I am certain, as I speak to you—for I feel the vibrant fervor of your hearts—that you have a great love for the ascended host. May I compliment you on this love.

Love for Kuthumi, who was [embodied as] Saint Francis, is very blessed indeed. For it generates within you his own great awareness of spiritual humility whereby he was able to invoke such mighty assistance for the people of Assisi and the world. He was a true instrument of peace. And each one of you may, in absorbing the vibrations of Kuthumi and others of the ascended host, anchor within the forcefield of your own individual identity those selfsame qualities of greatness which were anchored within his blessed heart.

You need not, ladies and gentlemen, have an idea or feel that you must be denied God-qualities because you have at some time or another committed some iniquity. I tell you that the Father will take every prodigal child and place the golden chain around the neck of that child, as was told you this past evening!⁵ And you must recognize, in accepting this, that you are linking yourself with your highest identity! As you link yourself with your highest identity, you will find the release of great spiritual qualities coming into your own lives.

You need not seek without to find the power of your own freedom, ladies and gentlemen! There are wondrous masters upon this planetary body in physical form. And I will admit it: some of them are in this great nation here, and some are in our own beloved India. But I tell you, ladies and gentlemen, you do not need, in many cases, to pursue them. For when the proper time comes, a great master can call you out. But the most important thing is to call forth the mastery from within your own God flame. For then, this will assist your spiritual potential and it will mean that you are far more apt to receive the attention of great masters, whether ascended or unascended.

The power of Christ-victory can be obtained from the lives of the saints who did not, in their passing from the screen of life, sacrifice their God-identity but are alive forevermore! Remember the words of the Christ revealed to John the Revelator.⁶ Remember the concept of the one whose hair was white as wool, who spoke with the voice of many waters, who stood among the candlesticks and who said, "Behold, I AM alive forevermore."⁷

You are a part of that mighty God Self, that power of the Divine Source, which was released through the power of Chananda in the retreats in India and came from the Cave of Light.⁸ This is the power of regeneration, which can transmute your [physical bodies and raise them in vibration as] spiritual bodies.⁹

I tell you, ladies and gentlemen, you must understand that your physical form is constantly embraced by your spiritual body. And you must recognize, then, that you have the power resident within the God flame within your own heart to cut yourself free from the vibratory action around yourself that is not the perfect manifestation of that spiritual self!

Ladies and gentlemen, your physical bodies are intended to be spiritual. Have you thought upon this? Simply because they are dense expressions, because of human recalcitrance and density, does not mean that they are not wonderful instruments and that they were not intended to be beautiful instruments of divine light.

Your physical forms were intended to be translucent with cosmic light. And some of you have witnessed this on the faces of the saints, and you have occasionally met people who were in a specially high spiritual vibratory action whereby the light radiated through their faces and countenance as from the sun. This quality, beloved ones, is in all. It is not exclusive to anyone, but it is the God-bestowed blessing to all.

One of the greatest errors which mankind have made (and which the students have made through the years) is the idea of worshiping personalities and not recognizing the Divine Person within themselves. I call, therefore, by the power of divine love, for the great God Selves of all who are here to come forth from within your physical forms and to stand forth in dazzling splendor! I call for that great divine God Self to make itself manifest and to take its dominion over your physical forms and make known to you your God-identity, that you may find your freedom in that expression!

You will never find your freedom in the expression of the human personality, for it constantly brings mankind into greater slavery and disobedience to the laws of life's perfection. But your Divine Presence is not like that. Your Divine Presence is the quality of mercy that is not strained, "that droppeth to the earth as a gentle rain from heaven."¹⁰

I tell you, ladies and gentlemen, it is not necessary for you to be fanatical about this. It is not necessary for you to become disturbed about it. It is simply necessary for you to relax and to forget your own outer identity and to recognize the power of your Presence itself to bring forth its own perfection within your world—if you will but let go of all outer human conditions, as the beloved Gabriel revealed at the close of the first class session that was held here.¹¹

Some of the students were able to sustain the action of that flame for some time and to hold it in continuous action within their forms. But I tell you, ladies and gentlemen, you ought to strive to hold that ideal of perfection always. And if for a moment, perchance, it escapes and evaporates, recognize that the source of the great spring within is constantly bubbling up your own fresh God-identity, momentarily.*

And you need not be concerned if it seems to vanish for a moment from your vision. You need but recognize that it is always with you, that it is the great God flame within your heart, and that it is the power and pressure of immortality which will exhort you to your own God-ascension in the light in due course of time.

"The Summit Lighthouse Sheds Its Radiance o'er All the World to Manifest as Pearls of Wisdom." This previously unpublished dictation by Saint Germain was delivered by the Messenger of the Great White Brotherhood Mark L. Prophet on Friday, September 20, 1963, during Saint Germain's Class of the Angels held in Los Angeles, California. [N.B. Bracketed words have been added for clarity in the written word.] Parts 1 and 3 of this Pearl of Wisdom are published in this volume, nos. 13 and 15. (1) John 14:12. (2) Matt. 5:17; Rom. 10:4, 5; 13:10; Gal. 5:14. (3) For the ascended masters' teaching on Jesus' rising from Bethany's hill, see p. 75, n. 5, this volume. (4) Rebellious lifestreams. See the Goddess of Liberty, Liberty Proclaims (Summit University Press). On November 22, 1975, Elizabeth Clare Prophet said: "In Liberty Proclaims [the Goddess of Liberty] speaks of the edict of the Lords of Karma that was a staying action on the birth of the fallen ones—very rebellious lifestreams who were incarnated on Atlantis, who caused the sinking of Atlantis through their misuses of the sacred fire, their manipulations of consciousness, their black magic. These are the souls who were not allowed to embody until this [twentieth] century, and with them came the wrath of the drug culture and all types of misuses of energy. In Liberty Proclaims she sends forth the edict that the doors are closed to opportunity to these fallen ones to incarnate until the Christed ones can arrive. So she proclaims the coming of the lightbearers; and with that proclamation, made a number of years ago . . . , began this programming of zero population growth and the abortion of those on the way. And so now we are fighting the battle for the very life of the saviours of mankind" (The Greater Way of Freedom, chap. 2, pp. 46–47). (5) Prodigal child. On September 19, 1963, the evening before Saint Germain's dictation, the messenger Mark L. Prophet taught: "Our freedom can only come from our Divine Self, the great Divine Source. It can never come from the human. We can free one another. We can give everyone their freedom, and I'm sure that they deserve it. The prodigal son came long ago to his father and said, 'Give me of my substance,' and he took it and spent it in riotous living. But when he returned to his father's house, the father immediately killed the fatted calf, put the golden chain [around] his [son's] neck and greeted him with love. [See Luke 15:11–32.] Our Divine Source stands ready to greet us with a chain of spiritual liberty, because the laws of heaven are in that golden chain. Man today is in chains of iron and brass of their own forging. But heaven has its laws, and they are laws of love. And when those laws are obeyed, our freedom is in obedience to them and happiness is in obedience to them." Notes are continued in Part 3 of this Pearl of Wisdom, published in this volume, no. 15.
