The Presence of Light within Your Heart
Is the Fullness of All That the Universal Consciousness Holds

Forcefields of Light Weave Together the Body of God
throughout the Planetary Body

Part 1

Precious ones of the light, I am come this night in the holy name of freedom to remind you of the immortality that is locked within the presence of light within your heart. "The presence of light within your heart" may seem to be a mere simple statement, and yet it is the fullness of all that the universal consciousness holds.

The anchor point of the flame of life within your being connects you with all worlds whatsoever. And it enables you, if you will, to rise into a state of overcoming consciousness whereby you can overcome the world and all that the world itself holds in bondage.

The Presence of Light within Your Heart Is the Fullness of All That the Universal Consciousness Holds

*Forcefields of Light Weave Together the Body of God
throughout the Planetary Body*

Part 1

O thou wondrous Divine Opportunity, the inflow of the almighty power of light's perfection, come thou and assert thyself and thy dominion into the forcefield of each one of these children of light. Let them feel the wondrous outpouring of thy radiance, the consummate intelligence and power of Almighty God, whose every thought unfolds the perfection of man, even as the flower unfolds from the bud, until all are raised to that fair estate where the full manifestation of their own divinity is apparent to all and they bloom on those Elysian fields, where the purity and the radiance of heaven is the full perfection of their being in manifestation.

Precious ones of the light, I am come this night in the holy name of freedom to remind you of the immortality that is locked within the presence of light within your heart. "The presence of light within your heart" may seem to be a mere simple statement, and yet it is the fullness of all that the universal consciousness holds.

The anchor point of the flame of life within your being connects you with all worlds whatsoever. And it enables you, if you will, to rise into a state of overcoming consciousness whereby you can overcome the world and all that the world itself holds in bondage. And thus you can become an absolute manifest child of light, that all who behold you will know and feel the pressure and the presence of that light that is within you.

Most gracious ones, I am come this night to speak to you concerning forcefields. For I would have you know that every individual has a forcefield of light or of shadow, as the case may be, according to the measure of their qualification [of energy], which is anchored all around them in the human aura. But buildings and places also have forcefields, which reflect the character of the individuals abiding there. And these forcefields create a radiating point in the world for conditions of light or of shadow, as the case may be.

Now, I am certain that all of the students of this great light will long to feel the pressure of those forcefields of light and to know that those forcefields throughout the planetary body are interconnected by mighty rivers of light, streamers of divine radiance which weave together the body of God throughout the entire planetary body, so much so that the retreat at the Grand Teton, for example, is connected by mighty light rays with the retreat of the God and Goddess Meru at Lake Titicaca in South America,<sup>1</sup> and all retreats of the Great White Brotherhood are woven together into one magnificent outpouring.

Know, then, blessed ones, that wherever there are gathered together even two or three in the name of the Christ, in the name of the mighty I AM Presence, there in the midst of them cometh forth the light,<sup>2</sup> the connecting link that draws that focus and forcefield into the network of the entire Great White Brotherhood and establishes there a pillar of mighty light which brings to all in that general area a specific manifest radiation of the divine intent and purposes.

I am come this night, then, to establish here in Minneapolis a specific quality of the God flame of freedom, to anchor here in this place a specific quality and radiation which shall cause the hearts of all who are receptive and responsive to the vibratory action of the light to feel and to know that a flame of freedom is anchored here.

And yet, as I speak to you this night, I am prone to bestow upon all of you who will accept it a gift of a miniature flame of freedom to be anchored within the forcefield of your own being, according to your own measure of devotion to the holy cause which you have externalized in your service to the light in past times.

Blessed ones, know, then, that labor and virtue are their own reward and have their own reward. For tonight I bring to you this specific gift, bestowing it upon you in the forcefield of your own hearts. Right where the mighty threefold flame of life is anchored, there I AM depositing a specific momentum of the mighty flame of freedom, the power of victory for the entire planet! Wherever you go, you may be a bearer of the flame of freedom to all you come in contact with, creating, then, and generating mobile forcefields to spread abroad the mighty power of light and its perfection, as though you were a moving star, an advent of great light, telling all peoples everywhere of the great incoming of the mighty stream of freedom from the heart of God.

This shall come forth in the golden age and shall anchor, in all of the many forcefields of light throughout the planetary body, the mighty connecting link of each one's divinity, which shall cause all people to become one, not only in heart and feeling but also in every endeavor that is dear to their hearts.

The cherished ideals of freedom, then, become the cup of men's longing, filled with the contact with their own mighty I AM Presence and the power of the ascended masters, who reach forth through the veil of the invisible into the visible realm to let all see reflected in the identity of man not the density patterns of human creation but the mighty patterns of infinite freedom.

This shall remove every trace of human discord and shall cause the individuals connected to me to be examples of the great light and the outpouring of the flame of freedom, which shall sweep the earth like a prairie fire until the earth is free, purified by the sacred fire and the washing of regeneration of the mighty Spirit of God, the Spirit of the Infinite One, who has created all men.

And yet, all do not acknowledge his Presence nor bow unto him and acknowledge the preeminence of the mighty I AM Presence in their life. Neither do all at the present time confess to the glory of their own divine identity and acknowledge the name of the living Christ Presence of their being as the Mediator between themselves and their mighty I AM Presence.

Blessed ones, you do not know the great good that is bestowed upon the world as you issue forth these decrees—these magnificent patterns that you are creating, which are becoming established foci of light and are causing many to come to drink of the fount of life. You see, blessed ones, there is a threefold service to be rendered upon the earth, and that service is to serve not only the needs of mankind but also the needs of the angels, for they also have needs, and their needs are to serve mankind. And then, blessed ones, [the third area of service is] to serve the needs of the elemental kingdom, that the elementals may be cut free [by your decrees] from the imposed discord which mankind have thrust upon them through wrong thought and feeling.

This has caused these elementals to be locked, as it were, and encased in a mold of silt and human creation, the substance of mankind's density, which has no part with the I AM Presence but is a misqualified action of mankind. This substance functions, then, in the dimensions of human creation and in the realm of the human ego, without the illumination of the sacred fire and the great release that freedom can bring to all who will accept it.

I AM called by mankind the God of Freedom for the earth. And it is therefore a mighty joy for me to bring to you tonight, by the power of light, the infinite outpouring of that flame of freedom so that you may come to know that the veil connecting you with your own God Presence can be made very, very thin and that you can actually see and perceive through this veil the wonderful gleamings of the sacred fire.

Precious ones, I remind you of the Grail mysteries.<sup>3</sup> I remind you that your physical form, then, can become a repository for the holy substance of Almighty God that can be anchored there in the flame within your heart and can cause the gleams of that bright coal from the altars of heaven to actually pass through the molecular structure of your body and to beam forth, not only from your eyes as a gleam that is twinkling from the eyes of God but also as the manifest power of the sacred fire gleaming forth from every cell.

This manifest power of the sacred fire renews the vitality of your physical body, infusing your mind with holy substance and compassion and filling your emotions with an infinite love for God that refuses to submit to the densities of mankind and demands of life that it have its own cosmic identity asserted as the moving power—the cause, the First Cause—of all action in your own world.

Precious ones, so long as mankind are content to be guided by the whims of human reason, the fallacies of human thought, and the awful deceits practiced by human emotions upon them, they will find themselves going astray from the pathway that leads to infinite happiness.

But when they recognize the power of Almighty God to give them their freedom at this specific moment and then to maintain, by the power of light and its superior intent, the fullness of their own divine perfection at all times, they will find that they are entering in to an era of such happiness as will cause them to desire nothing as much as the perfection of their own Divine Presence. And because they have intensified the desire of their own Presence to draw forth from heaven the virtues of heaven, they will become manifest tokens and symbols of God's love for the earth and its entire environs.

Mankind, then, will be raised on mighty wings of light. They will be raised from the phoenixlike ashes and will be raised into an infinite sphere where their services to the earth can become a unified action of the Cosmic Christ. And there will not be those elements of human discord that hitherto have served very well to divide the body of God and to prevent a manifest integration of the bodies of light upon this planet and the full outpicturing of heaven's glory. Thus mankind might see, not through a glass darkly but face to face into the immortal knowing of their own divine perfection.<sup>4</sup>
