The Presence of Light within Your Heart Is the Fullness of All That the Universal Consciousness Holds

Forcefields of Light Weave Together the Body of God throughout the Planetary Body

Part 2

Now, blessed ones, when I came, I spake unto you concerning forcefields. Now let me bring to your attention the fact that the grid of the forcefield is divided, as it were, arbitrarily into a series of small squares that extend from the center of the forcefield out into space, and [the attributes of] this space can vary according to the intensity of the forcefield.

And I tell you, blessed ones, that some of the squares located very close to the heart center of the forcefield are intense with a tremendous glowing radiance of white light, whereas, as you proceed farther into space from the center of the forcefield there is a lessening of the intensity of that radiation. Therefore, the more sensitive [person] will, of course, be able to pick up this tremendous radiation even from a distance, whereas others will require a more intense action of the forcefield if they are to realize what is taking place in the mighty release of light.

The Presence of Light within Your Heart . . .

Therefore, you must understand, blessed ones, that many of the scientific laws which govern the manifestation of mankind's energy do govern the forces of light and the release thereof. You must understand the difficulties which are sometimes encountered in communicating with your octave as we do and as we are doing this evening—conditions of opposition from the outer mind and consciousness of those among mankind who desire to prevent the manifestation of our words and the release of our substance, with all of its purity, into your worlds.

For I tell you, in the darkness and shadow of ignorance, many have become bound to a regimen, and that regimen has never in all eternity given them their freedom. And I tell you, it never will! For you cannot bring forth light out of darkness. You cannot bring forth purity out of shadowed and impure substance.

You must recognize that the greater does indeed contain the lesser. But the greater must flow into and infuse the lesser with the full radiance of its own perfection until there is drawn forth—by a summoning of the holy will of heaven, by the individual's own will harnessed thereto—a complete release of the necessary requirements of the Great Law, which shall give every individual his freedom when the fullness of time is come for the manifestation thereof in his own world.

Now I tell you, blessed ones, when forcefields of light are established and multiplied throughout the planet, it will be an integrating of the great power of light and an intensification of the cosmic grid from all of the forcefields so that there will be no spot upon earth that will not be saturated with an intense action of light as it is released.

Do you see what this, then, will mean to men who are presently engrossed in the building of monuments to their own personal egos and in the acquirement of money so that they may cause others to tremble because of their monetary power?

I tell you, blessed ones, for money's sake and for the sake of filthy lucre, some among the mankind of earth will do almost anything, even [if it means] bringing about destruction and the defeat of great nations. They will betray their countries. They will betray their homes and families. They will betray their own Divine Presence for the sake of money. I tell you, blessed ones, this is an action of the money beast,<sup>1</sup> whose center—lying over Wall Street in New York City—has caused a manipulation of the stock markets, many times to the destruction of many individuals.

Blessed ones, do you realize what the action of man's love of money has done to the cities of your own country? Do you realize how it has brought about not only places where individuals act in a manner most unbecoming to their own divinity but also where they deceive mankind and attempt to deceive the very Deity within their own person?

And yet, of course, it is a known fact (to you all who have an understanding of the Great Law) that this is impossible. For the Eye of God sees all and knows all that is taking place everywhere! And the divine hierarchy, through its great cosmic link of angelic intelligences, is able to report to the great Lords of Karma upon the instant every single act of mankind so that there is no individual anywhere who is able to proceed, in the darkness of his own being, to perform nefarious acts and then to escape the action of the Great Law.

Blessed ones, these grids and forcefields of light have their counterpart in forcefields of iniquity, which are scattered throughout the land and release to mankind an intense action of shadowed substance. In order to counteract this, then, it is necessary that more and more forcefields of light be tied together throughout the planet so that a great cosmic integration may cause the seamless garment of the Christ (which this beloved messenger spake to you about) to actually be the swaddling garment of the earth. This will bring forth the mighty Cosmic Christ intelligence to all mankind, which shall enable the entire earth to enter into their freedom and to know and to be the fullness of their own mighty I AM Presence.

"Be still, and know that I AM God!"<sup>2</sup> is a fiat which you may enter into daily and, in the consummate entering in thereto, find your freedom from all the entanglements which mankind release.

Do you think, blessed ones, that the outer actions of mankind have any meaning to your own immortal destiny? I think not.

For the most important problems you will ever encounter are the problems of bringing yourself to the feet of your own blessed divinity and permitting that blessed Presence of Life [your I AM Presence] to take you by the hand and to lift you up, as the prodigal son,<sup>3</sup> to the very heart of God and to say to you: "I AM calling you now to come unto me and to be free from all foreign entanglements and to give the great allegiance of your heart unto me, that I may give myself unto you, in my fullness, to see that you are the breathing image of myself in action here."

Blessed ones, for many reasons I shall take my leave of you now, but not without that kiss of immortal peace that I have bestowed upon you in the flame within your heart—the kiss of freedom which, I tell you, blessed ones, can only be amplified by service to the holy cause.

Your destiny is in your hands, individually and collectively. You serve as individuals to receive the Presence of God and to be the Presence of God to all life. But you are also collectively a great outpouring of our love to mankind. Be that in action here, and I think that when we come before the Lords of Karma with the presentation of the fullness of the action of this year's accomplishments, it shall be most glorious and holy.

And whereas some among mankind may not acknowledge the power and pressure [of this great outpouring], I think that those of us whose eyes are open—not only to the Spirit of God and his holy Truth but to the spirit of love as it passes abroad among you and walks your streets in your own person and in the person of the angelic intelligences—will rejoice in that hour, because I AM come! And the holy cause of freedom—enhanced, then, by the immortal love that is alive within you, the breathing intelligence of the angelic host—will so completely integrate you with the being of God that you shall feel the thoughts of mankind, yet unascended, and the pressure of their prayers and calls unto the Deity.

And you shall rush forth during the night hours, while your body sleeps, to join Michael's legions<sup>4</sup> and the powers of the angelic host in order to serve mankind and the guardian angels of their Presence. And you shall be a comforting presence to life everywhere, and to lead, blessed ones, that double life which every ascended master has led in ages past, finding, then, that by service and love to the light he [or she] has won the victory in the fight. And that one has indeed entered in to the fullness of God's power—the power of light over sin and human density, the power that forgives and is the consummate mastery of all substance, all energy, and all principle.

I say unto you tonight: Go forth in freedom's light and be the perfection which I AM, the perfection which your Presence is. For in that Presence I abide. I abide in the Divine Presence of myself, my own mighty I AM Presence into which I ascended, now long ago. And ye who will go forth in freedom's light may yet come in this day and age to find the wondrous freedom which I abide in and to be an outpost, even in this hour, of that holy light.

I thank you for your attention, for your dignity, for your grace, for your service, for your energy, for all that you have done for and on behalf of this cause. And may your blessings continue without end—an unbroken blessing of cosmic service that shall make the earth free for God and for the I AM Presence in the heart of the Great Central Sun.

I thank you, and I bid you good evening.

"The Summit Lighthouse Sheds Its Radiance o'er All the World to Manifest as Pearls of Wisdom." This previously unpublished dictation by Saint Germain was delivered by the Messenger of the Great White Brotherhood Mark L. Prophet on Sunday, July 12, 1964, in Minneapolis, Minnesota. [N.B. Bracketed words have been added for clarity in the written word.] Part 1 of this Pearl of Wisdom is published in this volume, no. 17. (1) The money beast is the "beast coming up out of the earth," whose number is 666 (Rev. 13:11–18). The messenger Elizabeth Clare Prophet explains that this mass astral entity, named Jezebella, is the consciousness of the greed and power of international forces involving corporate, financial, and power elite interests. It is a misuse of capitalism. The Oxford English Dictionary defines greed as "inordinate or insatiate longing, especially for wealth; avaricious or covetous desire." Mrs. Prophet explains that people think it is money that is the root of all evil; but it is not, according to the teachings of the ascended masters. Money is our supply, the instrument of exchange. But it is the love of money, or the love of the form, that is the problem. The mass entity of greed enslaves the nations of the world, inducing attachment to material possessions. The money beast hangs over Wall Street, manipulating the stock exchange and producing periodic economic crises through forces both in and out of embodiment. It stretches its tentacles across continents and into the hearts of men. The economic enslavement of the planet is sustained through this form because men willingly feed their precious energies into it in their insatiable desire for wealth, which they think will give them freedom and control over others. (2) Ps. 46:10. (3) Prodigal son. Luke 15:11–32. See Pearl no. 14 in this volume, p. 102, n. 5. (4) In his dictation of October 10, 1976, Archangel Michael said: "I AM the Archangel of the Deliverance and I come forth to set the captives free. I come forth to deliver you from the toils of the spoilers and to deliver you into the arms of the everlasting God. . . . I come also to enlist you in the service of the Lord Christ, to invite you to join the legions of Archangel Michael, the hosts of the LORD, who come following the Faithful and True, who leads the armies of heaven into battle for and on behalf of the souls of God on earth.” The messenger Elizabeth Clare Prophet has explained that we can ask the angels and our Holy Christ Self to take us in our etheric body while we sleep at night to join with Archangel Michael’s legions in this service to life.

Prophet and Elizabeth Clare Prophet (Summit University Press). On the Royal Teton Retreat, see Pearl no. 6, this volume, p. 43, notes 1 and 5. (2) Matt. 18:20. (3) The Grail mysteries. The Grail is also called Holy Grail, the Saint Grail or sangrail (Old French le saint graal). In Medieval legend, the Grail is the chalice used by Jesus at the Last Supper and afterward by Joseph of Arimathea to catch the blood flowing from Jesus’ wounds at the cross. According to one legend, Joseph of Arimathea brought the Grail to Glastonbury, England. Medieval literature links the Grail story to Arthurian legend. It describes the rise and fall of King Arthur and the fellowship of the Round Table and the legendary quest of the Holy Grail by various knights of Arthur’s Round Table. The thirteenth-century Quest del Saint Graal (Quest for the Holy Grail), author unknown, introduced the pure knight Sir Galahad, and the quest for the Grail became a quest for mystical union with God. Of all the knights, only Sir Galahad could look directly into the Grail and behold the divine mysteries. Sir Thomas Malory’s late fifteenth-century narrative Le Morte d’Arthur is the first account in English of the King Arthur tradition and the Grail quest. On April 21, 1984, Elizabeth Clare Prophet said: “It would be difficult to say which of the mysteries of the Holy Grail is the greatest, the most wonderful, or the most beautiful. The revelation of the I AM Presence and of the Christ Self is a profound mystery of our own identity and our potential to be free. The gift of freedom and of free will itself is a profound mystery. Taking these as the givens of the Path—though they are keys that unlock the door and therefore the journey home—we look to a singular mystery that, above and beyond all, by our use translates as our victory. That mystery is truly the science of the spoken Word. Out of this science and out of the Word are all of the secrets of alchemy, the wonders of precipitation and levitation, fathoming the very depths of healing and the unveiling of the soul itself.” For teaching on the science of the spoken Word, see Saint Germain On Alchemy, glossary, s.v., “Spoken Word,” and Mark L. Prophet and Elizabeth Clare Prophet, The Science of the Spoken Word (Summit University Press). For additional teaching on the mysteries of the Holy Grail, including the mystery of self and keys to the soul’s reunion with God, see Archangel Gabriel’s Mysteries of the Holy Grail (Summit University Press). ## I AM Light

by Kuthumi

I AM Light, glowing Light,
Radiating Light, intensified Light.
God consumes my darkness,
Transmuting it into Light.

This day I AM a focus of the Central Sun.
Flowing through me is a crystal river,
A living fountain of Light
That can never be qualified
By human thought and feeling.
I AM an outpost of the Divine.
Such darkness as has used me is swallowed up
By the mighty river of Light which I AM.

I AM, I AM, I AM Light;
I live, I live, I live in Light.
I AM Light’s fullest dimension;
I AM Light’s purest intention.
I AM Light, Light, Light
Flooding the world everywhere I move,
Blessing, strengthening, and conveying
The purpose of the kingdom of heaven.*
