Freedom Is the Result of Consecrated Effort and an Immortal Sense of Destiny

Part 2

And now I say to you, do you realize, precious ones, that when you were born as an infant, you yourselves were given a tremendous impetus of God-power as the threefold flame within your heart?

When your form was tinier than it is now and did not exhibit its present grossness,* the flame within you was bigger, by comparison, than it is in some of you at this hour. For there was no weight of accumulated karma of this embodiment to enclose the flame round about. And so in many, the flame has actually shrunk in size. I do not refer here only to those in this audience, but I am referring to mankind universally. For I find that many of you here have expanded your flames until today your flames are much larger, by comparison, to the physical forms [you possessed as infants]. Therefore, I today would commend you for that.

Freedom Is the Result of Consecrated Effort and an Immortal Sense of Destiny

Part 2

And now I say to you, do you realize, precious ones, that when you were born as an infant, you yourselves were given a tremendous impetus of God-power as the threefold flame within your heart?

When your form was tinier than it is now and did not exhibit its present grossness,* the flame within you was bigger, by comparison, than it is in some of you at this hour. For there was no weight of accumulated karma of this embodiment to enclose the flame round about. And so in many, the flame has actually shrunk in size. I do not refer here only to those in this audience, but I am referring to mankind universally. For I find that many of you here have expanded your flames until today your flames are much larger, by comparison, to the physical forms [you possessed as infants]. Therefore, I today would commend you for that.

But I am certain that you are not content to bask in this simple radiation of the threefold flame of life within you, even though it be twice or three times the size of that which *i.e., large size; big, bulky

it was at your birth and nativity. I feel certain that you will wish to see it expand still further, until the density patterns of your existence are themselves no longer an impediment to the free flow of life.

For actually, what takes place [when the threefold flame is not sufficiently expanded], blessed ones, is that there is the stoppage of the release of this immortal substance and its flow through your worlds. This is what causes the aging condition and the calcination of the physical form.

For when the actual fire of God comes into your form through the fresh oxygen that enters the lungs—when the bellows thereof fan the flame of life within the heart and the blood carries the wondrous power and radiance of the fresh oxygen as the fire of God to every part of the body temple—it is intended to renew the cells, one and all, throughout the entire body. It is intended to actually cause the light within each cell to penetrate through that cell with the very substance of immortality that would transform you and change you, as in the twinkling of an eye, into the ascended state.¹

Thus from the beginning, when a tiny body comes forth as a baby, the ascension process is intended to start. And therefore there is a tremendous resistance to disease in the infant child, which is imparted through the very life flow of the essences from the mother herself when the child is still connected via the umbilical cord.

Precious ones, with the severing of that cord, however, and the individualization of that which was a dual manifestation for a period of gestation, it is necessary that this life, then, shall be, as it were, on its own. And the individual now becomes transferred from the umbilical cord of the mother to the umbilical cord, or the silver cord,² that connects the individual with its own Divine Presence; and life flows individually, per se, into the individual's world.

It is intended, however, that a gigantic penetration of this substance shall occur whereby the silver cord shall be enlarged upon. And more and more energy shall be drawn forth so that mankind in this day and age, rather than diminish their life span to the appointed three score and ten, might expand it as in the days of old when the giants roamed the earth.³ [It was in those days that people had] the very first love of the Holy Spirit manifest in the great size of their physical silver cord and in the drawing down of a tremendous power of the radiance of their Presence into their worlds, which gave them continuity of life far beyond the presently appointed life span of man.

I remember many years ago, when Ponce de León sought the fabled fountain of youth outside of himself and went into Florida in search of that fountain.⁴ I remember how we tried to inspire upon him and to tell him many times from inner levels that the fountain of youth lay within his own power and grasp, right within his being.

But he continued to search for it outwardly, as many do through the cosmetician's art and through the eating of healthy foods and the taking of various forms of elixirs and pills, including vitamins and other sources of nutriment, many of which are good and are of value to individuals. And yet the very power of life itself lies within the great germinal seed of God locked within the God flame within their heart.

When men will realize the sacred and secret method of releasing a penetration of this holy flame within each cell of their body, they will have regained the lost secret of youth, and rejuvenation will be possible for many. I tell you, precious ones, that even if they do not rejuvenate themselves outwardly, they will have such a tremendous flow of the God flame within their heart that they will be inwardly rejuvenated.

And when the moment of their ascension comes, as it did to David Lloyd,⁵ I tell you that the very appearance of age will actually fall from their countenance at that moment and their hair will be restored to its own natural, pristine glory. The radiance and purity of the color that shone forth in the tiny, fine, gossamer baby hair will manifest again in its full-stranded glory of ascended master perfection.

For indeed, I tell you, ladies and gentlemen, that the power of the angels is in your hair. And your hair is actually a manifestation of the great light radiance which is manifesting within the brains of the elect. When your hair, blessed ones, is permitted to grow, it is intended to be an action of expanding light rays. And this is the reason why the apostle Paul, in the days of the early Church, did accentuate the growing of long hair in the women and did recommend it unto them, saying that it was a shame for women to have short hair.⁶ But the fashion of this day has changed somewhat, for the power of hair is not recognized by women.

Awake, I say! And recognize that I, Saint Germain, AM speaking to you! Do you think this is an ordinary occasion, one in which you can fall asleep? I tell you, when you fall asleep you open the door to the sinister force to drive in and to prevent a continuation of our addresses! We are giving you this address in order to vivify your life and to make you children of the light and the dawn! Why will you sleep, then, when you can watch with the very Presence of God in your life?

(Won't you please be seated.)

Ladies and gentlemen, the time of our toleration has passed! We are determined that those who will be revived in this day and age shall manifest [this revivification], and we are determined to separate the sheep from the goats.⁷ We tell you, ladies and gentlemen, we do not want any of you to be goats! We want all of you to be the sheep of the Lord, and we want you all to follow the straight and narrow path.⁸

Therefore I say to every one of you, personally and individually, I do not want you to accept for one minute that you cannot stay awake and be alert in our dictations! For I tell you that the opportunity to hear us is one that many may have only once in a lifetime prior to their ascension. And there are some individuals who have only been given one opportunity to hear an ascended master dictation and have rejoiced ever thereafter for the release of that holy substance which has changed their lives.

Others have had countless opportunities to have our words poured forth in a very torrent of divine love, which often was not recognized for all of its glory and pristine purity and for the power which it could bring into their lives if they would accept it and drink deeply of the draught of immortal life! So long as individuals do not drink deeply of the draught of immortal life, [hearing our words] is merely a surface experience that cannot at best do more than cause them to marvel at its expression!

But when men! [messenger pounds podium] and women! [messenger pounds podium] and children! [messenger pounds podium] throughout the world will feel the great life-tide flowing from the heart of God to give them power over the waning moon substance of their worlds—the emotional power and the power that can control the feelings of [misqualified] energy within their beings—and when they take dominion over the forces of their mind through the power of the sun-stream of divine wisdom, then they will realize that God has of old released his energy to the earth and is releasing it to this day.

And those who are alert will have the power to perceive it. But to all others it will seem as though a voice had but spoken in the night and the language will seem but as a foreign tongue—and the message will pass unnoticed. It will be as though two ships had passed in the night, the one going east and the one going west. And these twain would never seem to meet unless the soul itself would greet the celestial dawn of the sun-stream's radiance within the heart of the morn.

For then, when this great shaft of light comes forth from God's own purity, Gabriel shall blow his horn and they who are in the graves of human ignorance shall awaken to hear the voice of the Son of God⁹ uttering forth the similitudes* that are indeed causes for heavenly gratitude. For these similitudes stem from the very root and flower of heaven's own power over the desert self of men, raising them to the beauty of the New Age and to the dawn of celestial radiance that shall sweep mankind out of all of their density patterns of imperfection.

This celestial radiance will give them understanding that shall raise the dead in consciousness until the dry reeds shall turn green and the pine trees that have been burned and rendered unfit for habitation by the elementals shall be restored. And the LORD shall open up the continents of the air,¹⁰ and the green tree and the dry shall both stand in all of the fairness of the coming morning of light. And then the morning stars shall sing together for joy,¹¹ and the hearts of men shall be glad and rejoice.

This great union shall spread throughout the world until the world itself, guarded and sustained by the victory of the great golden eagle from Venus, shall know the power of love to change the world and all of mortal destiny until the dust of mankind's consciousness is transformed. And it will be transformed by the renewing of the spiritual covenants made with God into a celestial city upon earth—the vision of John the Beloved that “the tabernacle of God is with men” and he is their God and they are his people.¹² And the light of the LORD God shall make this city indeed a place of refuge to all of

* similitude: a parable, an allegory (mainly in biblical use) the mankind of this planetary body. This, then, becomes the vision of Saint Augustine as “The City of God.”¹³

The beloved Goddess of Liberty, in her magnificent concept, inspired upon Emma Lazarus the immortal lines: “Give me your tired, your poor. . . . Send these, the homeless, tempest-tost to me; I lift my lamp beside the golden door!”¹⁴ For the golden door of the dawn of reason and justice and mercy and freedom will come to all, and abide in all, and remain.

And all of the mountains of human oppression shall be removed out of their places and cast into the sea,¹⁵ and the sea shall be no more.¹⁶ And this is the wallowing of human emotion that shall end. Sympathy shall be destroyed to become compassion. And God’s boundaries shall be extended unto the farthest individual from the portals of immortality, and the measure of a man shall be known as the measure of God.¹⁷

And the teachers of light shall appear to delight the mind with the purity of divine reason. Understanding shall flow and the currents of discord shall cease to vibrate, for all will come clear in cosmic purity. Men shall receive the white stone in which is recorded their new name,¹⁸ the name of their Being (identified with the words “I AM”), which shall be a thing of delight and beauty forever. And the glory of the LORD shall wax hot and consume all the iniquities of men. Thus saith the LORD. Thus speaketh the God of Freedom for the sake of mankind and for the sake of the holy cause.

And now I say, as I part from you, the flaming awe of the celestial hosts, as they bow to the great cosmic messengers of light from the Great Central Sun, ought to also appear in your consciousness. You ought not to imagine for a moment that you are mortality. You ought to catch the vision and retain it forever, as we do. This is the mirror of perfection. “Mirror, mirror on the wall, who is fairest of them all?”¹⁹ Why, I AM!

Thank you.

“The Summit Lighthouse Sheds Its Radiance o’er All the World to Manifest as Pearls of Wisdom.” This previously unpublished dictation by Saint Germain was delivered by the Messenger of the Great White Brotherhood Mark L. Prophet on Monday, October 12, 1964, during the Harvest Feast of Gratitude conference, held at the Dodge House, Washington, D.C. [N.B. Bracketed words have been added for clarity in the written word.] Part 1 of this Pearl of Wisdom is published in this volume, no. 29. (1) I Cor. 15:52, 53. (2) Silver cord, also known as the crystal cord. Eccles. 12:6, 7; Mark L. Prophet and Elizabeth Clare Prophet, The Path of the Higher Self, volume one of the Climb the Highest Mountain series (Summit University Press), pp. 233–38; Pearls of Wisdom (PoW), vol. 32, no. 35, pp. 499–500; PoW, vol. 27, no. 56, p. 491. (3) On October 20, 1987, the messenger Elizabeth Clare Prophet said that in the early golden ages of this planet and other systems of worlds, the divine spark, the threefold flame, was once “fully the height that we are [today]. . . . The flame was reduced because of mankind’s misuse of the light, even the misqualification of that light. You remember the words that are recorded in Genesis that before the Flood, which was the sinking of Atlantis, people lived to be 900 years old. And after that the lifespan was reduced to threescore and ten. Since our life depends upon the divine spark, so the reduction in the divine spark resulted in the reduction of the crystal cord and the lifespan.” Genesis 5:5 records that Adam lived 930 years; Seth lived 912 years (Gen. 5:8); Enoch lived 365 years until “he walked with God: and he was not; for God took him” (Gen. 5:23, 24); Methuselah lived 969 years (Gen. 5:27); and Noah lived 950 years (Gen. 9:29). “Giants roamed the earth” refers to the Nephilim. The Hebrew term Nephilim, meaning “those who fell” or “those who were cast down,” is rendered in the Greek Septuagint, a late translation of the Hebrew scriptures, as “giants” (Gen. 6:4; Num. 13:33). See Elizabeth Clare Prophet, Fallen Angels and the Origins of Evil (Summit University Press), pp. 69–75. (4) Juan Ponce de León (1460–1521) was a Spanish explorer who founded the oldest settlement in Puerto Rico. The “continents of the air” have been referred to by the masters and the messengers as a heavenly realm where the voices of angels and ascended masters may be heard. Mark Prophet spoke of the continents of the air in an invocation he gave in 1970: “O thou infinite voice of universal truth, manifesting in our minds and hearts, open the doorway to the continents of the air that we may hear that which man has not heard and be infiltrated by thy loving fingers of light.” (11) Job 38:7. (13) Saint Augustine (A.D. 354–430), bishop of Hippo (396–430), one of the Latin Fathers of the Church and a Doctor of the Church, spent about 14 years writing The City of God—a 22-volume philosophical treatise that outlines his vision of two societies, that of the elect (“The City of God”) and that of the damned (“The City of Man”). According to Augustine, the eternal city of God, the heavenly Jerusalem, is the true home for all Christians. The perishing city of the world is doomed to disorder and confusion. The City of God was one of the most influential medieval works.
