The Purpose of Identity

Part 2

Let all, then, understand that our desire to give you freedom tonight is born of the sacred fire. For we ourselves are not occupied in vain politics or in the seeking of solutions to problems already created by humankind. Ours is more the concern with probing the depths and the elements of divine grace.

For the power of God, with all of its transcendent love, is an infinite power and not a finite one. Because the nature of God is infinite and not finite, the nature of God is a most marvelous treasure whereby individuals can and do proceed after their ascension to seek the penetration of these mysteries in a manner they never conceived of while they were yet engaged in the battle of searching for their spiritual freedom.

Part 2

Let all, then, understand that our desire to give you freedom tonight is born of the sacred fire. For we ourselves are not occupied in vain politics or in the seeking of solutions to problems already created by humankind. Ours is more the concern with probing the depths and the elements of divine grace.

For the power of God, with all of its transcendent love, is an infinite power and not a finite one. Because the nature of God is infinite and not finite, the nature of God is a most marvelous treasure whereby individuals can and do proceed after their ascension to seek the penetration of these mysteries in a manner they never conceived of while they were yet engaged in the battle of searching for their spiritual freedom.

But oh, what joy is theirs! What a passion of marvelous intensity occupies the consciousness when men are freed at last from the concerns of the flesh and the business of earning a living, the economic concerns. When men are free to actually pursue the Divine Self, they then begin to open the first doors that lead to freedom from captivity. Oh, what joy floods over the chalice lip of the cup of life eternal!

And how wonderful it is that this is so. For there are many people upon the planet Earth today who, in their vain imaginations, have the strangest concepts about life beyond the veil. These individuals somehow seem to imagine that we are either dead, that we are occupied with doing nothing, or that we are so immersed in the wonders of God that we ourselves cease to be.

Yet I assure you that the consciousness of individuality is a hallowed concept. And when God himself gave to man the power of the individual flame to function under the pulsations of the divine will or the human will, that freedom of choice was actually the marvelous boon of opportunity to the soul whereby the soul, in making proper choices, would find itself crowned at last with immortal life, together with immortal destiny.

We want you to understand, then, the meaning of the words destiny and density. Destiny, of course, is the ultimate conclusion of it all, which because it is infinite is never concluded. And density is the force which mankind have created through the misapplication [of free will] in the space-time continuum, whereby there is a prevention of the penetration of the searching mind and being for the realities which they themselves already are.

When you understand this, when you grasp this principle, when you begin to cognize this—that you yourselves have actually put into space those ideas which are preventative of the manifestation of your true Reality—you will understand, then, the need to lend yourselves lovingly to the application of freedom so that you might in every way seek to find freedom for yourselves and all mankind.

We heartily approve of the various activities that you have engaged in this day for and on behalf of freedom.¹ For we assure you, with all the love of heaven, that if mankind fall underneath the power of the red dragon² or fall under the power of the diabolical Satanists,³ who desire to control the world, that men would not be able to realize the true fruit of the kingdom of God. This is the fruit that the idealists of the world would like to see manifest somehow or other. But because many of these idealists are being misguided or brainwashed by forces of darkness, as some of your own have told you, they are not able to see the true fruit of the kingdom of God. And therefore they become ploys of the children of darkness, whereas they themselves are idealists who desire to express beauty and love for the whole world.

Do you think for one moment that God himself is not aware of the problems of the world—of the racial problems, the problems of poverty, the problems of the human psyche and all of their wide latitudes? We assure you that heaven is aware of them.

Why, then, do you suppose that God himself has not stepped down in various forms of bodies and liberated mankind? Do you not see that when God committed to men their own destiny and said, “Take dominion over the world,”⁴ it was because he had given to man the actual destiny-control of himself?

This is why individuals are able to rise so high or fall so low. It is because when individuals use their God-power wrongly, it becomes no longer God-power but deified evil, which creates an energy veil, a spawn of darkness in the world that conceals the real light and creates enormous cosmic and karmic accountability. This [misuse of God-power] does apply to [an individual’s life] record.⁵ And, sadly enough, it brings about unhappiness and pain in the whole world complex.

But now as I come to you, it is to tell you, beloved ones, that you must always understand that some of these conditions are beyond your reach. You, as an individual, sometimes cannot actually change these conditions in all of their vast complexity. But you can use the decrees that you have been given, and you can understand that one with God is a majority.

When you unite with your own great Divine Self and with the flame of freedom, you are creating a breach in the wall of darkness so that there can come about the penetration of light into the world of form. And as this light comes through into the world of form and penetrates mortal consciousness, it will, by contrast, bring about through the medium of the Divine Self a white paper upon the earth, which will show clearly that the darkened ones have actually manifested a “black paper” of hatred, infamy and deceit.

We, then—who desire to manifest a white paper of the love of God, of the purity of the Christ, of the cosmic honor flame and of the virtue that all the world is waiting for—stand forth tonight penetrating the veil with our character, as this messenger has told you. For if we ourselves actually stepped through the veil in visible, tangible form, there would be many of you who would not see in the embodied form the ligaments* of the character, which has been declared to you as the real ascended being.

I AM Saint Germain, Sanctus Germanus, Holy Brother. I AM one who is dedicated to the manifestation of the flame of freedom in all hearts, one who desires to see the flame of freedom manifest in all parts of the world. I AM one who would like to see all people upon earth able to hear the song of freedom as it sings its melody in the hearts and minds—a cooling refreshment that affords men a little bit of heaven right while they are here upon earth awaiting their redemption.

For redemption simply means, blessed ones, that you reevaluate all of the activities of the personal person. And as you begin to reevaluate them, you will see what is important to you and what is not. And when you are able to reevaluate them in the light of spiritual experience, through attunement with the higher cosmic masters and beings and as you enter into our consciousness and our domain, you will find that you will requalify, with the quality of light, many of the things which you previously misqualified with darkness.

ligament*: a connecting or unifying bond

Thus there will come about, within the fabric of your being and within the mind itself, a very wonderful transmuting agency. This transmuting agency will almost automatically, through the power of cosmic automation, take in, or ingest, substance that itself is impure. And it will actually cause this substance to take on the aspects of purity through the white-hot intensity of its love for freedom and truth.

Will this not be a wonderful experience, then, when individuals actually attain to this? I think you must admit it! For it is a cosmic truth of great dimension that penetrates through the veil and enables man to see that his own intention must become allied with the divine intention. And as it does so, one by one the strands [of impure substance] that have created the veil (which has actually caused men to feel the sense of hopelessness) are burned away by the flame of cosmic light and love.

The grasp of truth that occupies the consciousness of being is very real indeed. It enables men to not only change the atoms and electrons and the molecules of the physical form in their manifest nature, but it also enables them to penetrate into the very sensitivities of the mind, the probing fingers thereof, and to thus cause men to respond to the God-graces and God-ideals that are so much a part of the world of heaven.

How we yearn, then, tonight, to see the world feel the power of freedom's flame pulsating and beating within the octaves of this earth, even as it pulsates and beats in the higher octaves of light. We, then, who yearn to see this power of freedom's flame in manifest expression, are aware that we have produced it in some individuals in part, and in others to a lesser degree. But we see a little yearning flame in the tender hearts of many upon the planet, which causes us to believe that there is a great deal of hope for this blessed planet, regardless of the Dark Cycle that started back in the month of April.⁶

We want you, then, to understand, blessed ones, that there is an activity of redemption that is the eternal power of the light as it passes forth. The eternal power of the light passes forth in every age to redeem mankind. During the medieval times and during what is known as the Dark Ages, there were, then, manifest spirits of light upon the planet that held some focus of beauty for the earth. And in times past, Sanat Kumara, that blessed one, held the flame so long for this planet.⁷

Therefore, today we feel that there are many multitudinous throngs of those who yearn to be disciples of our heart. To them we say: This night we will impart a flame within, which will increase tenfold the power of that which is already there. We do this so that we may be able to see that an activity of light (which has already commenced) is now increased by the power of the One who is the increaser of the talents of men.

We are going to greatly empower some of you this night, and from this night forward, with a flame of freedom. We are going to reestablish here some of the old codifications of universal law that existed in past golden ages. For right while the Dark Cycle is throbbing and cutting like a scythe through human consciousness, we are simultaneously going to build the kingdom of God, the kingdom of the light, right here upon this planet. And when men are able to see the beauty of the soul, the beauty of freedom, the beauty of love as it manifests in your heart—when they are able to see this and contrast it with the darkness and despair that is in the world, I think this contrast alone will bring thousands and ultimately millions into the fold of the ascension.

And this, of course, is the goal that we have always sought to objectify in the world of form—to redeem the hosts of this planet and to bring them to a state of celestial awareness. Thereby, even though they were not always able to manifest in one day all that they would desire to manifest and which would take a thousand years to manifest, at the same time they would realize that God, in his infinite mercy, would provide them the necessary time [to do so.] [This would be] if they would offer themselves to him and do it with sincerity and honesty and the willingness to balance their debts to life and to find their freedom through their Christ-identity—the power of the infinite light of God that never wanes, that never fails, that never ceases in its outreach to teach mankind and to tutor the souls of men.

And therefore we seek not to gather men together, as did Nimrod of old, to build a tower of Babel.⁸ We seek not to build a United Nations, but we seek to build a united world through each individual's harmonization with the Divine Self. For when all are harmonized with the Divine Self, the beauty of the light will establish the kingdom of God upon earth, and no one shall “hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain; for the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea,” saith the LORD.⁹

But when the vanity of men seeks to conscript and band individuals together for nefarious purposes, behold they are acting under Lucifer,¹⁰ under the malintent of the powers of darkness. And we find no virtue in this whatsoever. There is no virtue in the Luciferian concept but only that nihilism which must ultimately consume, upon the walls of the pit, the one who is brought down to the pit because he sought to exalt himself above the Gods, yea above the stars.¹¹

For behold, the Lord himself shall descend from heaven.¹² Behold, the Lord himself shall take command over the souls of men. He cometh, as Enoch of old prophesied, with ten thousand of his saints to execute judgment upon the ungodly and the unrighteousness of mankind.¹³ He cometh to produce the miracle of freedom in the world, to promote the love of the great Cosmic Christ over the world.

“The Summit Lighthouse Sheds Its Radiance o'er All the World to Manifest as Pearls of Wisdom.” This previously unpublished dictation by Saint Germain was delivered by the Messenger of the Great White Brotherhood Mark L. Prophet on Friday, July 4, 1969, during the Freedom Rally 1969 class, held at La Tourelle, Colorado Springs, Colorado. [N.B. Bracketed words have been added for clarity in the written word.] Parts 1 and 3 of this Pearl of Wisdom are published in this volume, nos. 41 and 43. (1) Prior to Saint Germain's dictation, Lieutenant Colonel Arch E. Roberts, U.S. Army, retired, spoke to the congregation from his great knowledge of military affairs and the problems threatening the world. Colonel Roberts, described by Mark L. Prophet as “a great patriot,” was the author of Victory Denied: Why Your Son Faces Death in “No-Win Wars” (1966) and The Anatomy of a Revolution: A Manuel for Survival (1968). (2) Red dragon. An allusion to Chinese Communism. See also Rev. 12:3, 4. (3) Satan was bound by Archangel Michael in 1968. On January 27, 1982, he was remanded to the Court of the Sacred Fire, resulting in his final judgment and second death. (See Jesus Christ, “The Final Judgment of Satan,” Pearls of Wisdom, vol. 25, no. 16.) When a fallen one is bound and taken to the Court of the Sacred Fire, the next ranking false hierarch assumes his office and title. Satan and Lucifer are the original names of these two Antichrists. Their underlings go by these names and use them as titles. Thus we must still anticipate, as Hercules says, the initiations of “Satan” and “Lucifer” handed down through their lieutenants, who invoke their mantles even though they have ceased to exist. The “seed,” i.e., consciousness, of Satan and Lucifer remains a force to be dealt with by the lightbearers so long as there are those on the left-handed path who embody and propagate it. (4) Gen. 1:26–28. (5) Individual’s record in the book of life. See p. 248, n. 6, this volume. (6) The Dark Cycle of the return of mankind’s karma began April 23, 1969. Before this date, there was a period when mankind’s misqualified energy (which eventually returns as negative karma), had been held in abeyance for centuries under the great mercy of the Law. But on April 23, 1969, this karma was released according to the cycles of the initiations of the solar hierarchies for balance. In the face of the same propensity for darkness prevalent before the Flood, when “the wickedness of man was great in the earth” and “every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually” (Gen. 6:5), the Lords of Karma decreed this action in order to deter an even greater abuse of life’s opportunity and to forestall that cataclysm which could be the ultimate consequence of the rising tide of world sin. The returning cycles of karma upon the world had to slow down mankind’s ability to make more karma and thus check the acceleration of the judgment of men and nations which could otherwise hasten “final ends.” The cycle concluded on April 22, 2002. For more information, see Elizabeth Clare Prophet’s series “Prophecy for the 1990s,” Pearls of Wisdom, vol. 33, nos. 6–8. (7) Sanat Kumara held the flame for this planet. In his July 3, 1961, dictation El Morya explained that often “it becomes necessary to dissolve a planet because of discordant manifestations and to return it to the universal light.” Long ago, in Earth’s darkest hour, the light had gone out in her evolutions, and cosmic councils decreed the dissolution of the planet because not a single soul was giving adoration to the God Presence. Sanat Kumara, hierarch of the planet Venus, prevented planet Earth from being dissolved. He volunteered to come to Earth to keep the threefold flame of life on behalf of her people. One hundred and forty-four thousand souls from Venus volunteered to come with him in support of his mission. They vowed to keep the flame with him until the children of God would respond and turn once again to serve their mighty I AM Presence. Four hundred, who formed the avant-garde, were sent ahead to build the magnificent retreat of Shamballa on an island in the Gobi Sea (now the Gobi Desert). There Sanat Kumara anchored the focus of the threefold flame, establishing the initial thread of contact with all on Earth by extending rays of light from his heart to their own.
