

Beloved Saint Germain

In Light We Shall Conquer
In Light We Shall Win Our Freedom
In Light Is Our Victory

Part 2

America, beloved country, whither goest thou?
Whither goest thou in this hour of tribulation, of disunity?

Beloved ones, those who oppose the administration of this fair land know not what they do. For although they are expressing their free will and their freedom of conscience, they are creating divisions and schisms within the very earth itself. And chaos can only result in cataclysm, beloved ones, for nature does follow the course of mankind's own rebellion. This is the Law, and the Law is just. And justice is freedom. Therefore, by the action of the mighty ray of justice, mankind are freed from their own wrongs and the elementals receive a new impetus of the glory of God.

In Light We Shall Conquer In Light We Shall Win Our Freedom In Light Is Our Victory

Part 2

America, beloved country, whither goest thou? Whither goest thou in this hour of tribulation, of disunity?

Beloved ones, those who oppose the administration of this fair land know not what they do.¹ For although they are expressing their free will and their freedom of conscience, they are creating divisions and schisms within the very earth itself. And chaos can only result in cataclysm, beloved ones, for nature does follow the course of mankind's own rebellion. This is the Law, and the Law is just. And justice is freedom. Therefore, by the action of the mighty ray of justice, mankind are freed from their own wrongs and the elementals receive a new impetus of the glory of God.

Without the cosmic hammer of the Law, there would not be an occasion to call forth the flame of illumination, which calls a halt to [wrong] human action. There would not be an occasion to call forth the sword of Truth, which cuts asunder the tares and the wheat.²

You see, the angel of the LORD must be able to stand forth and say to the proud wave of human creation, "Thus far and no farther!"³ And with that fiat of light, the return of mankind's karma is upon them, both individually and collectively. Until that fiat is made, mankind continue to sow and to sow and to sow. But the reaping is not yet come until the mighty flame of justice sweeps forth and declares that the end of mankind's degradation is indeed come.

I would urge upon you this day a renewed study of the flame of freedom in all of its aspects—how it imparts to the mind the freedom to go beyond reasoning power and logic and to receive the intuitions of the heart and of the etheric patterns that were the soul's immortal manifestation in the very Beginning; how freedom manifests in a physical sense so that the whole being of man sings with the glory of the elements.

Each flame in each of your cells is tied to the flame within your heart, beloved ones, and mighty rays of light reach out from the heart. There are millions of these rays in your very own orbit, extending from your heart to each tiny cell. And from the sun center of the cell there radiates forth to the heart of each atom a like manifestation of these rays.

Man in his divine Reality is truly a manifestation of the son of God. And if you could see yourselves as Moses saw the identity of God in the flaming bush,⁴ as an actual flaming, radiating spiral of light—the Tree of Life within you, with millions of filigreed light rays going forth to illumine—you would understand, then, the meaning of cosmos. You would understand the meaning of the Macrocosm as it relates to the microcosm and yourselves as you relate to the Infinite One.

Try to divest yourselves, blessed ones, of the concept of a limited form, a finite body encased and wearisome, and realize that you are indeed a star and in the fourth dimension as well. And then you will feel the lightness of the air, the presence of the mighty air currents, and you will understand this as being part of your own physical form, even as the four elements in all of the manifestations of nature are a part of each one of your four lower bodies.

The mighty fire descends through the etheric form to give you the vision of the Christ consciousness. The mighty currents of the air free the mind, and the waters from the heart of Neptune* do assuage the emotional bodies of mankind. And Mother Earth raises her hands and gives to your physical form the blessings of the currents of her love.

Beloved ones, as you contemplate the manifestation of the threefold flame in the figure eight in your forms and then realize how much you are a part of the four lower bodies of the earth itself, you will more easily be able to expand and contract your own individual consciousness. Thus you can be in China or in Peru or anywhere upon the earth that you so desire to be at a given moment, simply by the act of meditation and the ritual which was taught to you by beloved Leto.⁵

It is a good and proper thing for alchemists of the sacred fire to work on these matters, to try themselves in these rituals and to manifest the powers of the Christ in all dimensions. For this new freedom gives to you not only mastery over physical substance and over the elements, but it also gives you a sense of oneness with all of life and with the Infinite.

For as you expand yourself through space, beloved ones, how can you not but capture the fragrance of the stars, the immortal lifewaves that pulsate through the ethers? You must have a greater sense of freedom concerning your position so that you are not tied to a place, to a house, to a room, but that the universe is your native land and your eternal home and that you yourselves are everywhere present in this universe, even with God and his Christ.

The message of freedom, then, expands and expands and expands. And as it expands, you expand with it, beloved ones. And one day you shall know a freedom that I have known for some time. I hope that you will even excel in that flame of freedom which I have outpictured, for indeed the teacher always desires that his pupil shall excel him.

And so I shall escort you as far as I can take you, as far as I have mastered this mighty flame. But think not that there are not new worlds to conquer and mighty reaches of space to explore. Think not that there are not hosts of light waiting to take you there and to take you farther and farther, until you qualify to stand in the presence of the Holy One of God and to receive his benediction that is directly [given] to you.

This may not take place, beloved ones, until many years after you have ascended. But it shall come. For it is the desire of the Father to receive every son back into his heart. To this time, the archangels and the mighty Elohim have been those who sit at the right hand of God, but mankind too may aspire to this calling.

I bring this to your attention this night so that you may have an expanded vision of the future and realize what the flame of freedom can bring to you. And upon the crest of its victory you will find victory upon victory upon victory, as the mighty threefold flame within you expands to become one with the Cosmic Threefold Unfed Flame that is nourished by all the hosts of light throughout the universe, throughout cosmos itself.

Beloved ones, the flower of my heart, the tiny violet, that has turned its head in humility in the presence of the Christ, that looks toward the ground—this little violet expresses so beautifully the flame of freedom. For in its humility it has found the understanding of divine grace and that freedom is nigh.

This tiny violet worships freedom. And in its devotion to that flame the beautiful purple comes through, uncontaminated by all of the densities of human creation. That purple fire scintillates, and it sings the anthem of the free beneath the feet of mankind, who tread upon that little flower. For they have not yet understood its dedication nor the mercy flame invoked by the elementals who form those precious ones. Nor have they understood the flame of precipitation, the flame of God-truth which surrounds each little violet with its precious leaves that are the shape of a heart, the heart of God, where the flame of freedom abides.

May you abide also in his heart, even now. For his heart is in you, and you are in him. And may the violet—that fourfold flame* of God's lily—teach you more about the four elements and how they relate to your four lower bodies. May it teach you more about the threefold flame, the white-fire core, and the golden flame of illumination that rises up to proclaim its God-identity.

Beloved ones, in nature is the key. Long ago I discovered that I could read all of the laws of God simply by observing his kingdom in nature. Mankind have so departed from his laws that to observe them is a mite confusing to the spiritual seeker, for he does not understand how the laws of God are operative in the behaviors of mankind. But when we turn to nature, there is perfect order and harmony where that nature is left alone. So you see, if mankind could but transfer the understanding which the elementals have and apply it to their own society, that society would become a living testimony to the laws of God and to his flame of freedom.

I take my leave of you now, for I must go to the heart of Omri-Tas, to the violet planet,⁶ where there is being held this night a mighty conclave of cosmic beings, of those who serve the violet flame. And they are coming, precious ones, from all corners of this system of worlds. And they are gathering there in their councils with the mighty priests of the sacred fire to determine just how much of an allotment of the sacred fire and of the violet flame can be dispensed to the mankind of earth during the coming Independence Day celebrations, when the flame of freedom will be held high and in the hearts of all men.

*A violet flower usually has five petals, but some varieties have four.

I go forth to see what the Karmic Board and what the God and Goddess of this system of worlds* will decree. For we are determined to release to the mankind of earth all of the fire of our hearts and the love of freedom that we have that can possibly be given unto them this year. We do this so that we might hold the balance, in some measure, for that which must come about through the nature kingdom.

Beloved ones, I leave you with my love and my greetings of the sacred fire. And I take with me the essence of your love. I carry this, together with the record of your devotion and the records of the devotion of all the students of light upon this planet (which I bear as a mighty scroll), to the hierarch of the Violet Planet. And so shall he write (and give his stamp of approval) that the mankind of earth have warranted so much of the cosmic fire, and so much shall be given.

In the name of the God of Freedom, in the name of Alpha and Omega, I say to you one and all: In light we shall conquer! In light we shall win our freedom! In light is our victory!

“The Summit Lighthouse Sheds Its Radiance o’er All the World to Manifest as Pearls of Wisdom.” This previously unpublished dictation by Saint Germain was delivered by the Messenger of the Great White Brotherhood Elizabeth Clare Prophet on Saturday, May 6, 1967, at La Tourelle, Colorado Springs, Colorado. [N.B. Bracketed words have been added for clarity in the written word.] Part 1 of this Pearl of Wisdom is published in this volume, no. 45. (1) At the time this dictation was given, Lyndon B. Johnson was president of the United States and the Vietnam War (1954–75) was sparking major protests against U.S. involvement in that war. By 1967 increasing numbers of Americans were becoming dissatisfied with the conflict. Some, especially students, intellectuals, academics and clergymen, opposed the war on moral grounds. Campus protests were widespread. By the summer of 1967 fewer than 50 percent of polled citizens said they supported how the president was conducting the war. In October 1967 at least 35,000 demonstrators staged a mass protest outside the Pentagon. Many more Americans, not part of any peace movement, opposed the war because of the increasing American casualties and the lack of evidence that the United States was winning. (2) Tares among the wheat. Matt. 13:24–30, 36–43. (3) “Thus far and no farther!” Job 38:9–11. (4) Exod. 3:2–4. (5) Leto. On October 28, 1990, Elizabeth Clare Prophet spoke of the ascended lady master Leto, who has given teaching on soul travel through the I AM Activity and our organization. Mrs. Prophet has explained that we engage in soul travel in our finer body while we sleep at night so that we may be of service through working on world problems, and we also study in the retreats of the Great White Brotherhood on the etheric plane. In the lecture, Mrs. Prophet spoke of the use of the Ashram Rituals for soul purification and as spiritual preparation and protection for soul travel. For further information or to place an order, see El Morya, Ashram Notes (hardbound); Ashram Rituals (booklet); audio album Ashram Rituals, 2 CDs; available at <http://Store.SummitLighthouse.org/>. (6) The Violet Planet is a golden-age planet at the etheric level whose evolutions have served and invoked the violet flame for aeons. Omri-Tas is the Ruler of the Violet Planet. His aura carries such an intensity of violet flame that it exceeds the size of planet Earth. The Violet Planet’s inhabitants also include 144,000 priests and priestesses of the sacred fire. On the Violet Planet, the evolutions use the violet flame to tend to the needs of daily life—to clean their homes, to care for and purify the planet, and even to wash and bathe in. Violet-flame angels and violet-flame elementals perform menial chores and tasks, which allow the citizens time to pursue the path of adeptship and to serve other planetary homes, including Earth. The Violet Planet once approached a similar crisis as the people of Earth face today. But the servants of God were galvanized by the call of the representative of the Divine Mother and turned the tide through invoking the violet flame. They saved their planet and went on to a golden age.

*Beloved Glorious I AM Presence, Beloved Father Supreme:
May the Light of Cosmic Illumination,
The Light of the Violet Fire of Freedom’s love,
The Great Cosmic Light and The Light of Cosmic Victory

ceaselessly descending to permeate the atmosphere of earth,
eradicate all entities,
all maya, glamour, and karma,
and replace them all
by the Great Cosmic Light!
And bring in Saint Germain’s great golden age
with one mighty impulse that wipes from the record and memory of Life in a flash
all that was never intended to be! (3x or 33x)*
