The Purity of Our Love— the Foundation of the New Jerusalem

Part 1

In the name of my Lord and Master, I come to you in the purity of our love that has transcended the ages, that is as the golden thread and as the purity of the lily that has been woven throughout the many incarnations of our twin flames,* passing through time and space on this and other planetary bodies in this system of worlds.

I come to you in the cloven tongues of fire, the purity of our love, which we dedicate as the foundation of the New Jerusalem. From out of the white-fire core of love comes the light to light the world.

I come to ask you, blessed Keepers of the Flame, to consecrate with us this evening your love and the purity of your love as the foundation of the City Foursquare—the love that you have shared with one another in God, the love that you have given unto life, the love of your soul for the fire of being and for your own counterpart on earth and in heaven.

So let the love of the Father-Mother God be the center and the circumference and the all of the habitation not only of God but also of his children. The burning love for God, which we shared then and which we share now, is an all-consuming compassion that must be shared.

This is the true nature of love: that love cannot be experienced alone but must include God and the whole world and all of one's family and friends. This is the love we share of the good news of the teachings of Christ. It is the love we share as his disciples, his friends, and fellow pilgrims on the way.

I come with a fervent love for this city of Los Angeles and for the people whom I have known and cared for and tended to as the flock of Jesus.¹ They know me still. They know our love. They remember the message. They remember the touch of the Holy Spirit that we shared.

These souls are waiting for the contact of the flame, and yet within other Protestant denominations these souls, who were left with their understanding of the Holy Spirit in the Foursquare Gospel churches, have not the advancement or the perception of that Spirit as you have it, and they would consider my speaking to you this evening to be blasphemy, to be the tail of the devil and the horns as well. They would consider that those who would proclaim that I could speak to you and that I indeed live forevermore in the heart of Jesus the Christ to be so far removed from what they understand of God that it has to be Antichrist in nature.

Yet I tell you, these children of our heart are also souls of light, and they have been victimized by the fallen ones and by so many impostors of the Holy Spirit—spirits that have gone abroad in the land, riding the crest of the wave of the charismatic movement. And these spirits have entered the churches because of the lack of wholeness of the people, which has made the people vulnerable. And when they have called on the name of God and yet have failed to surrender all that is less than God within themselves, they have opened their chakras and their auras to the impostors of the Holy Spirit, who then have given their mutterings and their mouthings as though they were of the Holy Spirit and were releasing the speaking in tongues. So many souls of light have thought in this age that they were in contact with the Holy Spirit and were participating in the promised ritual of the coming of the blessed Comforter.

I come to ask you specifically to give your calls to me and to Jesus, to Archangel Michael and the beloved Astrea to cut free the Christian churches in America today from a very evil band of dark ones who have invaded there, who form what is known as the false hierarchy impostors of the Holy Spirit. These are very virulent discarnates, and these discarnates are angered this night that I am releasing through this messenger the truth of what has taken place in the name of the Holy Spirit.

You see, as the counterpart of the Mother flame in the City Foursquare, I occupy the side of the West, the position of the Holy Spirit and the line of Libra for and on behalf of beloved Mary and Jesus. And therefore as I was in my mission in Los Angeles in the person of Aimee Semple McPherson,² the one who brought so many close to the Holy Spirit, so I am in the ascended octaves so very much concerned that those who were brought in contact with the Holy Spirit have now been taken in devious ways and paths by these fallen ones. And I tell you, these fallen ones are capitalizing on this desire of the holy innocent ones to be a part of the Spirit in this age.

And so with all of their deception and their perversions of the flame of Reality, these ones, who are well organized and who even pervert the science of the spoken Word in what has been revealed to you as astral decree groups, are abroad in the land and are invading even the Catholic churches, the Orthodox churches, as well as the fundamentalist movements and the Pentecostal churches.

I am asking you to call to the blessed Elohim Astrea to encircle souls of light, to cut them free from these discarnates, and also for the binding of the discarnates and the fallen ones by the power of the LORD's hosts. These calls are very necessary, and they are also to be made for your own protection. For these discarnates and demons are also very anxious to discredit the Great White Brotherhood and its outreach through the Church Universal and Triumphant, and therefore they work diligently through those who are counted as Christians today and who are also in positions of business and in the media, working through them against this movement.

These discarnates have even invaded those who are a part of the Church of the Nazarene who have leased this college campus to The Summit Lighthouse.³ And these very discarnates, this very false hierarchy of the Holy Spirit, have manipulated [those in that church] with mass energies of hatred, and they have conspired and contrived to see to it that the board of that Church of the Nazarene has become antagonistic to those who are a part of this organization. And these discarnates have been at work during the summer months, stirring up fear and doubt and concern among the membership until finally the membership is so in a frenzy from the fallen ones that they actually believe this group and this organization to be an aspect of the Satanic movement in America today.

I can assure you that this is a great burden upon the organization of the Church Universal and Triumphant, upon the messengers, the staff, and ultimately upon every Keeper of the Flame.

You must understand that these are children with fears, and their fears are very great of the one whom they identify as the devil. And when they think they are confronting the devil, they have a holy, righteous justification for releasing the full hatred that comes forth from the subconscious, aided and abetted by the discarnates.

And so you see, coming into the forcefield of Los Angeles and into the City Foursquare, you must meet new challenges, new energies, and a new adversity that comes as that wave of anti-Christ emotion, which ought not to be and yet sadly is released to those who count themselves one with beloved Jesus.

If you consider that this is a dilemma for unascended chelas, let me assure you that it is a dilemma for ascended masters. And I am here to tell you that the Darjeeling Council has met for many hours—in a determined effort on the part of Saint Germain and Mother Mary, El Morya, Lanello, and K-17, together with the beloved Archangel Michael—to find the ways and means for a solution to this problem. And of course we see no other way than for The Summit Lighthouse and the blessed Church to have a home of light all of their own so that they do not need to be subject unto this energy,⁴ which the beloved messenger has told you has manifested even upon her physical body as the sensation of fiery red and leaping flames of a scorching hatred.

Beloved ones, all of this can be transmuted in the love fires of the Holy Spirit. Praise God that the Holy Spirit is among us in this hour and that you have the blessed light of love in such intensity. You have but to use the science of the spoken Word and to make use of all of the ascended masters of the Great White Brotherhood and the Elohim and the archangels and the angelic hosts of light, to enlist them in the service of our joint endeavor, as Above so below.

The victory is to the lightbearers. And, blessed ones, your victory is ultimately the victory of all Christians, even those who are engaged in spirals of hatred and persecution. You must also pray with Jesus, who came out of Mary's womb and out of the Jewish community, and who also prayed for the Jews in his time, saying, "Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do."⁵

"The Summit Lighthouse Sheds Its Radiance o'er All the World to Manifest as Pearls of Wisdom." This previously unpublished dictation by Magda was delivered by the Messenger of the Great White Brotherhood Elizabeth Clare Prophet on Friday, October 8, 1976, during the New Age Discipleship conference, held in Pasadena, California. Part 2 of this Pearl of Wisdom is published in this volume, no. 6. [N.B. Bracketed words have been added for clarity in the written word.] (1) The people whom I have known and cared for. In her final incarnation, Magda was embodied as evangelist Aimee Semple McPherson (1890–1944), who founded the International Church of the Foursquare Gospel (also known today as the Foursquare Church) in the Pentecostal tradition. Aimee preached her first official sermon in 1915 and continued preaching Jesus' message of healing and salvation worldwide until the end of her life. Thousands attended her revival meetings, and in 1923 Aimee opened the Angelus Temple in Los Angeles, which became her international headquarters. Aimee and her church organization also engaged in extensive charity and social work. (2) See note 1. (3) This campus. In December 1975, Jesus directed that the headquarters of The Summit Lighthouse be moved from La Tourelle in Colorado Springs to Los Angeles. In the summer of 1976, the organization moved to a campus leased from the Church of the Nazarene in Pasadena, California, in Los Angeles county. This location remained the headquarters until the move to "Camelot" in 1978, also in Los Angeles county. (4) A home of light of their own. In 1977, The Summit Lighthouse purchased the beautiful 218-acre Gillette estate in the Santa Monica Mountains near Malibu, California, and named it "Camelot" after King Arthur's mystery school. The move from Pasadena to Camelot was completed in 1978. Headquarters remained at this location through 1986. (5) Luke 23:34.
