The Message of Alpha and Omega to the Seven Churches

Part 2

The sixth ray, the ray of Jesus, the ray of his church and of his teaching, is the ray of purple and gold, of the ministry unto the body of God and the service of the LORD. It is the centering within the place of the sun known as the solar plexus, where there is the center of the worship of God as devotion.

Those who have entered this church have known Jesus as the Saviour and would walk with him and would have no other. Yet I would say to those who have their Lord and Master Jesus that he is also one with all who have ever overcome, and when he comes with his saints and with his angels and with the hosts of heaven, he comes with those who have taught the light of the Christ in every age, founding the world's religions.

And therefore when Jesus was transfigured before the disciples, there appeared speaking unto him Moses and Elias,*<sup>1</sup> showing the oneness of Christ with all who had gone before and all who will ever come again in the great mystery of the light of the Christos.

None can take from Jesus the light of victory and the supremacy of his flame and his person as the Son of God. And yet he contains within himself all others and would have you not be separated by your rejection of those who are also counted as masters ascended, beings who also move among you in your midst as servants of the living God.

With feeling, then, let your love of Christ now expand to include the entire body of God in heaven and on earth. And by this teaching may you not be confounded by the wicked and the seed of the wicked, which the Evil One<sup>2</sup> came and sowed as the tares among the good wheat. So you are the good wheat. Therefore, be not deceived. Be not deceived by the divisive forces that have caused this schism in the body of God.

And unto the seventh church, as the consciousness of God-freedom, I speak in the very soul of humanity. For this center of God-awareness is the soul, the place where every soul yearns to be free. Within this temple of the fire of freedom that is the violet flame of the Holy-Ghost baptism of fire in this age, mankind shall know the truth, and the truth shall make them free.<sup>3</sup>

In the seven rays of God are the seven ways of overcoming in Christ, and the life of Jesus portrayed his mastery of each of these rays. And the manifold miracles and demonstrations were to illustrate the immaculate science of the Mother, the science of the Holy Ghost whereby each one anointed of the Christ consciousness may go forth in demonstration of these laws of God.

I speak, then, to you whose hearts are open to Christ in this age. Let the Spirit of God be upon you! Let Christ come into your heart! Be redeemed! Know his name! Accept that salvation as the elevation of the Real Self within you. Be willing to examine the spirits of the prophets in this gift of prophecy, in the setting forth of the teachings of Jesus Christ in this age, which he has also given for your victory.

*Hebrew: Elijah

I place before you this one question: If the Church in the West as well as the East had had the full truth of Jesus Christ as he taught it, would there not long ago have been the overcoming of the fallen ones? Would there not long ago have been the healing of society of schism? Would there not have been the overcoming of materialism and of the misuses of capitalism and communism in a conspiracy whereby all mankind are becoming the slaves of the dragon that comes out of the East and of the beasts that receive their power and are abroad in the land as those forces of economics that enslave the very souls of the living?

Had all of this been present within the Church of Rome and the churches of the West, including those of the Protestant denominations, then would there not also have been the gifts of miracles and healings and overcomings and transformations? I say to you that the warning that was given to the Pope through the message at Fátima to the holy children has not been heard by the world.<sup>4</sup>

Well, I AM here to tell you that the warning is that because of the infamy and the intrigue of those who have set themselves up in the churches as the authorities for the entering in of souls, and as the result of their transgression and their sin and their compromise of the Law and their withholding from the children of God of the true message of salvation, there is come this day judgment unto the churches!

And you can see it before your very eyes. There is argument. There is redress against authority. There is open rebellion. There is rejection of the clergy. And by the thousands the children of God are making their exit from the temples, for they have said, "God no longer dwells within the temples made with hands. I will go to worship him in my heart until I perceive the sign of his Second Coming and until I perceive the sign of the certain Word of God."

Is it any wonder, then, that Christ coming to earth this day finds no room to speak through those who are in the authority of the churches but must speak outside of the churches through this messenger, through the spirit of prophecy?

Do you expect to find him in the churches where there has been a compromise of his teaching? Do you expect to find him where there has been the compromise of bringing politics and the moneychangers and the misuse of the sacred Word?

I tell you, if you could see the prophets of Israel standing in your midst and in the churches, you would see them rending their garments for the infamy that has come upon the holy temple. And you would also behold Jesus coming into the temples, scourging them with the Law and the power of his presence.

This is the hour, then, of the reckoning. Let the souls and the hearts of men receive the fire of the judgment. This is the fire of love, and let it be received by love and in love in the blessed children of God. For the action of the judgment is for one purpose, and that is to separate the tares and the wheat, the Real from the unreal, and those who are of God and those who are not of God. And therefore let the sifting in your heart reveal to you that which is in your consciousness that is of the light and that which is of the darkness.

This above all: To thine own self be true.<sup>5</sup> Being loyal to the Real Self is being loyal to Christ. For Christ is your Real Self, the Image Most Holy of God out of which your soul was fashioned in the Beginning. To be loyal to Christ may mean that you must withdraw your loyalty from certain organizations, certain aspects of codified religion or government or the ways of this world or patterns within your own subconscious or patterns that have become the accepted morality of the day. Be true to the Christ who lives within and you will find yourself one in the true church that is a flame within your heart.

It is not necessary for you to find salvation through outer commitment and outer organizations, but it is necessary for you to confirm the living Word where you are and to band together in the churches, to go back into the churches and to bring unto them the Holy Spirit and the message of the Angel of the Revelation, who I AM as a fellow servant with you of the Most High God.

I AM come to give you the impetus of light and fire of the Christ to go back into the churches of your origin or to be a part of this band of devotees who have formed an outer focus of the Church Universal and Triumphant. Wherever you go to pray, to worship, and to find oneness in the communion of souls, bring there the Spirit of the living God! Bring there the Spirit of Truth!

And remember that this Truth is where you are and where I AM, and in that I AM THAT I AM we are one and there is no separation in planes of consciousness. For the Spirit of God moves those who are in embodiment and who are in celestial spheres as one body in the service of Christ.

I AM come for the contact. I AM come that you might realize that the hosts of the armies of heaven are very real and very near and that the numbers of angels and angelic hosts, of archangels and seraphim and cherubim and of the saints ascended far outnumber the forces of the fallen ones as well as the numbers who are yet embodied in terrestrial bodies on earth.

We form the living Spirit of the rapture of God. We are the wave and the momentum to draw you into the Holy of Holies that you might experience the bliss of God. We come fresh from the altars of the Almighty One. We carry in our garments the fires of that altar. Dripping with these fires of God's love, we enter your midst and we bid you welcome into the communion of the hosts of the LORD.

Come ye into union! Come ye into the presence of the living God! Come into the center of Christ and let all differences be laid aside! For this is the age of the overcoming of the devil and Satan and the dragon by Archangel Michael and his legions of light!

Therefore, acknowledge him as the instrument of the defense of Woman,<sup>6</sup> the defense of Christ, and the defense of the true Church, which you are. And realize that the confrontation with the fallen ones is never the obvious—the obvious manifestation of the warring with the proverbial portrayal of the devil with horns and tail and with the pitchfork. The devil does not appear in this way but in the guise of spiritual wickedness in high places, in the polished ones, the sophisticated ones who have emerged to be leaders in today's world.

“By their fruits ye shall know them.”<sup>7</sup> Let them also be tested by the flame of Truth. Be true to the God within and you will not be compromised by the wickedness of the idolatrous generation.

I AM the Angel of the Revelation. I speak within your heart. I leave with you the scroll of the Lord Christ. I deposit it now within your heart so that every child of God might go sincerely in prayer before God this day.

And know the truth of my Presence and my Word and know the truth that God is able in this day and age to make of these stones a living witness and a living church, that God is able to raise up from among you and in your midst and in the very midst of the crumbling of the old order that light, that truth, that faith, that wholeness, and that opening of the way to salvation.

In this age, when all the earth is in turmoil and the forces of darkness move through the governments of the nations to overtake the people—in this age one with Christ is the majority.

And the power of prayer is the power of the transformation of the earth. By your prayer unto God, the LORD's hosts will enter the fray, will walk with you, will give you the strength and the courage to meet the Adversary at every hand.

I say, pray! And pray without ceasing! O you who are the LORD's body, give forth the prayer for the protection of this and every nation, for the protection of your leaders and for the exposure of the Liar and his lie and for the exposure of the fallen angels who move among the leaders to deceive, if it were possible, the very elect.

Let those who love, let those who care, come forth with that love in humble, obedient service to the Christ.

I AM the living Spirit of the churches. I come for the resurrection of the churches. I come for the infusion of the churches with the seven rays of God. I come for the infusion of your souls by the rod of his authority and of his Christ. I come to restore true religion undefiled before God and man.

I bid you receive me into your midst as you would also receive him, who is the Saviour of us all.

This previously unpublished dictation by the Angel of the Revelation was delivered by the Messenger of the Great White Brotherhood Elizabeth Clare Prophet on Sunday, October 10, 1976, during the New Age Discipleship conference, held in Pasadena, California. Part 1 of this Pearl of Wisdom is published in this volume, no. 10. (1) Matt. 17:3-5; Mark 9:2-8; Luke 9:28-31. (2) The Evil One. This term most often refers to Lucifer, the Devil, the rebellious archangel, who was cast out of heaven by Archangel Michael (Rev. 12:7-9). Lucifer went through the final judgment and second death in 1975. (3) John 8:32. (4) The message at Fátima. This message refers to the third part of the "secret" that Mother Mary gave to the three children at Fátima, Portugal, during her appearance on July 13, 1917, also known as the "third secret." Visionary Lucia wrote down the secret in late 1943 or 1944. The secret was to be opened in 1960 or after Lucia's death, whichever came first. The secret was later sent to Rome. In the year 2000, the Vatican released what it said was the third secret, but its contents are highly controversial, with its prophetic vision symbolically representing the murder of a pope and many other Church representatives and followers. In 1963, the German newspaper Neues Europa published what it called an "extract" of the third secret, which reads: "A great chastisement will come over all mankind; not today or tomorrow but in the second half of the twentieth century. Satan will succeed in infiltrating into the highest positions in the Church. . . . A time of severe trial is also coming for the Church. Cardinals will oppose Cardinals and bishops will oppose bishops. Satan will enter into their very midst. . . . In Rome also will occur great changes. What is rotten will fall and what falls must not be retained. The Church will be obscured and all the world will be thrown into great confusion." Elizabeth Clare Prophet has stated that the term "Satan" as used by Mother Mary refers to the offspring or seed of the fallen angels in embodiment. For further information on Mary's appearance at Fátima and the "third secret," see Elizabeth Clare Prophet, The Age of the Divine Mother, pp. 79-88. (5) Shakespeare, Hamlet, act 1, scene III.
