Love Will Conquer All

Through the eye of the Mother I release the beam of love for the children of the Father. I intensify the light of love, and I take the taper lit from the love fires of my heart. I touch it to your own heart flame for the consecration of the energies of this conference unto the New Day, unto the light overcoming.

I send forth the light of love not alone for this congregation but for the son of Venus, Jesus the Saviour, and for beloved Magda and Mary, the Queen of Angels. For the love that is our portion to give is the love that we release and that must become the most intense fire of the heart so that Saint Germain might have in you a focal point for the bearing of the cross of planetary hatred in this age.

If the age of Aquarius is to come forth, if the alchemy of freedom is to manifest, then a vast layer of human hatred that is upon the earth must be consumed. It must be placed into the fire of intense love so that mankind might then make contact with their own divinity.

This wall of hatred, generated and regenerated by mankind, is that which separates the people from their God. And only those fair souls who are willing to walk through that night of astral chaos and horror and the very flames of hell that burn to consume the children of God—only those souls who have the courage to stand bold and to know that love is the all-consuming fire of all that is less than the Christ—can be the vanguard of righteousness, can be the lightbearers, can be the forward, onward movement of the Venusians who come for the salvation of the earth and her people.

To brave these depths and these concentrated pockets of darkness, you need all of the love that heaven is so willing to bestow—love, above all, for protection, as the mother wraps her child in a swaddling garment. So you who are the brave ones, I wrap you this day in the swaddling garment of my love, as Mary wrapped the blessed babe to protect him from the biting, stinging intensity of Antichrist that was abroad in the world in those days, that is abroad even today.

When you become accustomed to the battle, even to the weight of your armour of light and to the wielding of your sword of blue flame as legions of Archangel Michael, you will also become accustomed to the signs of the energies of the mass hatred of the Woman and her children. And by calling to Saint Germain in that hour and saying, “Saint Germain, I bear thy cross” and then giving your invocations to the violet flame, you will see how your own heart altar will become a cauldron of living flame and there will be started a spiraling action of the misqualified energies of Terra spiraling into that heart flame of love.

This is why I have come—to consecrate this conference to love, to increase the fire of love in your heart so that you may be victorious in your mission for Saint Germain.

I know well, beloved hearts, how you are burdened with the thought of the persecution of Mother Mary on this earth, the persecution of Jesus, the hatred of Saint Germain by those who ought to love him with all of the passion and the fervor of true patriots of the Law. I know how you yearn to introduce your friends to the ascended masters, how you yearn to place their hands in the hands of friends of light.

You see, precious ones, the barrier of hatred prevents the clasping of the hands. As God reaches out to take the hand of man, man is yet reticent. And so the clasping of hands with the greatest friend of all is a daily experience for only the very few on earth.

See, then, how the magnificent paintings of Michelangelo portraying the prophets, the Almighty One, and the Last Judgment do inflame in your souls this great, great love that God holds in his heart for this people and this generation.

Be inflamed, then. Be free in love. Be free to fulfill your mission. And know that in the hours when the fire may seem put down, I will come to renew your love, renew your fervor, and renew your experience of this moment when you feel the intensity of the evolutions of Venus who do tarry here in this conference for the celebration of the New Jerusalem.

Sing to love. Sing to Venus. Call to Sanat Kumara. Call to all of the millions of lifewaves ascended who have risen to the center of God-awareness from the twin star, Hesper, and ask for the rekindling of love in those moments when you are burdened by the hatred of the world. For in that love you will truly conquer all.

Love, precious children, will conquer all. It is the sign of every conqueror, every victor who has walked the earth. Let love be your sign. Let it be the beginning and the ending of every day. Let it be the thrust of your prayer and the momentum of your decrees. Let it be the purpose behind every action you take for God. Let love consume all lesser desires.

In the presence of love we cannot speak of selfishness or manipulation or ulterior motivation. These do not exist. They are consumed in the all-consuming fires of love.

Let love reign, then, in the hearts of Keepers of the Flame, and we will show the Kumaras and the cosmic councils and the evolutions of Earth and of every planet of this solar system what we can do for God, for Christ, and for humanity in this age.

I thank you, and I AM with you always in the love fires of the Sacred Heart of Jesus and Mary.

Heavenly Light

O Star of Eternal Perfection, shine in me!
O Star of Eternal Perfection, shine through me!
O Star of Radiant Wonder,
Flash forth thy rays into the world!
Burn through dark sheaths of hate,
Fear, greed, and unbelief!
Tear the veil from the face of injustice!

Open the gates and let flow
The love of the Infinite here below!
Wherever I AM, wherever I go,
Eternal Presence, let light flow!*
