The Law of the One Part 1

In the flame of love are the fires of creation, garnered by the Mother as the abundance of the Father, secured unto the children by the hand of the Holy Spirit.

I AM Nada, a Mother of love. I come nurturing life by the law of love. I come to teach the children of the Father of the law of love and how the Mother does secure through the Holy Spirit the virtues of God, the graces of God, the essences of his Spirit.

Many thousands of years ago when I was in incarnation on earth, I practiced law as an advocate before the courts on Atlantis on behalf of the children of light. And during my meditations upon the law of God and my ministrations in the temple, I perceived the law of God as the certain defense that the Mother must use to protect her children from the wiles of this world, from the fallen ones who also seek to use the law to their unjust purposes.

The Law of the One

Part 1

In the flame of love are the fires of creation, garnered by the Mother as the abundance of the Father, secured unto the children by the hand of the Holy Spirit.

I AM Nada, a Mother of love. I come nurturing life by the law of love. I come to teach the children of the Father of the law of love and how the Mother does secure through the Holy Spirit the virtues of God, the graces of God, the essences of his Spirit.

Many thousands of years ago when I was in incarnation on earth, I practiced law as an advocate before the courts on Atlantis on behalf of the children of light. And during my meditations upon the law of God and my ministrations in the temple, I perceived the law of God as the certain defense that the Mother must use to protect her children from the wiles of this world, from the fallen ones who also seek to use the law to their unjust purposes.

And so we come to an age not unlike the one in which I lived to serve the law of our God in the temple and to serve in the outer temple of the people as a practitioner of the law, as a defender of justice, truth, and mercy. We see that civilization has increased, and civilization is like the field of the tares and the wheat that have come full grown. Almost anything under the sun that you would seek you may find in this civilization, whether of God or of mammon, of men or of demons.

We see that the fallen ones have used many avenues to take from the children of God their just portion of the light. We see the usurpation of the law of God by man-made laws that interfere with cosmic justice. We see that these laws and their interpretation in the courts of the world are often in defense of the carnal mind to the exclusion of the defense of the soul in Christ.

I come forth this day as a Mother to call you to also be Mother, to warn you of those things that come to pass in the end of the age of cycles, as these ages are told and foretold by the sons of God on every planet in every system of worlds. In the hour of the fulfillment of cycles, see how the fallen ones will take the law, how they will enact laws that will be unto the death and the destruction of the soul and its place on the path of solar evolution.

You see, then, that when you give your invocations for light, for freedom, for the accessibility of the divine covenants unto the children of God and for the setting of the people of the blessed earth free, sometimes these calls do not manifest because they are prevented from manifesting by man-made laws. And these calls, as it were, are bounced back unto the decrees by those fortresses that men have erected in order to guard the bastion and the citadel not of the Christ but of the children of the wicked and of the children of this world.

You see, then, that every call that goes forth as a decree of the Word must have the sharp point of the arrow of Truth. And in order to hit its mark, it must be firmly aimed. And the bow that you hold, as the power of the thrust of the Word, must be used and implemented with the skill of the mighty archer.

When you direct the arrow of Truth, you do not direct it anywhere, hither, thither, into the sky and hope to achieve the mark, but you define the mark carefully. And then by the eye of God you align the bow and the arrow, taking care and compensating for the gravity, the flight through the air and the distance it must travel.

Understand, children of the Sun, that I am speaking to you of the robbery of the very substance of God from the children of God by the fallen ones. I counsel you, then, to form a committee on the law and on the legislature in order to see what laws are being enacted by the Congress of the United States, by the state legislatures, and by the laws that are being enacted in other nations of the world.

For these laws when set in motion are a decree, a man-made decree unto themselves. Like a robot decree, these laws sustain an action that is Antichrist and anti the manifestation of the Word of God until they are challenged, until they are reviewed by the courts and by the people themselves, who must form a mandate of righteousness, a mandate of the Word of God to challenge both the lawmakers and the law interpreters when these are not aligned with the Christ.

Let us make one thing clear: Any law that does not stand in fulfillment of the law of God cannot stand. It is there waiting to be challenged, and any individual son or daughter of God who perceives the injustice and the incongruity of man-made laws—who will challenge in the name of the Christ that law, who will take to the Lords of Karma and draw to our attention the existence of injustice—will have immediate action from the Lords of Karma and from the individual Christ Self.

And if you will formulate your decrees in consonance with the will of God and with your understanding of cosmic justice, you will see that you will not have to take up the arrows, for we will deliver the arrows ourselves from the level of our just judgments, which are out of the mind of God. And we will send forth your word and your decree into the cause and core of this that is the plot of the fallen ones to ensnare the energies of the race and to take the entire economy and the government of this nation down in the negative spiral of reinforcements, reinforcing mankind's sense of justice, which in this plane of relative good and evil is often injustice unbeknownst to them.

I am speaking to you of law as the instrument of man's salvation and law as the instrument of man's destruction. Law is the sacred energy of the power of God, of his government, of his will, of that energy that comes forth in the original fiat of creation.<sup>1</sup> Law, then, must be respected. For it is the energy and the very sacred fire that is God.

How can you be the advocate with Christ of the graces and gifts of the Holy Spirit unto each child of God if you do not know the law? Therefore know the law and study the law—the laws of God and the laws of man. And therefore stand in the place of mediation to see which laws enacted in this plane are in conformity with truth and which laws are a variation from that fundamental truth of life, of being.

Laws that must secure mankind's path of initiation must be enacted, and laws that detract from that path must be challenged. Above all, in waging the war for the salvation of the worlds, the very battle of Armageddon, you must be absolutely convinced that the Christ in you is one with the Christ of all, with Jesus, with the universal manifestation of the Christ. And therefore when you decree in the name of that Christ, you will have the all-power in heaven and in earth that was secured by Jesus, by his initiation, and by his victory on the cross, in the tomb, and on Bethany's hill. That victory will work for you still, if you invoke that victory and declare the Law by the power of his Truth.

Let us not be dismayed by numbers. Numbers are the concoction of the fallen ones to dismay the children of God. But we are the numberless numbers! We are the atoms of Selfhood! We are the being of the Holy Spirit that is at once atoms of Selfhood and yet the one body of God!

You cannot say that you are isolated when you are one in this body of God. You cannot say that you are apart but that you are a very necessary part of the Whole. And so, you see, those who attack one aspect of the body of God must meet with a thrust every other aspect, for that body is One. And I declare this as the fundamental law of your strength, your being, and your overcoming victory in this plane.

This Law of the One must be understood! It was taught to you by Godfre. It was taught to you by Lanello. It has been taught to you by Moses, by Ikhnaton. It has been taught to you by the Buddha and the Christ.

In all ages, those who have come into our oneness have proclaimed to their disciples the Law of the One. And therefore if you see division, if you allow division within your midst, you are allowing the fragmenting of the body of God and therefore you are giving entrance into your midst to the divide-and-conquer tactics of the fallen ones.

Understand, then, O people of God, O children of Israel! Understand that the Law and the LORD are one and that this one God is in truth your salvation and your defense!

No force in this world or beneath this world can withstand the Presence of the One. Therefore it is necessary for the hallowed Circle of the One to remain as one flame intact. And those who go out of the way, with their doubts and their fears and their darkness, must indeed go out of the way.

For these then become the contamination by their consciousness—the contamination of the Law of the One by the law of duality, which they by their very doubts have espoused. For the doubting of the very living Presence of God is placing oneself in a dual relationship—the lesser self and the Greater Self, and the lesser self doubting the Greater Self.

And so, you see, there is in reality only one Great Self and one Great Heart and one Great Mind, of which we are all a part. This is the Law that you must espouse in the name of the Mother for and on behalf of her children!

Out of this oneness you will form the magnet of community! Out of this oneness you will form, then, the magnet that will draw the children of God from every corner of the earth into the very midst of the living flame!

Call for the Arresting of Spirals of Injustice

by Portia

Beloved I AM Presence, beloved Lords of Karma, I desire this day, by the authority of the Christ within me, to register a complaint, to call to the attention of the hosts of heaven this injustice which I have witnessed and I have perceived. _____

(Describe the injustice and name the persons, indicating the time and place of the event.)

And in the name of Almighty God, I withdraw all of God's energy from that injustice and I command that that spiral of injustice be arrested now!

I ask the Lords of Karma to diligently consider the righting of all wrong, the balancing of God-justice in the lives of all individuals concerned; and I ask that my call be adjusted according to the will of God and that it be implemented according to that will.*
