In every area of science, government, the economy, and education, there are those intrinsic flaws in the diamond of the self of being that must be removed if this civilization and this individualization of the God flame is to realize the flawless diamond of the I AM THAT I AM.

Welcome, then, Saint Germain, the Master Alchemist of the Aquarian age, who long ago proved that the base metals can be transmuted into gold and who showed, after the path of Jesus Christ, how the water of the human consciousness can be changed into the wine of the celestial being.

The Great Cosmic Exchange between Spirit and Matter

Become Alchemists of the Sacred Fire

The rolling of the mighty sound of the coming of the LORD be upon you this day, children of the Most High.

In the Presence of the One who is life, I AM come for the deliverance of the captives, for the restoration of the sign of purity, the rising caduceus of your consciousness that is the energy fount of the Mother rising to meet God the Father, that you might experience the rebirth.

I AM in the heart of the Himalayas, sending forth the blue light of will, faith, God-determination, and the plan of the Manus for the return of the fourth, fifth, and sixth root races to the law of the Manus and the understanding of the Self as the true handiwork of God.*

The forward movement of the centuries and the aeons is upon us as we examine the equation, then, of that which is to come to pass in this century. We realize that all that has gone before has manifested in a foundation—a foundation that is an energy field.

If, then, that toward which the hope of God is projected and the hope of every living thing—if the resurrection itself is to be fulfilled—it must be because initiates of the sacred fire, who are a part of the vanguard of heaven and earth, realize that this foundation is in many areas not adequate to support this new birth and this resurrection and this return of the lifewaves to the white-fire core of being.

There are certain customs, doctrine and dogma, systems of government, theories of economics that are not adequate for the coming of the kingdom of God upon earth. And therefore, perforce, these very systems, entrenched as they are upon earth, will not allow the dream of God and man to be realized unless there are those who have the vision of the New Day and who can understand that the science of the spoken Word and its application to nuclear physics is necessary for the transmutation of the elements of being, even for the very removal of those particles of radioactivity that are present in the sea, in the land, and in the air to the detriment of evolution upon earth.

And there are those systems whereby the use of nuclear energy through the splitting of the atom have created great danger, loss of life, and disease. And in these instances where scientists have not taken the true responsibility for the lives of the children of God, there have been those who have been maimed and others who will show forth the effects of this energy, not only in this life but in generations to come.

In every area of science, government, the economy, and education, there are those intrinsic flaws in the diamond of the self of being that must be removed if this civilization and this individualization of the God flame is to realize the flawless diamond of the I AM THAT I AM.

Welcome, then, Saint Germain, the Master Alchemist of the Aquarian age, who long ago proved that the base metals can be transmuted into gold and who showed, after the path of Jesus Christ, how the water of the human consciousness can be changed into the wine of the celestial being.

From the body terrestrial to the body celestial, then, there is an equation, and the equal sign of this balanced equation is always the Christ consciousness—to the left of the equation, the human; to the right, the divine. And the Mediator that holds the fulcrum and the balance of the exchange of forcefields is the Christ within you.

Now visualize the Cosmic Christ as a giant sphere of cosmic consciousness representing the equal sign of the equation between the planetary body and the sun itself. See the relationship of the planets to the sun as that of the electron of the individual to the nucleus of the atom. Understand, then, that the great Mediator of the Christ is the Mediator not only in this plane but between the worlds of Spirit and Matter.

Know you not, then, that the energy of God does flow through the nucleus of the atom as an energy of exchange of Spirit and Matter, and that even now the very atoms of your being contain that portion of the Holy Spirit that God has ordained might still be contained within your forcefield.

And thus, you see, by devotion to the will of God, to his wisdom and his love, you can become alchemists of the sacred fire and teach mankind the way to produce those necessary energies that will provide all that is needed without endangering the temples, the mind, the soul, the body of those who are evolving on earth.

How can these root races be spared? How can they come into alignment when the children of God upon earth allow those scientists, who were abroad in the land on ancient Lemuria and Atlantis, to once again control the destiny of the nations? Some of these scientists are in the laboratories and, devoid of the Christ mind, they are plotting the most awful, destructive forcefields.

It is difficult for you to imagine that there could be such a thing as embodied evil. Well I tell you, it is important that you come face-to-face with the demands of this age and every age. God has not willed the sinking of continents, of cataclysm, of flood or of fire. It is man who has willed it and it is man who has deified evil as the energy veil, who has willed it in this civilization and in every civilization.

O children of the One, do not be naive! You do not know what is abroad in this land and other lands. You do not know of the dark forms of manipulation of the psyche and the brain and the human system that are already being perpetrated against mankind. Why is there this lethargy and this absence of an understanding of God as life?

It is because the manipulators have already manipulated the capacities of the individuals to absorb light. They have been working their ways of manipulation for thousands of years, and even the physical temple—evolution as it is today—does not represent any longer that which the LORD God created as a means for the initiation of those early individuals in the early root races on Lemuria.

It is the tampering, then, with life itself, even with the genes and the chromosomes, that has brought mankind to this level of densification and an inability to communicate with the seven Holy Kumaras, the Lords of Flame from Venus, and even ourselves as the Manus of the races.

We have not desired that we should be removed, yet mankind have removed themselves. For by their rebellion against the Lawgiver, you see, they have come to be at the mercy of the fallen ones, who desire to make all children of God subject unto them and unto the law of death.

But where is the law of death when the LORD thy God will stand in the midst of thy temple once again to give thee life? He is the Great Sun that can restore to wholeness, by the great healing light, all energy and energy patterns that have gone out of the way. And thus the prophecy shall indeed be fulfilled: the crooked shall be made straight, and every valley shall be exalted.<sup>1</sup>

So now comes the Word of the messengers of God and the closeness of the ascended hosts to mankind. This is the hour when you can choose to be free through the violet flame and through the acknowledgment of Saint Germain, the God of Freedom to the earth. He is our representative, and he delivers to all of the captives of the senses that alchemy, that formula whereby the Christ within you draws down from Above the great sacred fires of the Holy Spirit, and in through the nexus to the great chalice of being.

And in the chalice of the self, which is your very own living temple, the violet flame comes as the universal solvent of all that is discordant, of all elements of fire, air, water, and earth that are no longer outpicturing the crystalline purity of the original design.

I AM Himalaya. I call forth the members of the fourth root race! I call you into the purity of your own God flame! I call you to the purity of Serapis Bey! I call you to the purity of your origin in God! I call you Home! I call the electrons and molecules, cells, and atoms of being into the sacred fires of the AUM!

I send forth the light that now arcs with the God and Goddess Meru, with Lord Vaivasvata Manu, and with the Great Divine Director. And we do renew this day the intensification of the forcefield of the archetypical pattern of the true identity of the members of the root races evolving on earth, of the angelic hosts incarnate, and of all who have become a part of this lifewave.

We send forth, then, the energy of the will of God for the restoration of individual identity. We send forth the impetus!

And by that impetus you will enter the laboratory of being and work change on earth. You will work that change that recognizes the necessity to rebuild the foundations, to remove those boards that are rotting and those vast segments that form the undergirdings of this structure that is the very foundation of life on earth.

Let the beams, then, that have rotted be exchanged for electrodes of light. And let the alchemy of the sacred fire transmute the records of Atlantis and the infamy of those civilizations that have been destroyed by the same mathematical formula of the Christ consciousness. For when the atoms to the left of the equation are not ready to receive the light from on high, from the Source that is to the right, then when the light enters in and it passes through the nexus of the Christ, the light becomes the destructive energy of Lord Shiva. This need not be.

Therefore let the blueprint be reinforced. For when you have the blueprint, then no amount of tampering, alteration, manipulation, or psychic projection can take from you the original base of your own rock of Christ-identity.

Let the Buddha be known! Let the Cosmic Virgin be known! And let these coordinates of the Self be the mark of the Self-realized man and woman of the New Age!

I AM Himalaya! I know whereof I speak! This is a joyous hour, and yet it is an occasion for great seriousness of heart as you contemplate that the situation on earth is such that those who hold the power and the money and the science and the ability to change vast segments of the population are the very ones who have not the light of the Inner Self or the loyalty to that Self, which would engender responsibility to every living soul. Without responsibility in the leaders, there is that juggernaut that will surely end in the self-destruction of some and in the new birth of others.

Children of the light, this is the moment when the atoms of Self, sealed in God, may pass through the great cosmic exchange and when these atoms of light may replace the atoms of darkness on a world scale.

Begin, then, within your temple! Replace every atom of the energy veil with an atom of light! And then watch how the stars will fall from the heavens, as those who have exalted themselves in positions of power will fall because of the weight of that darkness. And then you will see the rise of the New Star of the morning, and you will see the same exchange of the atoms of Self over and over again.

There is a very important law that is at the foundation of this great exchange. It is this—that the dark stars that have been elevated to positions of power cannot fall until there are comparable stars of light who are ready to ascend in the moment of their descent. And therefore, a cosmos waits! A world waits! An evolution waits for the sons and daughters of God to come into their own, for the lightbearers to put on and to become the great mantle of the spiritual overseers, the hierarchy of the ascended masters.

When you are ready, the great Mediator will appear and the divine exchange will come, and the alchemy will come, and the elements will melt with a fervent heat. And you will behold the New Day, as galaxy upon galaxy of consciousness is filled with the light and the glory of the LORD.

Almighty God, I worship thee! I AM thy son Himalaya! I stand before thy throne! I plead for the salvation of earth and for the intensification of the sacred fire! But most of all, I plead for the awakening with Gautama and the enlightenment of the Buddha for every child of light upon earth, that they might know thee, the One True God.

I pray, O LORD of hosts. I pray as the intercessor for all of the root races. Therefore I say, let the fifth and the sixth and all of the root races come into the alignment of ascension's fires, of the white-fire purity, and then of the fifth ray of science and of the demonstration of the science of the Mother, and then of the ministry, the correct ministry of that science.

So let it be by the alchemy of the LORD's hosts that all shall forge and win a permanent victory, not alone for the self but for those millions of souls who are waiting for the rising of that Self, that Great God Self within you.

Into the keeping of the Most High, I commend your flame. So receive the light of the Manus this day.

I AM in the mountain of your Self, Himalaya.
