

Beloved Hercules

Love, the Dynamo of Action

It does not require, then, the outer sophistication that you think it requires to change this nation and to change the face of the earth. But I tell you—in the true Herculean momentum of my life and office and the flame whereby I am known as Guru of the gurus—that you must act, act with dispatch! And it must come swiftly, as the blue lightning of Mercury!

So must come this turning about! So must come the challenge! For what your leaders are undoing with the stroke of a pen or with a word carelessly given is that which has taken centuries to build upon this soil and centuries of evolution by those who were united in the beginning of America in order to safeguard her freedom so that all might have the path of initiation.

Therefore, pursue the divine plan! Therefore, pursue your calling! And above all, remember that it is the...

Beloved Hercules

Love, the Dynamo of Action

In my hands I hold a chalice of infinite light. It is a crystal chalice, symbol of God consciousness held by Elohim, who stand to arc the light from the Royal Teton Retreat¹ to this sacred energy field now consecrated by Gabriel and Hope and Listening Angel and Lanello and mighty legions of our bands.

The arcing of light from the forcefield of the Elohim in the Royal Teton Retreat is for the specific action unto Keepers of the Flame who have gathered to keep that flame of life here in this center and who have caught the vision of a more than ordinary purpose.

Therefore I come for a more than ordinary cleansing. I come in response to Saint Germain, whose mighty fervor for America burns this day in the love and the consummate love of a father and friend, who sees the darkness that is coming over the land as compromise upon compromise continues to betray the hard-won principles and freedoms.

As those who have fought for life upon this soil now look upon it, there is one overwhelming thought that comes to mind, and it is this—that the American people in this hour are the least informed and have the greatest ignorance concerning the great betrayal that is being enacted in this very moment by the heads of state, by a government that is not representative of the people or of the Christ.

Beloved ones, I must tell you that beloved Saint Germain is very, very concerned this night for the fate and the destiny of the lightbearers in this nation and on earth. And at this moment there is a meeting being held by Saint Germain at the Royal Teton Retreat, and he is addressing the Darjeeling Council and the Council of the Royal Teton. So important is this meeting that the God and Goddess Meru have also come from Lake Titicaca. For I tell you, children of the light, you do not realize how those who are the smiling ones in office are the very ones who are destroying this nation piece by piece, day by day.

You have heard so much of our warning and of our analysis of events that perhaps it seems as though we talk of nothing else. Well, I can tell you that our hearts think of nothing else except the freedom of the lightbearers on earth and the destiny of this lifewave. For it is upon us, and there is much danger to the temple of the children of God on earth this day.

Therefore I am come with a multifaceted purpose this night. First of all, it is to energize you with the mighty power of the Elohim, which I have brought in this chalice of light that is now suspended over the forcefield of the crown of the Buddha so that you might have the focus of our energy for the duration of this dictation. I also come representing many ascended beings who are charging you with the edification of your soul and mind and heart and the necessary action that will stop this betrayal and the downward trend of all parts of life.

I tell you, the prayer that is in the heart of the Mother is a prayer that ought to be in all of your hearts, and it is this to the LORD God Almighty:

O God, unless you come into manifestation on earth now, all will be lost. Therefore, come into my temple! Come into my soul! Live in me and walk the earth through me! Almighty God, come. I will make any sacrifice that is necessary to be the instrument of the LORD God in this age.

This is the prayer of the Mother. I pray that it will be your own. For only the veritable manifestation of Almighty God himself incarnate in ye all will suffice to deter these fallen ones, who are marching across the earth at an incredible speed. Yet it is not as great as the speed of the legions of light or of the hosts of light! The great equation that must be balanced, then, is the mass ignorance of the people.

We hail the advent of the speaking of our messenger over the radio each day of the week across the country, which has been going on now for five weeks.² We are grateful! And there is applause in the Royal Teton Retreat this night for this report of the support of the student body for this endeavor.

I tell you, it is most important that the frequency of the Great White Brotherhood and of the teachings permeate this City Foursquare and this New Jerusalem! And therefore, let it expand and let it continue! And let Keepers of the Flame across America seize this moment to use these recordings of these programs, to let that voice echo and be the true voice of America and of the I AM Race in this nation!

Let the media, then, carry the vibration of the voice of the Son of God, the voice of the Good Shepherd, who releases his vibration unto the children of God through our messenger. Let Keepers of the Flame also consider themselves emissaries of light.

Recall well that Jesus called upon the fishermen, and they came.³ They were not tutored. They were not prominent.

They were humble of heart and indeed mighty forerunners of this age.

It does not require, then, the outer sophistication that you think it requires to change this nation and to change the face of the earth. But I tell you—in the true Herculean momentum of my life and office and the flame whereby I am known as Guru of the gurus—that you must act, act with dispatch! And it must come swiftly, as the blue lightning of Mercury!

So must come this turning about! So must come the challenge! For what your leaders are undoing with the stroke of a pen or with a word carelessly given is that which has taken centuries to build upon this soil and centuries of evolution by those who were united in the beginning of America in order to safeguard her freedom so that all might have the path of initiation.

Therefore, pursue the divine plan! Therefore, pursue your calling! And above all, remember that it is the spark of the will of God and the power of the Holy Spirit—which the Elohim convey to you, leaping heart to heart—that is the key! It must be a heart manifestation! It must be, for America is the heart and the very secret chamber of the heart of the earth. America as an entire nation is the entering into the secret chamber, to the place of initiation, and all of her land and all of her areas are for that specific goal of the initiation of souls of light.

I AM Hercules! You know that I have been with evolutions of systems of worlds in the moment of the victory, and I am conditioned for this very delicate moment when all hangs in the balance of the few and in their God-determination. Therefore I lay my life and being on the altar of Terra! I lay my life this night as Hercules!

Let the fowls of the air come, then, and nourish themselves upon my body. Come, then, you who soar in the mind of God, you who fly to the uttermost and the farthest reaches. Come, then, and partake of the body of God. For I give my life that you might assimilate the will of God, the action of love, the power of wisdom, and all of my momentum for the reversing of the tide of darkness.

I come in the midst of the Dark Cycle.⁴ I come following the angelic hosts of light. And I come as a representative of the seven mighty Elohim and their divine complements as we serve in the cosmos to anchor the light of the seven rays in the chakras of all people.

I come to deliver to you a chalice and a challenge, and the challenge is to go and to be the focal point. Let God act, act, act, act through you! There is little you need to do but to be at the right place at the right time and to have your mouth open for the sacred fire breath and the science of the spoken Word. It is doing what comes naturally! Doing what is right! Being outspoken and following the heart-call of conscience within you!

Being at that point in time and space that is for the release of the light of Alpha and Omega, you will be caught up in the whirlwind of the sacred fire and you will say, "Behold what God hath wrought through me! O God, be glorified!"

This work is a greater work than the individual or the community. It is a work of cosmos! But I say to you, by the alchemy that I know for the salvation of light bodies and constellations and galaxies, that the energy of God in you can work the work and can deliver this evolution. But I say to you that the dark ones on earth have an altogether different scheme and a different plan, and their plan is for thousands of years of darkness and enslavement, going back to the darkest periods of the enslavement of lightbearers on earth.

Take care, then, that you reckon with the future, that you reckon with your future in this life and in succeeding incarnations, which may be required of you because you have not taken the full responsibility in this age. For unless your divine plan is fulfilled, you will return to the very scene that you now witness.

The playing upon the stage of the earth of the tyranny that is plotted against the children of light will take a minimum cycle of ten thousand years. And therefore you can see that although you may be a soul of great light and have balanced much of your karma, you will be required to return again and again until the open door is there for you to complete the cycle of your divine plan, which is unequivocally that of the deliverance of earth and her evolutions.

This is your calling! This is why you perhaps consider yourselves few in number! But I say, you are very many, considering the caliber of your lifestreams and your dedication, and considering the run-of-the-mill evolution of this earth. For there are those who espouse noble causes but they do not leave the self upon the altar of that cause. They use the cause itself as an instrument of vainglory and the development of greater and greater ego as a replacement for the surrender of the ego and the coming of the Almighty One.

Meditate, then, upon the great revolutionaries of light through the ages. Have they not all had that one common trait of only love? Have they not come with the fullness of love and thereby gained the all of God's love that was necessary to the fulfillment of their mission?

There is a moment; there is a cosmic interval that seems like an eternity. It is the moment of the decision to give your all for the cause of the Great White Brotherhood, and in that moment of the decision you see neither the past nor the future but only the present. And therefore you cannot know that the moment you surrender, God will then infill you with his being and with his consciousness.

Therefore, fear not. Fear not, O daughter of Zion. Fear not, O sons of God and children and babes in arm. Fear not, but walk with God! Walk with Elohim! And seize the mantle of our Brotherhood and know that when you seize it and when you use it, it will work for you and for the millions of lifestreams who will count themselves privileged to be among your ranks ere many years have passed.

I say to you, take the giant step of an Elohim. Do you remember your little game as a child, with so many giant steps—giant steps of an Elohim? Take just one step—the one giant step whereby you leave mortality for immortality, you leave that area of ignominy to become the noble and the ennobling whereby you leave the lesser self, all of it, for the Greater Self!

God will give to you that Greater Self in the gifts of the Holy Spirit and in the blessings unnumbered. And yet your surrender is never, never, never for the return, else, I tell you, the return will not come. But your surrender, as Thomas More has said, is for the very love of thee, the very love of God himself⁵—this, the only motive of surrender and to be that love unto all generations.

Is this not a simple formula? Do you know, precious ones, that we who are of the first ray think in very simple terms? We worship the will of God! We know only one way of worship, and that is to become that will! And in becoming that will, one with love, we are action and a dynamo of love's action in the Law!

This having been said and done, we are about our Father's business. And therefore I seal you in your foreheads with the flames of the Elohim. I take the chalice now. I hold it up, and I pour out to you the cup overflowing.

To all who have the magnet of the love of the will of God is this energy magnetized. So receive it! So be it! And let all else be flung now into the flame! This is God's game, and God plays to win!

"The Summit Lighthouse Sheds Its Radiance o'er All the World to Manifest as Pearls of Wisdom." (2) The speaking of our messenger. This refers to the radio program "Inner Perspectives," which were daily fifteen-minute radio interviews between Elizabeth Clare Prophet and Doug Kenyon on the teachings of the ascended masters. The interviews were originally broadcast from station KIEV, Los Angeles, and began in the spring of 1977. The entire series of interviews are published in the book Inner Perspectives: A Guidebook for the Spiritual Journey, available at <http://Store.SummitLighthouse.org>. (5) As Thomas More has said. Sir Thomas More (1478–1535) composed a lengthy prayer on the last day of his imprisonment in the Tower of London. A small excerpt from this prayer reads: "Give me, good Lord, a longing to be with Thee; not for the avoiding of the calamities of this wicked world, nor so much for the avoiding of the pains of Purgatory, nor the pains of Hell neither, nor so much for the attaining of the joys of Heaven in respect of mine own commodity, as even for a very love of Thee."
