Guarding the Souls of Christed Ones Part 2

So let it be that once again in the harvest of this year, upon the celebration of Saint Germain's own day, you will realize that the greatest harvest of all to Almighty God himself is the harvest of a soul who is willing to be the instrument of God.

For the cause of the Brotherhood I am in this age World Teacher. But to your soul I am friend, companion, and comforter in the way.

Won't you come with me, then, to the office of the messenger, to the offices of the staff? Won't you come and sit down and say with me, "Now let us begin at the beginning. Let us form committees. ## Guarding the Souls of Christed Ones

The Dharma of Illumination

Part 2

I come, then, with a very basic message as I sit before you in contemplation of your own God-reality. It is a message of system, of organization. It all comes back to this in heaven and on earth: If you want to get a job done for God, for man, you must pursue the best methods, the best system, and the most logical sequences.

And thus, until the foundation of the Law is together and a complete circle of concepts can be taught, and until those in this movement understand where to go to place their hands and hearts upon this information, we do not have the necessary tools to work with to effect the transition of mankind's consciousness into the golden age.

Thus we as World Teachers become seriously hampered. And the hampering of our life is such that we must make known to you our prayer to your own God Presence and to the flame within.

And so we come as co-workers on the Path. As it is my custom, I desire to be among the students, not very far removed from you but to place myself in your midst as a brother—a Brother of the Golden Robe, a brother but a step removed from the one you have known as Saint Francis—so that you can see that our contact is very close and that we can walk beside you and be among you and guide you in the most practical organization of this movement.

Be Those Who Espouse the Cause of Wisdom's Ray

You must understand that the burdens are very great upon the board of directors and the staff, and therefore the many activities that you desire to see happen but are not happening (and perhaps you wonder why) is not because of a lack of vision or creativity but is simply because of a lack of servants in the Father's vineyard.

So let it be that once again in the harvest of this year, upon the celebration of Saint Germain's own day, you will realize that the greatest harvest of all to Almighty God himself is the harvest of a soul who is willing to be the instrument of God.

For the cause of the Brotherhood I am in this age World Teacher. But to your soul I am friend, companion, and comforter in the way.

Won't you come with me, then, to the office of the messenger, to the offices of the staff? Won't you come and sit down and say with me, "Now let us begin at the beginning. Let us form committees. Let us see what it takes to be those who espouse the cause of wisdom's ray. Let us see what it takes to be disciplined, to understand the needs of each age group."

Where are the books for the two-year-olds and the three-year-olds, and what are the needs of the five-year-olds? And where is the Sunday school program?<sup>1</sup>

And where are the teachings on psychology that must be presented at the high school level so that souls will understand what are the virtues of personality that must be developed and what are the stages of life? All of this teaching I have given only yesterday to the Mother of the Flame—many, many pages of teachings that would give to you the most astounding revelation on the teachings of the psychologists of this century. This can be put into books by those who are already well versed in these trends. And so the day is at its end and this teaching has not been conveyed to you, and yet diligence has been present.<sup>2</sup>

Lightbearers Are Looking for the Teachings

You have journeyed many miles, and some of you are fatigued. And yet you have given the utmost diligence to hear every word that I desire to convey to you in these lectures. And so you see, there is more and more and more in store, and it must be available and ready now.

Now is the moment when lightbearers—many who are our most precious servants—are entering as freshmen in college across the United States and the world. They are looking for the books. They are looking for the textbooks and the teachings that will help them to discover that divine plan, which is so very near, just above the surface of the mind. And yet the books are not there. And these lightbearers will be trained, and they will continue to be trained, and yet their souls will hunger.

Beloved ones, this is the hour for wisdom's ray. It is the hour to make up for those skills you do not have and to place yourself in the position of carrying and sorting and assorting the vast facets of the mind of God that come so tumbling down upon our messenger from so many ascended beings that, I tell you truly, she can scarcely even be concerned with the putting together of this material in books.

You must understand that we desire to release an abundance of God's wisdom. And we must keep it flowing and keep it moving as the great River of Life, for it is truly the foundation of the Aquarian age.

Therefore if it could be possible, our messenger would sit under the Tree of Life all of the day simply giving more and more of that teaching. The messenger does not do this because she is concerned with what will happen to the teaching that has fallen to the ground and has not been picked up as the golden fruit of the Tree of Life. And so you see, we need those who will come and pick up the fruit and prepare it to serve to the children of God.

Consider How You May Play a Humble Role

Let the messenger, then, be free. Let the teachings be forthcoming hour by hour. Only the strength of the physical frame prevents a greater service, and already it is so many, many hours a day.

And so you see, precious ones, the harvest is already here. It is already a gift in your hands. Will you not, then, consider—quietly, reflectively, with surrender in your heart—how you may play a humble role, perhaps as one who is not exalted with world fame but is simply one who will go down in the annals of the cosmic Brotherhood as the one who has been the staff of the messenger for the year 2001?

The staff is composed of the Kundalini fires of the Mother raised upon the altar of life in each of her children. It is a golden staff, and it is the one that is used for the shepherding of all flocks into the fold. And thus to produce those works that will give freedom to all, as you have heard the words of freedom this day, is indeed the most noble of callings, the highest honor that can be bestowed, the greatest opportunity that can be afforded to your souls.

Let us have a company of lightbearers in committees with the devotees of the Brothers and Sisters of the Golden Robe.

And let the inner and outer action of cooperation be so close that you can hear even the rustle of the garment of your cohorts of light as they move in and out of your own headquarters and your own offices.

We Count You as Dear Friends

I have come, then, as friend and counsellor, to sort out for you, under the direction of Gautama, what is the great need and requirement of the hour.

As the day has drawn to its close, then, I desire to seal you in the great light of the Elohim, who has chosen to address you in the morning, when your brains and bodies will be more capable of receiving the great light of the Central Sun, which he bears.

Thus the messenger of Helios and Vesta, Apollo, commends you to the light of your God Presence and calls you to return in the morning for the release of the great light of God-reality. Will you, then, be present and in your seats, ready for the dictation at nine o'clock? [Audience responds, "Yes!"]

Thank you, beloved ones.

So let the Holy Spirit be the instrument of his release and your own body temples mighty electrodes for a mighty people.

We are most happy to be serving with you, Jesus, El Morya, Mother Mary, Lanello—we count you as very dear friends. We love your effort, your oneness, your vision, your sweetness, and your strength.

Do not think that we look upon all those faults that you amplify within yourselves. Do not think that we measure perfection by the little things that happen. These are crumbs. We brush them aside. We look at the whole garment. We look at the motive of the pure heart. We look at the discipline. And finally, we look at the proof that is in the pudding. And the proof of the pudding is that which lies in your hand as the gift, the work that you have achieved.

Let it be, then, a physical, tangible book whereby the children of God might go free. This is what we judge—not the little mistakes. They will be consumed by the sacred fire. But it is the little victories and the great victories day by day that are the milestones, and these form the Path, the way out for those who are yet, sadly, in the dungeons of life.

I AM with you now and always, a fellow servant on the Path.

Amen. Amen. Amen.
