Violet Flame, with Love from Shamballa

When you consciously, willingly sustain the light of the violet flame within your being, then you are indeed free.

But if you allow your violet-flame energies to be dissipated and you forget to make the calls for the intensification of that light, in those moments when your aura has become inundated with the forcefields of the world, then you are no longer free because you have not the frequency of freedom, which is the violet flame.

Violet Flame, with Love from Shamballa

Upon the ray of the light of freedom I direct love from Shamballa,¹ from our hosts of light, and from the heart of Gautama Buddha.

Freedom is a light, an energy ray. Understand freedom, then, this day. When you consciously, willingly sustain the light of the violet flame within your being, then you are indeed free. But if you allow your violet-flame energies to be dissipated and you forget to make the calls for the intensification of that light, in those moments when your aura has become inundated with the forcefields of the world, then you are no longer free because you have not the frequency of freedom, which is the violet flame.

This is a most interesting concept, beloved ones. It means that freedom, technically speaking, must be supported by the mathematics of a cosmos, the frequency of a cosmos, and the veritable Presence, the Electronic Presence of that personal manifestation of Saint Germain, the God of Freedom to the earth.

The manifestation of God in you, beloved hearts, must be that of Father, Son, and Spirit and of Mother flame, the white-fire core of being, personal and impersonal. When you reject the representative of your freedom—Saint Germain, indeed—you reject freedom.

See, then, how mankind have bound themselves to the shackles of ignorance and of bondage simply because their own self-indoctrination of fear and doubt has not allowed for their reception of the great God of Freedom to the earth.

See, then, that the denial of the son of God who has perfected a flame will deny to you that flame itself. This is the law of hierarchy. See how it works in your life. If you deny the artist, can you learn the art? Without the person of the artist to transfer the art, it remains suspended in another dimension. That dimension is the mind of God.

Now, then, 144,000 priests of the sacred fire direct from the Violet Planet the energy of the violet flame. Will you reject the flame because you do not like the label? If Jesus Christ stood in your midst to release to you mercy and peace, you would accept the flame. Change the label, and mankind reject the very same essence.

Thus we live in an age of alchemy when that alchemy must also include the submersion of the self in the personality of God. This is the great teaching that comes to mankind out of the East—that you must become the personification of God, that you cannot leave God to a vapory mist and deny him in toto in his sons and daughters, else you will also lose the mighty Presence of the Great Spirit.

The Great Alchemy of the Violet Flame

I AM Omri-Tas! The blessing I bring is the sum and substance of myself—the art, the science, the violet flame that has sustained millions of lifewaves. It is joy. It is a current that quickens, that transfers, that causes many elements of God's consciousness to pass through you.

Within the violet flame are elements, chemical elements that exist in this earth and in other systems of worlds that are for the complete anchoring of the God consciousness within you. You have heard of the 144 elements,² but there are many more elements in the mind of God. The great alchemy of the violet flame that I would reveal to you is that within its folds, within itself, it contains these focal points of light that are elements of God's being. And therefore when the violet flame passes through you, the great science of transmutation comes about because the flame contains within itself elements of God's mind that are able to transmute darkness into light—a greater light than you realize, a greater cosmic consciousness.

In your present awareness you perceive this as energy and joy, sweetness, and a wonderful closeness to each other in God. But beyond your plane of this representation of yourself, in other octaves where even now you experience the fullness of your God-free being, the violet flame that you invoke creates manifestations of consciousness and awareness that you have yet to experience in your solar awareness.

What I am telling you today is that your invocation, by the use of the sacred science here in this octave, affects many levels of your being that you are aware of only in the super-conscious state. And therefore that which the self on earth can accomplish in this life will affect the set of the sail during aeons of evolution.

Is it any wonder, then, that souls of light upon the path of soul liberation seize moments to give fiat to the violet flame and the cosmic light?

Is it any wonder, then, that this energy of life does flow through them and manifests through them for the blessing of evolutions and lifewaves in the earth, upon the earth, beyond the earth, wherever there may be the manifestation of self-awareness in God?

Think of yourself as living upon the exterior of your own microcosmic world, that you, as the real God-free being within the center, also experience other levels of existence. Realize that your consciousness with God is infinite, and infinite expressions of your threefold flame already exist in the vastness of the cosmos. If it were not so, I would have told you.³

I come, then, to remind you to increase your invocation. And Saint Germain has asked me to reiterate to you that thirty minutes daily of the violet flame is most important for the holding of the balance of your lifestream, for the removal of harmful chemicals and forcefields that pass through your aura unnoticed by yourself, for the staying action of the Lords of Karma, and for the great swing that is to occur—the swing toward the Coming Revolution that will swing the consciousness of a people and a planet into a golden-age awareness, into the memory of past golden ages, even the probing and the penetration of awarenesses in the Matter universe that they have not known before. These awarenesses will suddenly come upon the people as there is a mounting energy of violet flame consuming the veils, veil by veil, of that ignorance.

A Return to Wholeness by Violet-Flame Love from Shamballa

Let there be, then, the thinning of the veil into the spiritual octaves of light! And let the opening of that veil come through the studious efforts of the children of the Mother in the presentation of visual images, of music, and of drawings that depict that which the soul is aware of even in its innermost being.

Let the eye of children and adults alike come to know that God is real, first through nature, then through the diagrams, then through the portrayals of vast panoramas of experiences, of lifewaves of great light that are occurring simultaneously as I am speaking to you, that have occurred in the past and will in the future. These must be portrayed in motion pictures, in slides, in vast panoramas of cinema and other means that will be devised through science.

Let the children, then, come to see what the universe, spiritual and material, is all about, and you will see how we will cancel out very quickly the programming of this civilization that is to the not-creation, to the neuter self, to Darkness and Old Night.⁴

You will see that in the twinkling of the Eye of God, in the merriment of that twinkling of that eye, evolutions and lifewaves will suddenly come into the Presence of the Holy Spirit. And there will be a healing, a great healing, and a return to wholeness by violet-flame love from Shamballa, translated through your soul chakra as creativity, ingenuity, great genius for the conveyance of the teaching. Why, you have not even touched the possibilities, even with your present technology, of conveying the lost Word.

Be up and doing, then! Seize your torch and the fire within it! Let your chakras be ignited! And rejoice that God places into your hands this day a momentous opportunity for you to serve in an extraordinary way to relieve the burden of ignorance and malice and self-sympathy and self-concern that is the entire warp and web of the psychic plane. All of this can be swept aside! It must be swept aside for the bringing in of the New Day!

Live Perpetually in a Violet-Flame Sea

We do not have the sense of struggle. We live perpetually in a violet-flame sea. You can do the same. Beloved ones, there is no need for you to exist any longer in the curse of Eden, in the toil and the sweat of your brow. For your work can be a light work. Perpetually, in the cycles of the day and the night, you can give of yourself without fatigue and without loss of the inner joy.

Do not let the fallen ones trample upon you with that narcissism, that cynicism, that Communism and Satanism and all of these. For these must be evaporated by the fervent heat of the violet flame.

I say to you in the name of Jesus, enjoy your soul liberation! Enjoy your path of initiation! Do not look long-faced! For remember that you are doing a mighty selling work for the Brotherhood.

You must sell the Path and the teaching as the greatest way of life, the greatest movement of joy, the greatest experience that we have going on the earth this day. Let your faces, let your bodies, filled with light, portray the beauty and the joy of the angels, who are your cohorts on the way. And let mankind feel the infectious spirit of the affection of Almighty God—so intense, so burning, so joyous, so buoyant!

This is the feeling of the violet flame. If you lose it for a moment, remember I have told you that in that moment you cease to be free. You must not surrender your freedom! For perhaps in that very moment of loss, the fallen ones will drive a wedge of tyranny far beyond your understanding, and then truly it will take many rounds of application to reenter into that place of freedom you once knew.

Those who keep the flame of freedom burning upon earth must realize that few have the purity of the light because few have accepted the violet flame, because few could accept the person of Saint Germain, Omri-Tas, Lord Zadkiel, or Kuan Yin.

And thus as Morya has said, “If I cannot accept the giver, I cannot accept the gift.” And this is the way of human psychology as well as the way of the brothers in white. If we are to accept the consciousness of our chelas, we must accept them in totality. If our chelas are to accept us, they must accept the person as well as the gift.

The Melting Away of Human Stubbornness

Understand, then, that mankind will just have to bury their human stubbornness, and you might as well dig the grave with violet flame and open the earth and allow the entities of stubbornness and rebellion to fall into the pit, where they belong! [10-second applause]

After all, that stubbornness is composed as of mere wax, and you know what happens to wax when you take the flame and let it burn a little hotter and a little hotter. And so mankind will soon find that the wings of their stubbornness that they have used to fly, like gnats and fleas across the skies of their doctrine and their dogma, will soon melt and they will find themselves unfortunately grounded.

And then, you see, mankind will have to admit that there is something more to life than rebellion against the Great Law. For when they are grounded, they too will fall into a giant field of grass, now flames, now flowers—a violet-flame sea of manifestation of elementals and angels. And the joy, the tingling that comes from the tip of the toes to the top of the head is indeed the rushing of the Holy Spirit.

And by and by, as you intensify the great swirls of violet flame around the earth, mankind will begin to catch glimpses of sparkling violet flame. And now and then they will see in the sun the violet flame itself, and they will blink and wink and rub their eyes and look again, and the sun will be a golden light.

And soon, soon they will see a shadow on the moon, a violet-flame shadow, and then [they will see it on] the crests of the hillsides at eventide. And by and by, the saturation of consciousness with violet light will enable souls to transcend certain planes of dense, physical matter so that they can penetrate new experiences in new planes that are entirely in contrast to the psychic realm, that are above and beyond the darkness of the pit and indeed carry mankind into the first stages of the etheric plane.

The Need for Conversion, Aquarian-Age Style

Violet-flame angels, come forth! Come now with your intense love-action of the sacred fire! Lift the burden of these hearts now, and let them know what it means to be filled with God-desire—God-desire to be free and to free all life!

This is the burning in the heart of every revolutionary who will not be still for a moment as long as one electron remains bound to darkness, to bondage. So the one who is the initiate of the flame of freedom must strive to become the great alchemist, the great dramatist, the priest of the sacred fire, the priestess of the sacred fire, and above all, made in the image and likeness of Merlin himself.⁵

See what soul opportunity—young people, people young in heart—see the opportunity to create by violet flame! Why don't you take your violet-flame decrees and give them while you weave the daisies and the violets and the flowers for a crown—a crown for God's servants in embodiment, for each other as brother and sister in the way?

Will you see how elemental life uses the violet flame as a ritual of the seventh ray, even to form the cellular structure of the grasses of the fields?

Will you see that the violet flame as the ritual of the seventh day of rest—rest in motion in God's consciousness—is the very sealing of every creation?

And therefore there can be no creation on earth in any age without the ingredient of the violet flame. There can be no creation without the ingredient of the personality of the violet flame, Saint Germain himself!

Now look upon the earth. Look at the vast evolutions who know not the meaning of freedom, and realize that at subconscious levels it is the rejection of the flame of Aquarius, the intense love of Aquarius, and the love cross that is borne by Saint Germain.

Why do they reject love and freedom? It is only because of the deep programming to fear—the fear syndrome and the alignment of their inner being with the death cycle.

Thus, conversion is the requirement of the hour. Conversion is the requirement of the hour, and it is conversion Aquarian-age style, Saint Germain style, violet-flame style—a conversion of joy. It is the Communion cup of the Lord and Saviour at the Last Supper, where the purple wine was the foretaste of a new age, a new kingdom, and a new birth by this energy of the Holy Spirit.

With the Violet Flame in Hand and Heart

O beloved ones, be alchemists. If you will, take your right hand and raise it now. Keep it very still for a moment. And now move it forward just an eighth of an inch. In that slight movement you have an equation of your being of just how far away from your chakras and your mind is your personal discovery of soul liberation.

With God in you so very near, as near as heartbeat and as breath, can you not realize that just a little push—an eighth of an inch more of invocations and service to life—will be the movement that opens wide the boulder-door to the temple whereby you enter into the secret retreats of our Brotherhood,⁶ the Cave of Symbols, the Royal Teton?

Why, with the violet flame in hand and heart as floral offering and as alchemist's kit, you never know what is just beyond the next turn in the road or the next wind in the mountain! You never know when on that pathway you will meet your mentor Saint Germain face-to-face.

This is why violet-flame angels have that motto of keeping on keeping on. It is because they have discovered, in the vast cosmos of God's being, that you never know just when you will hit upon a great key and suddenly a door is opened and you stand on the threshold of another universe that you never knew existed before.

Step-by-step initiation requires the confirmation of being, the affirmation and acceptance of the Law. Each time you are ready for a new stage of development, you are tested from head to toe in every fiber of your being. But when you endure to the conclusion of the cycle of the test, you will find that you are catapulted into a new dimension of being. And one day, as you have passed—dimension by dimension through spheres within spheres within spheres of cosmos—you will come to the place where you, the soul of God, experience liberation through your own ascension in the light. And you will find yourself catapulted into the arms of God, free forevermore—free forevermore to be and to be and to be.

Embrace the Master of the Aquarian Age, Saint Germain

O children of the One, you are almost home! I speak to you as though you were in a game of blind man's bluff and I were motioning to you—a little bit here, a little bit there, and you will discover the secret of a cosmos.

By and by, then, let the violet flame remove the scales from your eyes so that you might also have the vision of that which I apprise you of in this moment. For then you will be able to tell age-old stories of cosmic evolution and you will begin to see the cycles of creation in music, in sound, in color, in frequency, and in the auras of the great beings of God—ascended masters and hosts of the LORD who intermingle with your own so that the records within their auras might also be impressed upon your being, and then by a little bit of cosmic osmosis you begin to experience cosmic reality.

This is one of the services that we of our bands render to the children of God in the vast evolutions and systems of worlds. There is so much more that I could speak to you of, that I invite you to come to Shamballa, retreat of the Lord of the World, that you renew yourself in the consciousness of the one who loves you so dearly that he will remain forever and a day keeping the violet flame, keeping the threefold flame until you are able to keep it for yourself.

Come, then. Renew your purpose. Renew your self-awareness. And open a mighty sphere of the recording of your own divine plan. It is here—here at Shamballa—the mighty sphere of light that unfolds the cosmic history of your soul. History, beloved ones, is a very important subject. Children must study to know the outer history, and the soul must study the inner history.

Let truth, then, be that good report of the cosmic evolution, and within that good report let the All-Seeing Eye also reveal that which is of not-good report but of misqualified energy. Within your own sphere, then, you will read the handwriting upon the wall that you yourself have writ.

Now you with violet flame can cancel out that line, or all of it, if you choose by free will to be the flame, to be the personality of the flame, and to embrace the master of the Aquarian age, Saint Germain.

I seal you with a kiss of love and a whisk of violet flame.

“The Summit Lighthouse Sheds Its Radiance o'er All the World to Manifest as Pearls of Wisdom.” This previously unpublished dictation by Omri-Tas was delivered by the Messenger of the Great White Brotherhood Elizabeth Clare Prophet on Friday, October 7, 1977, during the Soul Liberation conference, held in Pasadena, California. This retreat was originally built for Sanat Kumara, hierarch of Venus, who ages ago came to earth in her darkest hour for the salvation of a planet and its people. The retreat and city, once physical, has since been withdrawn to the etheric octave, or heaven-world. (2) The 144 elements. The 144 flames of God came forth from the twelve rays, and these flames are materialized as the 144 natural chemical elements in the physical universe, though scientists have not yet isolated all of them. Thus the 144 flames, or virtues, are condensed as Matter, forming the platform for man's spiritual evolution from the form to the formless. Oxygen, for instance, is a condensation of the flame of the Holy Spirit. Each element has a unique vibration. The difference between elements depends on the protons and neutrons (the components of the nucleus), and the number of electrons. That is how compartments of Matter reflect or become a chalice for the energy of Spirit. The son, the daughter of God contains all of these 144 elements, and he or she becomes a chalice that is intended to contain the allness of God. (4) Old Night refers to any period or epoch in earth's history marked by chaos, confusion, war, disintegration, and cataclysm, as illustrated, for example, in the prophecies of Revelation. “Chaos and Old Night” is a phrase found in John Milton's epic poem Paradise Lost, and the ascended masters have also used the phrase “Chaos and Old Night” to refer to these conditions. The antidote to Chaos and Old Night is the use of the science of the spoken Word and especially the violet flame for the transmutation of these scenarios and all dire prophecies. (5) The image and likeness of Merlin. Merlin (fifth and sixth centuries A.D.) was an alchemist, prophet, mystic and counselor at the court of King Arthur, working side by side with the king to establish the sacred fellowship of the Round Table. Merlin was a prior embodiment of Saint Germain. (6) The secret retreats of the Brotherhood refers to temples, focuses, and places of learning located on the etheric planes of earth to which souls can travel in their finer bodies for instruction, training, and initiation by the ascended masters, archangels, or the Elohim. The retreats are also anchoring points for the receiving and release of cosmic energies and the energies of the seven rays. For further detailed descriptions of the retreats, see The Masters and Their Retreats; website noted above.
