Follow Me in the Regeneration

O children of the dawn, pause to consider not only the material concepts of life but the ethereal, the spiritual values that exist in the subtleties of color, music, and light from out the Central Sun.

For if you will think about it, O mankind, you will realize that all light is from the Central Sun and can never be requalified by human vibratory action except momentarily misqualified, for sooner or later it will break the binding of your consciousness that has imposed upon it your wrong thoughts.

Therefore I urge upon you all this day that appreciation of the ineffable light, that appreciation of cosmic truth that will produce the fruit of regeneration within you now.

Will you become receptive unto me? Will you become receptive unto the vibration of my Father, of my God and your God? Will you understand that life is one—one...

Follow Me in the Regeneration

Still, still my light shines! And the perfection of the ages remains the sustaining power of the very fabric of all creation. I AM come that ye might have life.<sup>1</sup>

O beloved children of the Sun, children of one Father, we summon from the four corners of the earth all mankind to the fount of regeneration. Mankind so often—oh, so often—are captured with the idea of physical generation, and this too is the will of God for man today. Yet far, far above it, in the very space of hallowed thought, stands the divine image of regeneration to all people. For through regeneration cometh eternal life, and this is the life of man. It is the life that you may weave in 1972, through the seventies, or on to the year 2000 and thence.

Thus the kingdom of the years stands before you, and there is in manifestation the confluence of manifold opinions, the opinions of the saints garnered through the realm of their experiences, even as your experiences have both marred and made you more like unto my image.

O children of the dawn, pause to consider not only the material concepts of life but the ethereal, the spiritual values that exist in the subtleties of color, music, and light from out the Central Sun.

For if you will think about it, O mankind, you will realize that all light is from the Central Sun and can never be requalified by human vibratory action except momentarily misqualified, for sooner or later it will break the binding of your consciousness that has imposed upon it your wrong thoughts. Therefore I urge upon you all this day that appreciation of the ineffable light, that appreciation of cosmic truth that will produce the fruit of regeneration within you now.

Will you become receptive unto me? Will you become receptive unto the vibration of my Father, of my God and your God?

Will you understand that life is one—one virtue and one strength that may be called upon to render you victorious and invincible, victor over sin and death, victor over illusion and shadow?

You were intended to become triumphant. You were intended to follow me in the regeneration.<sup>2</sup> You were not intended to go down and sink neath the waves of fear and concern and frustration. Rather, you were intended to move forward into victory according to the dream of God—the dream that the great legends of cosmic truth will become a supreme reality to your heart and infire you with my grace, which is sufficient for every need.

For when the dark shadows gather around mankind as the result of various karmic patterns, let me make it clear that it is the light that dispels the gloom! It is the light that restores to man uprightness of heart! It is the light that brings to his being the great joy bells of heaven, which speak of rejoicing as God sees each soul free at last from the bondage of the ages and able to rekindle that ancient joy, whose power and energy is the motion of the stars and of holy space, hallowed by grace.

A New Image of Hope to the World

And now I say, O music of the sacred spheres, O tenderness of countless lives both embodied and in the spiritual realm, gather together now the great fire of the song of hearts and let the song of hearts sing within your own heart, within your own song. For many are the sheep upon the hill-sides of the world, and the anguish of those caught in the thickets of delusion and those that are lonely and those hearts that have not understood are many.

Come, ye! O come ye, my people, unto the invisible temple! Come and see the spires of that temple! Come and behold all that is God within! For the icons upon the walls of individual consciences may differ and the consciousness of people may receive one image and yet another, but there is but one image that truly exists, and this is the image of spiritual reality. For confusion and human opinionation have no power whatsoever to change that reality but can only change that reality within the forcefield of their own or another's consciousness.

Come, then, into awareness! Come, then, into strength! Come, then, into joy! For this Christmas, mindful of the great devotion that is poured out to me by many, mindful of the great conflagration within the hearts of many, the sacred fire has kindled a new image of hope to the world.

In this very oncoming year, 1973, the hierarchy will make a double effort to bring to mankind the renewal of the kingdom of heaven through those cosmic images that are the images of the ages with which God has solaced himself, even in moments of aloneness, until he has gathered together and garnered those precious souls that are the fruits of the ages into his heart.

Now then, all of these precious souls, even many that have not returned to this planetary body for ages or have not been heard of on any planetary body for ages, shall return and focalize their cosmic energies unto the earth! And regeneration shall be the purpose and the effort that shall be made to renew your minds, to renew your hearts, and to renew your thought of conquering the beast of the world and replacing that beast by the enfolding and all-powerful Christ image within the hearts of men!

The Great Summoning Power of the Word

We summon, then, those of you in physical embodiment as well as those who are in far-off realms, even in the folds of nirvana, and we say, come unto the earth and help the earth! We say, come unto the world and help the world! We say, come unto mankind and help mankind!

O children of divine illumination, whose garments may be like unto the sun<sup>3</sup>—spun of pure gold, shimmering in the atmosphere, ethereal manifestations yet tangible and eternal ones—stand forth and array these children of the Sun in these garments of loveliness, that the Christ Mass within them shall become greater, that they shall guard against all darkness and all delusion and all activities that in the world produce no fruit but only the barrenness of human experience re-created in all of its bitterness again and again!

Replace all of that, O our Father, by the full summation of universal reality tangibly manifest within their hearts and minds, that my laws now appear. And as they appear they bring courage and hope and refreshment that, echoing through the years, speak of a renewal of my love for thee and of my love for the sheep of my pasture, who hear my voice.<sup>4</sup>

Lo, my voice is the voice of God! For echoing in the chambers of that voice, in the caverns of my thought and of my vocalization, is the great summoning power of the Word.

Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.<sup>5</sup> You shall find refreshment for your souls within the dream of Christ-reality for all mankind. For there are many who seek me and find me not. There are many who seek me and find me in part. And there are those who seek me and find me in the fullness, in the effulgence of my thought as that thought soars within their being and produces the factor of regeneration.

My Light Shall Summon the Elect from the Four Corners of the Earth

Come out from among them, O my people, and be ye separate and be a chosen people, a holy generation.<sup>6</sup> Reveal my truth to those who are ready, and I shall create a Christ magnet around you who stand forth for my light, which shall draw all men unto me.<sup>7</sup>

And thus my light shall summon the elect from the four corners of the earth until the world becomes as God dreamed it so, as our Father designed it—a haven of rest and eternal peace, a schoolroom of promise and eternal release from bondage that has now for so long snared mankind and kept them without song.

O beauteous strength of life that has hidden itself for so long from the many and even from the few (in part), impart to all thy fountainhead of strength for the years to come, which shall gather my sheep, even as the grain is gathered into the barn, until the storehouse of heaven at last becomes the recipient of man's joy in the gathering.

Peace be unto you, even when the world cries "Peace," and there is no peace.<sup>8</sup> Peace be unto you when your hearts are troubled, for I shall give you rest and peace and light.

I AM your hope! I AM your strength! I AM your joy in eternal promise!

Beloved Flame of Resurrection

Beloved Flame of Resurrection,
Blaze through me thy Light always;
Beloved Flame, resuscitation,
Make my heart to sing thy praise.

O blazing white Christ radiance
Of God's own I AM fire,
Expand thy blessed Purity
And free me from all wrong desire.

Beloved Flame of Resurrection,
Rise and rise to Love's great height;
Blessed Flame, regeneration,
Guide all men by thy great Light.

I AM, I AM, I AM thy chalice free
Through whose crystal substance clear
All can see the Christ flame lily
Of eternity appear

Blazing, blazing, blazing! (3x)

And in full Faith . . . *
