An Essay on Freedom Part 2

Beloved ones, it was the messenger's fastidious attention to the great discipline of El Morya that enabled this to take place at Summit University, and I desire you to know that many have criticized the intense policy of the work that we give our students. Beloved ones, the messengers have never flinched and never compromised, and they have kept that intensity of the spiral because they have looked into the face of El Morya and have seen that by his eye of discipline the souls who would come through this course would be spared so much suffering, so much pain and adversity if they were to try and put on this much light in another situation in the world.

Beloved ones, it is not what you learn but it is your ability to discipline yourself to learn that enables the ascended masters to fill you, as Summit University students, with coils of light. It is a matrix that we establish, and our work with you is often independent of that which you are studying.

An Essay on Freedom

Part 2

Your mind and your consciousness is infinite. Your heart is infinite. It is in touch, beat by beat, with the rhythm of God. You simply must know the art of listening grace. Your inner ear must be attuned. And thus you are aware of the pain of earth's children, of the plots of the Fallen One, and of the stupendous power of Almighty God—all simultaneously.

Do you see what exercising your senses can do for you? It enables you to never lose your perspective. For if you are only experiencing on a linear scale, you may become totally aware of a human problem within yourself and totally unaware of God's solution to that problem. You may become so involved with your little self that you will cease to hear the cries of the little children and therefore you will become selfish and turn inward and contemplate, more and more, your personal problems instead of putting them into the flame and running to the rescue of the little ones.

This is the balance of love, wisdom, and power in the faculties of perception—sensory perception, spiritual perception. This is the meaning of perspective. This is the use of the petals of the third-eye chakra.

Maintaining your awareness of God is one of the most important functions of your life. And yet because of your karma being untransmuted, you tend to be submerged momentarily—sometimes for hours and days—in that substance.

The Mantle upon the Messenger

I will explain to you, then, why we have placed the mantle of Guru upon our messenger. It is because our chelas have required in physical embodiment a contact, a reinforcement of our ascended master consciousness, so that our chelas can keep a greater God-awareness. And therefore if you will make the call in your heart to be tied to the heart of the Mother, you will find that her own perpetual consciousness of God will reinforce your own memory of God and therefore give you that impetus of her greater attainment while you pass through the necessary initiations of transmuting your karma and invoking the violet flame.

This is the reason for hierarchy. It is never the glorying of any outer personality, I can assure you. This has never been the desire of our messengers. They would prefer to retreat and not even be seen by the world. Beloved ones, it is the greater sacrifice to be seen, to be known, and therefore to be condemned and to deal with that energy.

Beloved ones, the forces of darkness pitted against the life of the messenger are so great that if it were true what the fallen ones say of human imperfection or pride or all of the whisperings that they whisper, the messenger would immediately be removed from the screen of life—not by our Brotherhood but by her vulnerability to the dark ones who direct their gossip, infamy, and momentums of psychic rays, et cetera, to her lifestream. And therefore the test becomes the fact that the messenger stands and still stands.

And therefore you ought not to be concerned. For you see, blessed ones, I am standing in the place of the messenger. I speak to you. I smile at you. You hear my word. You may trust, then, that when I am here on the platform, I am here always.

We do not anoint our representative only to allow that one to become vulnerable to the world. But when God sees fit to change the circumstance and the place of the messenger, then it will be a matter of a manifestation of that transfer and you will know that it is because God has effected it and not because the fallen ones have done so.

You Are Indispensable as Chelas

It is well, then, that you understand yourselves as the vanguard of light, that you take advantage of the opportunity and cast into the flame the doubts and fears. For you see, beloved ones, upon your faith, your tie, and your contact is the open door to acceleration.

Beloved ones, I have desired to initiate you for many, many, many years. But in order to do so it was necessary that I have a feminine messenger prepared and ready to meet you in the way when you are ready. And thus it is a fantastic cosmic timetable that brings us, one and all, together in this place in this moment so that I might give to you that acceleration of the atomic accelerator.

Realize, then, that without the messenger you could not receive this initiation from me. I must explain this to you, simply because the messenger is determined that no credit shall belong to herself, and indeed the glory does belong to God. But I will tell you that even as the messenger is indispensable to the transfer of light, so you are indispensable in the Coming Revolution! You are indispensable as chelas!

This is the great lesson of life—that God himself is the doer, and yet when you serve as God in manifestation, you become his heart, his head, and his hand. All of cosmos is based upon this principle, and it is the razor's edge of the understanding of the mysteries of God, which the children of light do understand.

Realize, then, that wherever there has been the open door to the cosmic beings and the hosts of the LORD, the fallen ones have come to close that door, to shut off that light. And they have done it by the constant condemnation and the constant gossip and the belittlement.

Beloved ones, understand this principle and be free. I desire not to prolong this explanation. I desire only that you shall take the full authority of my Presence as the God of Freedom to the earth and that these words shall suffice for your understanding of why we have an organization, why we have Camelot, why we have a group of souls who have such love for us and for our representative as to draw close, close, and close to the Mother and therefore to be the swaddling garment out of their own bodies of light, which will protect that forcefield until every word, every teaching, every blessing that is intended by Almighty God for the 144,000 souls destined for this mandala (and the many beyond who will benefit thereby) have been fulfilled, have been delivered, and thus sealed!

Blessed ones, it is because you live that this dispensation continues. It is because of your service as staff, as Keepers of the Flame tending the fires of the teaching centers and in your hometowns that the messenger is able to remain in incarnation. You have become, already, a mighty forcefield of light. You have become souls staying the darkness of the fallen ones, even offering at inner levels, at our Retreat of the Royal Teton, to bear an extraordinary burden upon your bodies. And we have tempered your requests and have allowed you, in many cases, to bear those burdens, but not all. And in so doing you have been the ones who have enabled us to move forward.

Balance, Discrimination, and the Placing of First Things First

I tell you, heaven is grateful. For in this organization there has been far less discord, gossip, darkness, and betrayal than in any other organization that we have attempted to sponsor in the last several hundred years. There is such great purity of consciousness in these souls of light that I would like you to know that certain delegations of angels from other planetary homes have come as a committee to study just how this great accomplishment has been manifested—that so large a number of souls could be so free of the tattling and the tales of the fallen ones.

Beloved ones, I tell you this in tribute, and I tell you that as a result of their examination they have concluded unanimously that it has been your supreme tie, your mighty tie to the Elohim Astrea and to Archangel Michael that has kept your forcefield so free of this contamination of the fallen ones! And I tell you, the fallen ones are extremely jealous of your love and harmony together! And therefore guard it well, because you must understand that it is gold, it is energy, it is momentum, it is strength, and it is the turning of the great sphere of your souls.

Blessed and beloved ones, I tell you these facts because so many times you are not aware of your own attainment and you are so easily beset with the belittlement of the fallen ones that you think that your little peccadillos and your little problems are much more important than your victories!

Well, I desire to put this in perspective this night. Beloved ones, it is unthinkable that a commander in battle should be critical of his men who are winning the victory and perhaps are not perfect in every little manifestation or are not clean or are not shaven or are not doing this or are not doing that.

You must not allow these fallen ones to come and pick you apart, because in picking you apart they are attempting to make you pick yourself apart. And this is the process and the way to insanity and the splitting of your four lower bodies. They place your attention back upon yourself in endless self-analysis, until by attention to the self—and the outer self at that—you lose your attention and your tie to your own Great God Self.

This is not to say that you must not be vigilant. But I am attempting to give you, in all things this evening, a fine line of balance, discrimination, and the placing of first things first, where they count for your victory, your ascension, and the contacting of souls.

And therefore where commendation is due, let it be given. Let it be given to the little ones in our school, who have come into conformity with the inner law. Let it be given to those souls who are chelas of Morya who are attending all levels of Montessori International. They are few among their peers, and they are standing upright with Saint Germain.

To the Students of Summit University

Let commendation be given to the Summit University students. We understand that it is difficult for you to remain in your seats hours and hours a day. We understand that there are sacrifices. But we commend you because you are increasing such a forcefield of light that the Lords of Karma have submitted a report to the Four and Twenty Elders in the God Star that the action of light and the transfer of light through one Summit University session has been so great—so much more than in many other training sessions that we have given in our retreats—that the Lords of Karma have considered it worthy of note that the Four and Twenty Elders might take this into consideration in the further planning for the upliftment of mankind.

Beloved ones, it was the messenger's fastidious attention to the great discipline of El Morya that enabled this to take place at Summit University, and I desire you to know that many have criticized the intense policy of the work that we give our students. Beloved ones, the messengers have never flinched and never compromised, and they have kept that intensity of the spiral because they have looked into the face of El Morya and have seen that by his eye of discipline the souls who would come through this course would be spared so much suffering, so much pain and adversity if they were to try and put on this much light in another situation in the world.

Beloved ones, it is not what you learn but it is your ability to discipline yourself to learn that enables the ascended masters to fill you, as Summit University students, with coils of light. It is a matrix that we establish, and our work with you is often independent of that which you are studying. Your studying becomes your ability to discipline energy and to place your attention almost continuously in your waking hours upon the ascended hosts.

This continuous attention you have not engaged in, some of you, for tens of thousands of years. And by that single factor alone of constant attention upon the teachings and the ascended masters behind the teachings, you have allowed your forcefield to be open for the cleansing action of the angelic hosts. And so I give you only a small insight into our purpose in doing what we are doing.

The Process of Equalization by the Fallen Ones

Well, I will tell you that everything we do has a very profound purpose, but it is in the very nature of the path of initiation that the ascended masters do not reveal all. But so many among you have passed a number of tests recently that I am permitted to give to you these facts for your consideration, as others of the ascended masters have done in this conference.

Beloved ones, the most important thing for you to realize, then, is the light that you already have. For the light that you already have is the only light that can be taken from you. This, of course, is obvious to us. It is obvious when we say it, but it has not always been obvious to you.

Because of the ingrained factor of belittlement, which the fallen ones have placed upon you, you often leave our conferences, our Summit University, as lambs. You tend to give other people in the world the benefit of the doubt that they are like you—and they are not, beloved ones. They have their sympathy ties and they try to engage you in sympathy. And so you look upon them, you see your own faults, and you think that these are beautiful souls.

And by and by you give to them more and more of your energy through this process of equalization, which the fallen ones project at you. This process of equalization takes place when you place yourself on an equal level with those who have far less light than you do. And by placing yourself at an equal level, you thereby give them your light until they become your equal. And this means that you become their equal because you must descend to their level.

And so, beloved ones, by a lack of awareness of attainment—your own attainment—you have lost light in the past. It is our desire to see to it that you do not lose light in the future. No matter if you lack wisdom or understanding of the teaching, when you have sat in our conferences and in our midst, even for four or five days, you have so much more light than those around you, even those who seem sincere in their churches. You have become electrodes of power.

You must know this. You must realize that there is no greater light on earth this day. There is no greater dispensation or transfer than that which comes from the ascended masters to their chelas. You must guard it. You must know its worth. You must not give it away. But you must always exact the price. If individuals want the light that you have, then they must come under the same disciplines that you have undergone!

Hear me well! You do not give away light without the price, else you will be denied light when you are seeking it. All light you have received is by your individual initiation. You cannot break the laws of cosmos and give it away because you have sympathy for souls who are unwilling to work for the light themselves.

Let none approach, then, the altar of the ascended masters, thinking that there will be a handout here. The ascended master consciousness is not a welfare state, beloved ones! We fare well because we work our works in God and have in our hands the fruit of our labor. We teach our chelas the same, and this is the way of the pilgrim on the Path.

Keep the Flame!

Now, beloved ones, a spiral of hosts of light, of violet-flame angels, begin the weaving of a golden-ratio spiral from the heart of the Buddha encircling the room, the city, the nation, the earth.

This golden-ratio spiral has no end. It is cast forth from the hand of God. Angelic beings ensoul it, and it crosses the vastnesses of time and space into eternity.

At the point of the release of this spiral in the heart of the Buddha, transferred to the heart of the Mother, I will initiate you in the acceleration of your being by the violet flame, by the ascension coil. And you will go forth with that energy to do with it what you will—to accelerate, to be God, to be freedom, to be a benefactor of life.

Beloved ones, the conveyance I give, if used by you, is the same opportunity that I received from my own Guru. Seizing that opportunity, passing through many cycles of initiation, I became the God of Freedom to the earth. You may take the same spiral and become the same God-free being I AM. Or perchance, you may neglect the flame and let it drop. And if you do, it will not be returned to you again in many, many a century.

Keep the flame!
