

Beloved Sponsors of Youth from Out the Great Central Sun

A Call for an All-Out Commitment to the Cause of Youth
Part 1

Hail, sons and daughters of earth. We have come forth from out the Great Central Sun to unveil our identity and our victory won. We form a crescent of light. We are twelve in number. And we reveal the aura of our cosmic consciousness of golden light, our robes of white with gold, and the sash of the intense ruby ray action of our love for the Christ.

Thus by the light of the blood of Christ and of his body and of his mind, we focus the incarnation of the Word in every soul whom God sends forth to be the child of God becoming the son and the daughter of God.

Why have we announced our presence? Why have we stepped forth in the name of Gautama Buddha, in the name of Maitreya and Jesus and Kuthumi?

A Call for an All-Out Commitment to the Cause of Youth

Part 1

Hail, sons and daughters of earth. We have come forth from out the Great Central Sun to unveil our identity and our victory won. We form a crescent of light. We are twelve in number. And we reveal the aura of our cosmic consciousness of golden light, our robes of white with gold, and the sash of the intense ruby ray action of our love for the Christ.

Thus by the light of the blood of Christ and of his body and of his mind, we focus the incarnation of the Word in every soul whom God sends forth to be the child of God becoming the son and the daughter of God.

Why have we announced our presence? Why have we stepped forth in the name of Gautama Buddha, in the name of Maitreya and Jesus and Kuthumi? It is because the chelas of the Most High God, because the Keepers of the Flame have now for many a month implored dispensations of light for the children and youth of earth.

And therefore the LORD God has sent us forth. For when these calls reach the altar of the Most High God, he sends us as messengers to answer the call. We have been answering the prayers of the mothers and fathers and sponsors of youth for aeons. But now, in the hour when some among those embodied upon earth may recognize our presence and may have a conscious attunement and at-one-ment with our life, we step forth and we step through the veil (as the Great Law allows it in this cycle) through the dictation of the messenger of the Great White Brotherhood.

Therefore our presence in the Great Central Sun is made tangible to you today, as tangible as the Great Law will allow. And you can see that it is by your thrust of light and by your direction of energy unto us that we have come thus far, integrating our life and our energies with this earth and her evolutions.

And therefore you can ponder how much farther we may step in closeness, in proximity and intensity to you and to the blessed children of earth, as more and more Keepers of the Flame and bearers of light realize the immense cosmic action in the name I AM THAT I AM and in the science of the Word that proceeds out of the Aum, out of the I AM THAT I AM for the balance of life in Spirit and in Matter.

We Come to Strengthen and to Protect the Heart of Our Messenger and of Our Disciples upon Earth

Therefore, we are come. We send light rays from the Great Central Sun and we project our Electronic Presence upon this platform. We are not permitted by the Cosmic Council to place the fullness of our weight of light upon Terra, for insufficient energies have been invoked thus far to hold the balance for our very presence to be placed upon earth.

Therefore in this hour the dispensation is the extension of ourselves. And so, you see, you are receiving this dictation by light and sound ray from the very heart of the Great Central Sun, where we stand upon the altar before Alpha and Omega in our crescent circle facing not only yourselves but vast life-waves of the evolutions of these galaxies. And upon this earth, then, is the extension of ourselves upon this platform.

And you can hear with your inner ear the slight echo. For our energy comes forth across a vast cylinder of light, and this cylinder of light is a spiral of energy. It is golden white, and it contains the very thread of our ruby ray, which we have taken from our garment and flung into the very heart of earth, into the very heart of the Mother as the extension of our presence.

We come forth, then, first of all, to sustain, to strengthen, and to protect the heart of our messenger and of our disciples upon earth. For first and foremost we must guard the citadel of consciousness and of life, as the heartbeat of God beats the very heart that enables you to sustain life and consciousness within the physical temple.

Therefore the first order of business, as we proceed with our directives from the Court of the Sacred Fire for the elevation of youth, is to fortify those souls who are to be the instrument of the transfer of energy from us to the children of earth and of other systems of worlds during this twelve-month cycle that is at hand.

If, then, you elect to be a part of the band of souls who will be transformers of light, you need only signal now to your own Christ Self, to Saint Germain, and to the Keeper of the Scrolls that your name might be written in gold among that company who now receives the fortification—by the action of the gold, the white, and the ruby ray—for your heart flow and energy.

Now we raise our hands simultaneously to direct currents of light. And from our hearts there extends this light to the hearts of souls not only in this place but throughout the earth who have already pledged at inner levels to be the step-down transformers of our light to the youth of earth.

This action of the intense light of the sacred fire is for the formation of a golden heart of light around your own physical heart and your etheric chakras so that there will be the necessary balance, the necessary strengthening, the necessary forcefield so that you may sustain midst the darkness an extraordinary momentum of light without the breaking of that heart chakra, without the interruption of the flow of life to this octave.

The Heart Is the All and the Everything of Your God-Mastery

Blessed ones, when you reach a certain point of evolution on the Path, the heart is the all and the everything of your God-mastery. The sustainment of the heart, of the breath of life and of the heartbeat, and the care of that heart chalice in the etheric, mental, emotional, and physical body become the initiation of the hour.

And as America is the heart of the earth and as you have heard the prophecy that in the last days men's hearts would fail them for fear,<sup>1</sup> so you may comprehend that the vast momentums of fear upon the planetary body today are pounding as a mighty astral sea upon the hearts of Keepers of the Flame, upon the heart of our messenger, and even upon the hearts of the tiny babes who come with an extraordinary light into incarnation.

Therefore the heart of Helios and Vesta, of Alpha and Omega, the Sacred Heart of Jesus and the Sacred Heart of Mary (the electronic momentum of these hearts) is transferred as the Great Law will allow, increment by increment, thread by thread, around your own heart chakra.

Most blessed and beloved ones, take care of your intake of substance. For all toxins and foods of lesser vibrations and dense animal matter contribute to the burden of the heart. Take care, then, that you pursue always, periodically, those cleansing diets, those prayers and fastings that will relieve your heart of the burdens not only of the astral plane but of the physical plane.

Beloved ones, I must reiterate that when you retain dense substance within your being—whether sugar, alcohol, nicotine, drugs, or other perversions of energy that are abroad in the land, such as the fluorides in the water—this substance within your heart and within your body becomes an electrode for the astral energies and the darkness of those fallen ones who attempt psychic murder upon the Mother and her children by bombarding the heart center with those rays of darkness that are almost as the beating of a sledgehammer against that heart center or as the fall of black lightning in jagged rhythm.

And therefore, beloved ones, you see that the pounding of the heart is for a very real reason. It is because the fallen ones know that if they can disrupt the rhythm of life through the heartbeat, they can disrupt your service. It is as simple as that. It is attacking “the heart of the matter” that has become their motto. But they have stolen this motto from the Great White Brotherhood, and we are here this day to tackle the matter of the fallen ones at the very heart of that matter!

Visualize the Heart Sealed in a Blazing Sun of Sacred Fire

Blessed ones, we are your sponsors! We are the sponsors of the children and youth, and you are the eternal youth of Almighty God incarnate. And therefore our attention is directed first to those who have come forth from every walk of life and from every continent to be the chalice—the life-giving chalice, the golden chalice of the Holy Grail unto earth’s evolutions.

Now, beloved ones, I trust that you will heed our voice and our message. For it is by great dispensation of energy from the Cosmic Council and from the Four and Twenty Elders that we are permitted to speak at this conference. All that we say, then, is for your application in the coming months. Do not neglect our word. For our word is carefully calculated and drawn forth from the Great Causal Body of the universe, and all that we give you is essential to the fulfillment of your divine plan.

Therefore, beloved ones, when you decree, when you give your calls, no matter what the subject, always visualize the heart sealed in a blazing sun of sacred fire as the sun of Helios and Vesta. And understand this teaching—that it is for the protection of the heart chakra at spiritual levels and for the focus of the threefold flame of twin flames of cosmos that the blazing sun is placed at the very center of a galaxy or a solar system at the physical level.

Beloved ones, it is a simple principle. When you establish a forcefield of intense white light, of intense burning, all-consuming sacred fire, nothing can penetrate there! You have therefore established a seat of authority, an energy momentum that nothing can oppose. There is no greater vibration in cosmos than pure, absolute sacred fire burning with the love of God, burning with the wisdom of God, burning with the power of God!

Understand that this truly and surely is your defense! And therefore to allow yourself to become concave in the doldrums of human moods and in the temptations of the fallen ones, and therefore to allow the sun of your heart to momentarily go out or to flicker or to sag, leaves you vulnerable to the fallen ones, who (I might add) wait for those moments when you are off guard and when the sun of your heart dims for want of your attention upon the light of Helios and Vesta.

Visualize the Arc from Your Heart to Helios and Vesta

Therefore, beloved Keepers of the Flame, I remind you to visualize the arc from your heart to Helios and Vesta. For your most blessed Father-Mother God, anchored within this solar system, does sustain for you that momentum of the Central Sun and has encouraged us to repeat to you this day the concept that that Sun can be yours in an instant simply by the arcing of your attention.

Only to go into your heart for a moment, to visualize your heart as a sun, to see the sun in the heavens or to visualize it there on a rainy day and to say, “Helios and Vesta, I love thee”—this is enough to establish the arc.

Over the arc will come the full-gathered momentum of that sun body, and your own heart chakra will be enveloped in that Sun Presence. Instantaneously, then, you will both deflect and consume all substance and darkness that is pitted against not only your lifestream but against every soul of light upon earth.

Be Diligent in Sustaining Harmony and the Discipline of Energy within the Temple

Precious ones, we deal with cosmic forces—cosmic forces of great light and cosmic forces bent on the destruction not only of earth, not only of the solar system, but of galaxies.

Precious ones, it is difficult for you to imagine or to understand evil intent and a harboring of evil intent in the minds of the fallen ones. I do not ask you to imagine it. I ask you to accept my word and to not dwell upon it.

I give you this word that you might have the sense of co-measurement, that you might realize that when you think that no one is watching you and you are alone with your God, beware. For the fallen ones are always watching the souls of light, our messengers, and our disciples, and they are always in the process of plotting and planning how they may unseat that one from his devotion to the Son of God.

And therefore they send the gnats of distraction—all forms of distraction that pick and pique the ego and the pride and cause you momentarily to fall like Humpty Dumpty from the wall and therefore to lose your attunement. And in that moment they deal to you the rapier thrust whereby you are set back, sometimes many cycles.

Blessed ones, the Law is clear, and you have been given the Law by the great ascended masters for many a year. We reestablish the message of the Law so that you will understand the import of our coming and that unless you apply the simple truths of the invocation of the violet flame and of your tube of light daily, of the constant reinforcement of the protection of your chakras, you dare not volunteer for cosmic service. You dare not place yourself in the equation of co-measurement with cosmic beings.

If you elect to be an outpost of the Elohim and of the Great Central Sun messengers and of the Sponsors of Youth, then I say, pass the first tests along life’s way of diligence in sustaining harmony and the discipline of energy within the temple.
