A Call for an All-Out Commitment to the Cause of Youth
Part 3

Souls of light must see with their eyes the example of Almighty God in someone. And that candle of virtue held by a single individual will remain the star of hope to that little child. Beloved hearts, every child must know someone—someone who represents the divine memory of his movement in inner planes with the ascended masters and the angelic hosts.

Our plea to you this day is that to these little children and to the teenagers of the world, and to those who are grappling with the problems of life in their twenties and preparing for the initiations of Christhood and Buddhahood, that you be that soul of virtue, that you be that example.

We wish that you could see how many have mused in their hearts, how many have written letters...

A Call for an All-Out Commitment to the Cause of Youth

Part 3

Now, beloved ones, I would mention to you something that we overheard at a class at Summit University some months ago. The Mother of the Flame assumed in her heart that everyone had experienced at some point in their lives the example of a noble and a righteous life, a person who reflected the qualities of the Christ.

She asked the question of the student body, “How many of you remember a shining one, a teacher, a friend, someone who pointed the way for you?” And she was surprised to notice that not so many raised their hand. And so she asked the question in the reverse, “How many have not met someone who pointed the way for you?” And she was astounded to see that there were souls of adult maturity who could not say that they had known a single lifestream who portrayed to them the ideals of character, of spiritual virtue, of morality, and of ascended master precepts!

Blessed ones, is it any wonder, then, that the youth cannot make their way in life? Our records show that it is true that many children growing up in this and other nations today have only the example of Hollywood stars, rock-and-roll stars, representatives in government who have betrayed them by dishonesty, and teachers and parents who have not the capacity to transfer the image of the Christ, the Buddha, or the Mother.

Be the Star of Hope to the Little Child

Blessed ones, you see the great tragedy. Souls of light must see with their eyes the example of Almighty God in someone. And that candle of virtue held by a single individual will remain the star of hope to that little child. Beloved hearts, every child must know someone—someone who represents the divine memory of his movement in inner planes with the ascended masters and the angelic hosts.

Our plea to you this day is that to these little children and to the teenagers of the world, and to those who are grappling with the problems of life in their twenties and preparing for the initiations of Christhood and Buddhahood, that you be that soul of virtue, that you be that example.

We wish that you could see how many have mused in their hearts, how many have written letters, some penned and some unpenned, in gratitude for the example of the messengers, the staff, the Keepers of the Flame, and the chelas around the world who have been to them that light and that example.

Blessed ones, I commend you and I remind you that you are on stage twenty-four hours a day. Souls of light upon earth are receiving the impression of your aura, your decision, your compromise or your refusal to compromise. And that energy is affecting the total evolution of the lightbearers upon earth.

Remember, then, that the dharma of the student of light is to be as perfect as possible in his example of the teachings without resorting to the idolatry of spiritual pride, always knowing that the perfect example is the Christ within, who is the doer, always allowing that Christ to come forth unencumbered by the adversities of the human ego and its human stubbornness.

Friendship with the World's Children
Can Become the Greatest Joy of Your Life

Blessed ones, we have come to make known to you a certain urgency, and in the presence of that urgency the dispensation of light by the reinforcement of your heart chakra, by the addition to your heart of the love of Nada.

We have come to make known to you that in the midst of the urgency there is light, and we have come to make known to you that there is a way. The way is the example. The way is the physical involvement. The way, then, is to commit yourself to a study of all that has been done by souls of light, by organizations, by churches committed to the youth of the world, to apply yourself to the causal body of the Great Divine Director, to make calls to the God and Goddess Meru and to the Committee for Child Guidance (which consists of Jesus, Kuthumi, and Mother Mary) for your understanding of your personal role.

Beloved ones, I wonder how many of you can say to yourselves today that you do not have a friend who is a child, a very personal and special friend who is a little boy or a little girl or perhaps someone who is a baby or someone who is a teenager—not merely an acquaintance, not a child that you say hello to, but someone whom you have befriended, someone who to you has become as close as heartbeat.

Beloved ones, this is what I mean by involvement. It is not enough to pass by the children and to say hello. You must understand that these are cosmic beings, some almost ascended masters in a child's body, that they are adults indeed, with the full faculties and maturity of your own flame. By the order of hierarchy, since you have preceded them in life, you must maintain the level of awareness that you are the adult and they are the child, at the same time that you realize that they represent the child within you and also the full maturity of your own God flame.

Therefore with reverence for life and with absolute respect for the Holy Child, you must realize that friendship with the world's children can become the greatest joy of your life. And when you count your friends, do count the little children, who are so adorable and so adoring and who are so devoted to you. And sometimes you scarcely notice how their hearts are pitter-pattering in anticipation of a kind word, in anticipation of your coming, your smile, or a game that you will play with them. They long for the interaction, for their souls understand the interaction of the sacred fire of the figure eight and they realize that through you there will cycle to them energies of maturity of your own causal body and of the entire spectrum of hierarchy.

Be a Shepherd of Souls but Recognize That There Is But One Teacher, and That Teacher Is God

Most beloved ones, cherish, then, these holy associations. Cherish the hours of your decrees, when you can demand the judgment of abortion and the abortionist and decree for the incoming souls. Cherish the moments when you are engaged in whatever activity is necessary for the publication of the teachings. Cherish the hours when you prepare to give your lectures. Cherish the moment when you chance to meet (but not by chance) a soul of light who will hear the Word and become it.

Above all, I desire to dispel the myth, which is held by some within this organization, that the teachings are too difficult and too advanced for the youth and therefore these ones must become private tutors and teachers to our youth, standing in the way of the messenger and allowing their shadow to come between the messenger and the youth. I say, beloved ones, you totally underestimate the ability of the soul within Christ to come into the fold of the ascended masters' teachings.

And therefore I remind you that we have not ordained other gurus or teachers within the framework of our organization, and we demand that those who have placed themselves in these positions remove themselves and that they call no group of chelas "my students." They are not your students! They are the students of the ascended masters!

We do not even consider that our messenger would be so bold as to say that they are "my students." Rather, our messenger considers only that she is the reminder and that she wears the mantle of the Guru in the place of the ascended masters for the physical octave.

Therefore, do not stand between the children and youth and their direct association with their I AM Presence and Christ Self. And leave them to the teachings as they are written. For they do comprehend the cadences of our thought and they may gain more and more by coming to our conferences and not by being kept away, by coming to our teaching centers and not by being told, "You are not yet advanced enough to go to our teaching centers or our classes. Therefore, come to me."

I say to each and every one who has, by spiritual pride, put on this mantle of being the guru: I seize it from you this day! For the judgment of the LORD God is upon you! It is you who must be chela with humility, ere you yourself miss your own ascension by the moat that is in thine own eye.

Therefore, let all come directly to the altar and to the fount of living flame. For we have ordained this open door and we have ordained the speaking and the writing of the Word by the flame of the messenger, who desires to be nothing more than the pane of glass.

I speak to some who are here and to some who are across the United States. For there are a number of individuals today who are interfering with the mandala of this organization by this activity of spiritual pride. And you will therefore hear from the Mother of the Flame directly, as I have named these individuals to her.

Beloved ones, it is a serious matter when you place yourself between a chela and the true source of light, his own God flame and the ascended masters. And you must not assume that you have suddenly put on the mantle of Teacher. Be a shepherd of souls but recognize that there is but one Teacher, and that Teacher is God.

You May Journey in Your Finer Bodies to Study the Report on the Children and Youth of Earth

Hearts of light, let the children come into the heart of the Mother. People of earth, hear our witness! For we have spoken, and all the earth bears witness this day to our presence. We have extended our allotment of energy in time and space as we have continued to converse with you for the anchoring of certain energies through your body temples through the messenger.

You have now an extraordinary light within you. You have now an energy momentum that is sufficient to the task at hand. I commend it to the keeping of your Christ Self. I commend it to the I AM Presence. And I decree that this energy will not be available to you except it be used entirely in keeping with the law of Almighty God.

Those of you who will apply to study the report on the children and youth of earth may do so to your Christ Self and to the Keeper of the Scrolls and to the God and Goddess Meru. And you may journey in your finer bodies under the dispensation of the messengers, Lanello and Mother, to the retreat at Lake Titicaca, there over the Island of the Sun.¹ You will be taken into the archives and into the great library, where you may read and study the problems, the concerns, and the entire report. And then you will have the dispensation for the transfer to your outer mind of this information, as in your waking hours you pursue this study in your own libraries and through your own facilities.

When you have amassed the necessary information, some of which has been presented to you at Soul Liberation and other conferences,² when you have entered into the alchemy of Saint Germain and his Guru, the Great Divine Director, for your personal activity with and among the youth, you will be ready for action.

The Transfer of a Tremendous Sphere of Light for the Action of the Salvation of the Youth

In this hour I seal this dictation in your heart. I seal it in your memory. I seal it as a part of your divine plan for your own ascension. I seal it as a part of the planetary mandala of lightbearers. There has been transferred to earth this day a tremendous sphere of light for the action of the salvation of the youth.

At the vanguard of this "Operation Youth" stands Saint Germain, who brought forth the first dispensation for the teenagers of America and the world through the Montessori students just six months ago.³ All of these dispensations, beloved ones, must be used by you as recipients and guardians of the flame in order that more and more light may be given.

We commend the harmony and the beauty of the souls of Montessori International and of other souls of light across the earth who indeed, from their earliest age and into their high school years, are today keeping the flame of Saint Germain. Truly, we commend the faculty and the entire organization, and especially every Keeper of the Flame and every teaching center. For deep within your hearts we read the record of your understanding of the part you play in the sustainment of this organization.

This organization at inner levels is an antahkarana of light that surrounds the earth. It is an etheric matrix. And one by one, as souls of light who are a part of that etheric matrix catch the spark and manifest the light at the physical plane, it is coming into tangible manifestation by the great spiral of life.

And therefore to all who weary not in well doing, we send strength and light and joy and hope. And to all who could do better, we send forth encouragement by our commentary today so that you might know that with a little bit of effort and a little bit more transmutation of your own human sloth, you too may be worthy, very quickly, of the commendation of the Lords of Karma. And to those who have not yet taken their place in the antahkarana, we send the thread of light as reinforcement to find the way.

Thus by the crescent of our manifestation, we enfold the whole world in our arms and in the arms of God. And within our hands we hold each little child.

Amen. Amen. Amen.

Messenger:

Let us repeat together:

Hail, Sponsors of Youth from Out the Great Central Sun!

Hail, Sponsors of Youth from Out the Great Central Sun!

Hail, Sponsors of Youth from Out the Great Central Sun!

Hail, Sponsors of Youth from Out the Great Central Sun!

For the record, I must give the description of these beings. They are of flowing, golden hair, with penetrating blue-violet eyes. Their features are of classic symmetry.

The under-robe they wear is white. The over-robe is a golden yellow. There is a sash that is ruby, which is under the golden robe and over the white robe, and it hangs down in front in a rectangle that comes to a point that is the ruby energy.

This sash is trimmed with gold—gold trim, the kind that is the fringe that trims flags. And upon this rectangular part of the belt are the symbols of the Lord Christ, the Cosmic Christ, which translated to our vision comes out as the emblem of the initials IHS.⁴

They are wearing golden sandals. And by this gold, ruby, and white, they focus (as we have been told in the dictation) the blood of Christ in the ruby, the body of Christ in the white, and the wisdom of his mind in the golden over-robe. They are magnificent beings.

During this conference the messenger delivered exposés on a wide range of topics, including the following: “The Attack on Youth: Drugs, Alcohol, Nicotine, and Sugar,” “The Manipulation of Youth: Education and Family Life,” and “The Science of Rhythm for the Mastery of the Sacred Energies of Life” (on DVD as The Power of Music to Create or Destroy). Ordering information above. (3) “Operation Youth” brought by Saint Germain refers to a program known as “Project Contact” that was initiated by Montessori International students and their mentors in the summer of 1977, in response to Saint Germain’s dictation given on June 21, 1977. (See 2021 Pearls of Wisdom, vol. 64, no. 42.) The program offered outreach training in the local communities, including a leadership seminar, a door-to-door program, public speaking and the use of the media. (4) The emblem of the initials IHS is an ancient sign taken from three Greek letters that were placed on the foreheads of those who were initiated in the Greek mysteries, signifying the cosmic and incarnate solar deity (solar Logos). In orthodox Catholic tradition, IHS became a symbol for the name “Jesus,” which is a contraction of the first three Greek letters for “Jesus” transliterated into the Latin alphabet. It was not used in this form until about the sixth century A.D.
