

Beloved Lanello

Victory's Garden Must Be Watered Part 2

You who have reconsecrated your walk with God this night, know that the defense of the family is the defense of the Holy Child, that if these undergirdings of civilization be lost, then, beloved ones, civilization will toss about upon the sea without mooring, without foundation.

Therefore, defend the integrity of the self and the reunion with God. Defend your soul's marriage unto the Most High, to one another, to the community, to the teaching, to our Brotherhood, to mother and child. Defend the circle, the hallowed circle—from the self, to the family, to the children, to the community, to the entire company of lightbearers on earth.

Blessed ones, the Lord Christ cannot extend the circle of sacred fire to include the fallen ones, and therefore be careful not to admit the fallen ones into your midst.

Victory's Garden Must Be Watered

Part 2

Beloved ones, you live in the era of the fulfillment of the rapture. You are caught up in the arms of the Son of God and in his Second Coming within you! As your Holy Christ Self intensifies the Presence in your heart, as Jesus descends into your heart, as you embrace your Lord and then through that embrace become your Lord, so the Second Coming for you is here and now, and the rapture is hoeing the hoe in the garden, washing the dishes in the kitchen, typing into the wee hours, watching as The Summit Beacon comes off the press.¹

Blessed ones, I have stood beside the blessed press and I stand beside those who understand that for them the power of the Word is the power of the press. I say, let it expand! Let it inundate the earth! And let the Word be translated to every level of human consciousness!

I call forth the translators of the Word. I call forth the Maha Chohan to give the gift of tongues unto our students, that they may translate the teaching to every form of consciousness, every level of awareness. For the teaching can be translated by the alchemy of love. Therefore, let it be a furnace.

Defend the Hallowed Circle

You who have reconsecrated your walk with God this night, know that the defense of the family is the defense of the Holy Child, that if these undergirdings of civilization be lost, then, beloved ones, civilization will toss about upon the sea without mooring, without foundation.

Therefore, defend the integrity of the self and the reunion with God. Defend your soul's marriage unto the Most High, to one another, to the community, to the teaching, to our Brotherhood, to mother and child. Defend the circle, the hallowed circle—from the self, to the family, to the children, to the community, to the entire company of lightbearers on earth.

Blessed ones, the Lord Christ cannot extend the circle of sacred fire to include the fallen ones, and therefore be careful not to admit the fallen ones into your midst. For you may forfeit your place in the mandala if you attempt to draw in those who have not the wedding garment. Rather, commend all souls unto God and be not concerned with their comings and their goings.

The Defense of the Mother Flame

My thoughts this evening are upon many subjects—the meeting in Cairo on the morrow,² close to my heart; the celebration of the mass in the Vatican; the angels winging their way to the bed of every child, having sorrow as they see the misunderstanding and the abuse of the Christ Child. My heart is with all those who have made the transition in these hours, and my heart is with you as you expand the flame to Afra.³

I must note for the record so that you might understand our mission, that the presence of the messenger geographically upon the earth is determined by cosmic law and mathematics. The change of that forcefield means that those who remain on the West Coast must be diligent in holding the balance. It is as though the sailboat had tipped almost entirely over into the wave and all must run to the other side to pull it back.

Blessed ones, in the absence of our messenger the elemental life in California experienced extreme agitation by the presence of black magic and witchcraft practiced against the children of God through the crime of abortion, through the slayings of women⁴ who have become the sacrifice by the fallen ones in preparing for the hour of the forgiveness of Eve. How the fallen ones have used certain ones to deliver, then, this pall upon the Holy City during the Christ Mass!

Let judgment be upon them! Let judgment be upon them! And let your vigil be for the rising up of the feminine ray and the raising of these souls from the tomb.

Blessed ones, it is the last-hour attempt of the fallen ones to create the image of the desecration of Woman, of her ultimate Fall, and of her death. Blessed ones, these slayings are the projections of the fallen ones upon the screen of the mass consciousness of the image of the death of the Divine Mother by murder.⁵ Now you see portrayed upon the screen of life that which took place upon Lemuria.

Beloved ones, this calls for an extraordinary defense of the Mother flame and a calling upon the law of forgiveness for those souls whose karma attracts them to this darkness, and yet some are innocent victims. And are not all innocent victims even in the face of their karma?

Blessed ones, when the messenger travels across and around the curvature of the earth, you must beware for the guarding of elemental life, who truly were in a frenzy because of the absence of the stabilizing factor of that flame that we have deposited in the heart of the Mother.

And yet upon every continent there is impending karma that must work through nature, and oftentimes the cycles of that karma are held back when the messenger is present. This works toward the suspending of the cycles as there is granted again and again grace to the evolutions of earth who continue to sin, for they know not what they do.⁶

In other instances, [this holding back of karma] works against the fulfillment of the Law, and therefore we remove the messenger so that the devotees and mankind at large may come into a direct understanding of where they stand upon the Path. And thus they are judged as though it were the dark night of the soul, for the presence of the Christed One is gone from among them and they must carry through by their own momentum and attunement with Almighty God.

The Oil of Gladness and of Grace and of Glory

Prepare, then, as though you were preparing for the dark night of the soul. Keep your lamps trimmed.⁷ Store the necessary supply of oil for each of your chakras—the oil of gladness and of grace and of glory. For gladness, grace, and glory are a triunity of energy that keeps the pinwheel of the chakras whirling with light.

Prepare, then, for it is as the initiation of your souls and the lighting of a great light upon the continent. And have mercy, I say. Have mercy upon the messenger, who goes into an area of the astral plane that must be cleared ere the earth can be raised into a glory of the New Day.

Have mercy, then, in the giving of that perpetual prayer that is the passing of the call from your lips to God for perpetual intercession, perpetual protection, grace, upliftment, upholding always the right arm of the messenger, that through her might flow the divine purpose of Almighty God.

And then raise your own right hand and say, “I AM the messenger where I AM,” and know that I will place my Electronic Presence over you to serve as the polarity in Matter for the holding of the balance of the going forth of the Mother. And therefore each of you is called to be myself—to be myself here in the Holy City.

If you will do this each time the Mother is absent, you will find that the figure-eight cycle of her energy and my own through you will create the balance whereby elemental life will be kept in harmony and protected from their disillusionment and the dissonance that ensues by evil practices everywhere apparent on the screen of life.

This is the key I give to you for the holding of the balance of the earth. And in order to do this, I ask that you take the dictations given through me, and my lectures, so that you will become familiar with my electronic pattern through the voice, the intonation, the cadences, and the dispensations of the Brotherhood themselves.

A Christmas Package for Each One of You

This is my instruction to you, and it is my Christmas gift in the outer. But on the inner planes in our retreat, in our castle on the Rhine,⁸ we invite you to come (in the few hours that are left to you to rest this night) to be refreshed and to find beneath the tree a package marked with your name.

Each one may come and find his own and sit gleefully as a child to open the package and to find that precious, thoughtful gift of our hearts, the perfect gift for each one of you—a sacred remembrance of your victorious embodiments, a little book telling the story of our togetherness in the ages, a precious token for the future, and a secret reminder of those little energies on which you sometimes stub your toes!

[Audience laughs.]

And so in your package you will find a practical joke from Lanello [laughter] to remind you that if you are to withdraw all extremities, each little finger and toe, into the white-fire core of being, then you will have to know—know yourself better this year than you did in the year before.

Beloved ones, life is very real on the etheric plane, and each one of you carries on an alternative existence in the etheric octave with those of whom you are presently aware and with your cohorts of light in other parts of the earth, many of whom could not understand or accept you in the outer but with whom you are one on the inner. In the etheric octave, then, we have much activity and much preparation for our daily service.

And so to sleep, to sleep, my child, not forever and a day but for moments and moments and again, until you find that that rest in action becomes a transmutation and a transportation of your soul to a fairy wonderland of snow and stars and magic wands of fairy goddess.

And so you see, the hope of life and the vision that you bring to the here and now is because somewhere in your soul the bells do ring—the ring of the chimes in the steeple in the etheric octaves and the trooping of the children and the tiny elementals in the laughter and the play of the springtime and the frolicking in the sacred-fire snow, throwing snowballs of sacred fire and pretending it is cold. [Laughter]

Beloved ones, we do have fun, and fun we will have. For fun is the essence of the sacred fire united in you and me.

My hearts, my home, I am grateful for your gift to me, the most precious gift—your life upon the altar and your comfort of my blessed ones.

It is indeed a happy birthday. And by and by after many birthdays—ho, ho, ho—they will be saying that Lanello is a hundred and one and a hundred thousand and one.

[Laughter] Indeed, they will see me with my beard and wonder if behind the beard the twinkle in the eye of Santa is not Lanello with another mask.

I bid you now to your own future, a cycle so vast as you can scarcely conceive of yourself becoming the Child of God, the Flaming One.
