A Report from the Lords of Karma

Part 1

Most beloved sons and daughters of God, I come representing the Lords of Karma. I come representing Almighty God. I stand in your midst to deliver to you a very important release of the sacred fire. But I must ask that there be silence in this hall, and therefore will those who have the coughs that have been mentioned by the messenger now remove themselves so that we may deliver our address.

[1-minute 25-second pause]

We bless you for your understanding of the delicate thread of contact twixt the hierarchy and the messenger and for your understanding that all that we desire to release this day is somewhat taxing to the vehicles of the messenger, and we desire the optimum conditions to deliver to you the light that is necessary for your understanding of the complexity of world conditions.

We have made many studies throughout this year, and our deliberations concerning the dispensation of light and concerning the uses and misuses of power are before us.

I come to deliver the law of righteousness. I come to deliver an equation of light. I come centering in the will of your heart flame, and I AM in the mantle of my beloved Saint Germain.

The Adjustment of Cycles Due to the Abortion of Life

The Lords of Karma must balance opportunity for light, for expansion, and opportunity for the balance of karma, opportunity for mankind to receive the teachings of the ascended masters, opportunity for the demonstration of the Law. We must consider justice for the fallen ones as well as for the innocent children of God, who in their pursuit of the laggard generation have quickly lost a great deal of innocence in this generation.

Ours is to consider the abortion of life and to determine how to adjust the cycles of karma so that these souls—these Christs from out the Great Central Sun for whom you have called for so long and who have been sent to you—might re-enter the birth canal and be born to serve their cosmic purpose.

Beloved ones, to adjust and adjust again the cycles for the appearance of the lightbearers is one of the greatest challenges to the Lords of Karma. Greater than any other is the reallocation of the allotment of energy for the millions of souls who are aborted annually. And we project into the future, as do those among your public servants who analyze the cycles of population and of world and national conditions in the decades ahead.

It is clear that with the abortion of life ere twenty years have passed, there will be many more individuals of older age in this nation than there are of the younger generation to support not only the work force and the armies and the navies and all those who are necessary to continue education, but also to support those who can no longer work because of age.

There is such an imbalance in the karmic pattern and the mandala of the earth at stake* in this hour that we can scarcely address ourselves to world conditions or render a report without prefacing our report by stating that this condition is that which makes difficult the resolving of all other conditions upon the planetary body.

Add to this the fact that the many wars that have taken place in this century have also dislocated life and the plan of life, and you can see that in summation we must say that earth and her evolutions are becoming further and further out of alignment with the will of God, even while a remnant of light-bearers that appear on the screen of life as a golden-thread lining of all of this [sentence incomplete due to interruption].

There is, then, a remnant, the golden thread as the golden lining of world consciousness, of souls who sense the darkening consciousness and the removal of this lifewave from the center of the will of God. These souls are accelerating God consciousness in greater measure than that which has been accomplished by a group of souls in many thousands of years. And so it is that the juxtaposition of Light and of Darkness presents greater light, greater darkness, and again the problem in the center—of which way elemental life, which way humanity.

A Single Candle May Illumine a Vast Darkness

We come with great trust in our hearts for the chelas of the ascended masters and a mounting determination, which we observe as manifest in more practical action for the victory, a more practical determination, and a more practical involvement. This represents a great stepping up of light and the stepping down of that light into more dense levels of consciousness and into the daily life of millions.

The exposure of the teachings, the exposure of the messenger, and the exposure of the disciples to more and more people is a factor that has weighed heavily in certain dispensations that have been granted by the Cosmic Council.

Beloved ones, in this connection may I remind you that a single candle may illumine a vast darkness. And therefore always as we judge, it is not numbers but the quality of the purity of life—the quality of the purity of life in the single individual.

Witness the great light that came to earth through Jesus Christ and Gautama Buddha. Witness, then, that as we see this same light being born within you, we can adjust planetary karma, we can adjust planetary cycles, but not all.

And here is the dilemma—that the judgment is meted upon those who have misused the light, that the fallen ones are coming to the judgment, and that [those among] mankind who have sold themselves to the fallen ones will also be called to the judgment in the same spiral.

And thus in the midst of drought, in the midst of imbalance in the nature kingdom, in the midst of imbalance in the economy, we find that souls of light have a vast opportunity to accelerate their progress on the path of initiation, and thus our God has preserved the open door intact for a season.

As Gautama Buddha has brought the message of the ten-year dispensation,<sup>1</sup> so we ourselves, in making our determination and in deliberating, also consider that this ten-year expanse of time and space will also be filled with a greater and greater number of souls coming into the awareness of the teaching and applying that law. We say this, for we see at inner levels the inner vows that people have made.

Apropos this, beloved ones, let us state that the more practical the teaching that can be delivered in lectures and in the written word, the more individuals who must rely on this contact will be led into the flame. I ask you, then—one and all who have talent to speak and to write—to deliver information on the teachings and on specific subjects of social issues, problems of government, and to put this in writing in the most simple and practical form.

Take Fortright Action

Let there be formed committees of those who are a part of the great field of Keepers of the Flame with many talents, and let these committees begin to organize and to sort the information on social issues, which we already have given forth. Many statements, such as the statement made by the messenger on the conspiracy and by General Keegan on the subject of America's defense,<sup>2</sup> must be put together, organized, researched, and then become the topic for discussion and for action.

The Lords of Karma stand behind you, and we demand that you take forthright action. There is no reason why you ought to lack courage if your leaders lack courage. When you have information in hand that is documented by an individual who has held one of the most important and key posts in the military service of America, I tell you, beloved ones, it is time that you go personally to your senators, your congressmen, your representatives at the state, local, and national level. You present the information, present the cassettes, present the law, and state: "We are the people. We are the government of this nation. If you refuse to expose this lie and expose this truth, we will organize and we will see to it that in the next election your name is written as one who has refused to look at the facts necessary for the defense of America."

Beloved ones, this is a part of the Coming Revolution. It is not enough to suggest. It is not enough to send a letter. It is time to say, "Almighty God has vested the power within us, and we have transferred that power to our elected representatives. When our elected representatives cease to represent our will, then we must recall these representatives and recall our free will, which we have transferred into their hands."

Beloved ones, it is time for you to amass a coalition of lightbearers from every walk of life on this single issue of America's defense. For we observe the record and we know that ere a decade has passed, the Soviet Union herself will place herself in position militarily in a more aggressive stance than she has held for many decades. Beloved ones, it will be the most aggressive position that she has ever held since the Communist takeover of Russia. And, beloved hearts, to gain such a measure of independence and of ability comes entirely because of the cowardice of the leaders not only of this nation but of all of the Western powers.

All that will come as debacle and degradation upon this earth will be laid at the doorstep of those who today are in positions of power and yet do not read the handwriting on the wall, who ignore the information that is given to them and keep on smiling before an ignorant public.

Beloved ones, therefore from this angle the situation in the world today is extremely grave. We must inform you that there is no way that the Lords of Karma can back the President of the United States.<sup>3</sup> There is not a single decision that has been made that is based on an absolute reality or an acknowledgment of the envoys of our Brotherhood—envoys that we have personally sent to the Oval Office with this and other vital information, which is not yet disclosed to you or to your messenger. The turning aside of those who come representing our hierarchy must be seen as the sign of the turning away of hierarchy itself.

Beloved ones, we are not for or against persons, but we back individuals who embody principles of cosmic law, who have the flame of courage and who have the vitality to truly give their life for their country. There is an inner requirement for one who will hold office in this nation, and it is fearlessness before every threat. It is fearlessness, and it is the requirement that Jesus has set forth—that he who seeks to save his life will lose it.<sup>4</sup> The individual who holds the lives of millions of Americans within his hands cannot be one who fears to lose his life, though he send many a youth upon the battlefield to the fodder of war.

The Worst Thing You Can Do Is to Do Nothing

Beloved hearts of light, I come, then, with an indictment of many leaders and not one, and I come with a mandate for the people. I take to you, then, and I deliver to you the inner scroll that is the report of the Lords of Karma. It contains detailed information concerning many areas, which are too lengthy to be enumerated—the question of the Panama Canal, the question of Cuban troops in Africa, the question of the rights of dissidents in the Soviet Union, the question of the manipulation of the economies of the nations, the question of child abuse and its ignorance, the question of the Supreme Court and its members, who yet have failed to proclaim the right to life of the unborn child,<sup>5</sup> and on and on and on.

The list is too numerous. But the darkness grows, and the challenging of that darkness must come by your own systematic examination of the problems at hand. For you already have at your fingertips enough ascended master law and enough awareness of conditions whereby you yourselves can enter into the mainstream of action for the Coming Revolution.

The worst thing you can do is to do nothing, and the best thing you can do is to first organize yourselves and to see where a certain quotient of your energy spent for action will do the most good, where your voice will count the most.

It is important that you align yourselves with individuals who are already taking a stand for the teachings of Christ and of the Great White Brotherhood and thereby partake of their own political acumen and their expertise in these subjects. For many, many fine souls have a much greater awareness than many of you, and you ought to benefit, then, by the work and the research that they have done. And whether or not they are aware of it, they ought to be the beneficiaries of your decrees and your contact with hierarchy.

Let there be an interchange, and let there not be a burdening of these souls with too much teaching. For after all, it is action and the action at hand that is important. If we can agree with many lightbearers across the spectrum of religion and politics and science on single points at issue, we can make our mark of victory. But if all must be of a single persuasion, then America alas will remain divided, and more so the other nations of the earth.

The Spineless, Lightless Leaders Must Be Replaced

Beloved hearts of light, I address you concerning your own spiritual evolution and your own fearlessness. Wherever individuals have compromised their character there is a weakening of the energies that flow in the spine. The spinal fluid has a corresponding fluid of light, and the rising of the caduceus cannot occur except this spiritual energy be present. When we speak of people who are spineless, who are weak, we are speaking of those who have not the ray and the thrust of Alpha to keep them determined and filled with the power and the light that would enable them to challenge all darkness. This is what has happened to the leadership in America.

The misuses of sex, of the sacred fire, the love of money, the love of power, ambition, all of these have weakened the individual and the power of his voice to speak the word of God. Your leaders fear to challenge even Fidel Castro of Cuba, who is powerless to do anything against this nation except power be given unto him by your leaders. And yet this same one has extended troops to the continent of Africa,<sup>6</sup> to the great desecration of lightbearers who are fighting for their countries and for their soil and for their liberty.

Beloved ones, there is a great lack of courage in the Senate, in the Congress, in the cabinet. The lack of courage is so great that day by day these spineless ones, these lightless ones, are ushering in a great crisis, a crisis far greater than you can imagine or that I can enumerate today.

Suffice it to say that one by one the individuals in these posts must be replaced, and lightbearers of every religious persuasion—who have the inner conviction of their own potential to be one with God and to serve God—must come forward, must replace these individuals. There must be an organization and there must be the backing of the sons and daughters of God.

“The Summit Lighthouse Sheds Its Radiance o'er All the World to Manifest as Pearls of Wisdom.” This previously unpublished dictation by Portia was delivered by the Messenger of the Great White Brotherhood Elizabeth Clare Prophet on Sunday, January 1, 1978, during the God Is Mother conference, held in Pasadena, California. Part 2 of this Pearl of Wisdom is published in this volume, no. 6. Any books listed in the following endnotes are published by Summit University Press and are by Mark L. Prophet and/or Elizabeth Clare Prophet unless otherwise noted. Books, audio, and video products are available at <https://Store.SummitLighthouse.org>. The widest selection of audio files, including dictations, are available at www.AscendedMasterLibrary.org. [N.B. Bracketed words have been added for clarity in the written word.] (1) The ten-year dispensation. In a dictation given on May 3, 1977, Gautama Buddha stated that “the Lord Buddha has extended to you as the people of God one decade for the turning of the tide. . . for the spreading abroad of the teachings, for the contacting of hundreds of thousands of souls. . . . After the decade has passed from this hour there is no guarantee forthcoming from the Lords of Karma. . . that the tide can any longer be turned from the fate that has been plotted by the dark ones.” See 1978 Pearls of Wisdom, vol. 21, nos. 28 and 29. (2) The statements made by the messenger and General Keegan. Major General George Keegan

(1921–1993) served as Chief of Air Force Intelligence from 1972 to 1977 and was recognized as one of the top military experts on the former Soviet Union and its strategic goals. On July 3, 1978, an address was given by General Keegan titled, “A Global Strategy for the Defense of Free Nations: A Ten-Year Plan.” At the conclusion of this address, Elizabeth Clare Prophet summarized some of the major recommendations General Keegan made. She said: “It is our deep conviction that [the] power of God backing a firm military posture of defense, a sound education, a reevaluation of our morals, to resurrect a creative science in America, getting our economy on a sound basis of the abundant life taught by Jesus Christ, the practice of that economy by people who understand that the golden rule has to be the standard. . . . When you have that standard. . . we will not have monopolies and multinational corporations and deceptions and collusion between big governments and big industry. . . . And that ethic of work is the foundation of a creative economy, a golden-rule standard economy.” Both the messenger in her lectures and General Keegan warned of the danger of Soviet military buildup and the necessity of a strong U.S. defense policy. (There is no audio available of this event.) (3) The President of the United States. Jimmy Carter was in office as president from January 20, 1977, to January 20, 1981. (4) Luke 17:33. (5) The Supreme Court on the right to life of the unborn. On June 22, 1973, the United States Supreme Court issued its decision in the case of Roe v. Wade, which legalized abortion nationwide with a 7–2 vote. The decision to deny life to the unborn was based on an implied constitutional right to privacy. The court also ruled that the unborn child is not included in the definition of a “person” as protected under the Constitution. This decision was reversed by the Supreme Court on June 24, 2022, permitting the states to rule that abortion is illegal. (6) Fidel Castro of Cuba extended troops to the continent of Africa. Former Cuban president Fidel Castro (1926–2016) sent troops to Angola in support of Marxist guerilla leader Agostinho Neto in 1975, and in 1977 he sent troops to assist Communist leader Mengistu Haile Mariam in Ethiopia. Cuban military support for Marxist liberation movements continued until the 1980s.
