Love, the Fulfilling of the Law of the Crucifixion
Part 2

Beloved ones of light, beloved ones of the infinite light of God that never fails, I release to you the mysteries of God. But ere you will have the fullness of the understanding of these mysteries, you must take these lessons in cosmic geometry into your own heart.

You must assimilate them as you assimilate the body and blood of Christ. You must assimilate cosmic consciousness, and you must understand that even the words that we speak, which are the words of the Holy Ghost out of the fiery core of your being—even these words are the representations and the extensions of a light emanation.

Therefore take the Word and follow the Word right back to the source of being. Follow that Word back to the core and you will discover that behind the worded release is even a greater mystery than the Word itself.

Love, the Fulfilling of the Law of the Crucifixion

Part 2

Beloved ones of light, beloved ones of the infinite light of God that never fails, I release to you the mysteries of God. But ere you will have the fullness of the understanding of these mysteries, you must take these lessons in cosmic geometry into your own heart. You must assimilate them as you assimilate the body and blood of Christ. You must assimilate cosmic consciousness, and you must understand that even the words that we speak, which are the words of the Holy Ghost out of the fiery core of your being—even these words are the representations and the extensions of a light emanation.

Therefore take the Word and follow the Word right back to the source of being. Follow that Word back to the core and you will discover that behind the worded release is even a greater mystery than the Word itself. And these mysteries it is not lawful for a man or a master to utter, for these are the mysteries that must be discovered in and of the Self.

And so the line becomes a coil and a spiral of energy, and as you follow that coil back to the white-fire core of being, so you will have traversed that line, and the line itself will cease to exist. And you will say, “But alas, how will we discover the coordinate and the point of the sine wave and the point of the meeting of Spirit and Matter?”

And I will say to you, it is ever a shifting point. For in each occasion when you ascend to the heights of God consciousness and then descend into the depths of Matter to prove that consciousness, there is a shifting of the entire cosmic scale. For by the penetration, by the velocity of light, by the acceleration, so the momentum into God does accelerate; so the momentum into Matter does accelerate—Spirit/Matter, Spirit/Matter, within and without.

And therefore the entire evolution of the sine wave is as a movement, just as you have calculated the movements of cosmos, of solar systems, of your own sun, and even as you can understand that the relativity of these movements one to the other, as the orbiting of the planets and the orbiting of suns and the expanding of a cosmos, is yet plotted upon a curve. And the dimensions and the coordinates and the understanding of the mathematics governing these energies is yet beyond the understanding of your scientists because they themselves have not taken the plunge into the infinite and they have not balanced the mastery of the Matter cosmos with their own God-mastery in the Spirit cosmos.

The Initiation upon the Cross on Good Friday

And so, beloved ones, you see that when you have passed through the spiral that appears as the line, you arrive at the point of the mystical rose, the rose unfolding within your heart. And then you will see that the coordinate of infinity, the coordinate of Spirit and Matter, the coordinate of the coming and the going of the soul in the Self is truly the eternal light, the Christ within your own heart.

And thus, beloved ones, when you have the greatest challenges of mastery, when you have the greatest challenges to put forth the maximum light of cosmos, you will find that all outer coordinates will dissolve, all of the props will be removed, and you will stand with only one direction, one compass, one point, one star, and it will be the star of your own Christ Presence.

And, beloved ones, this initiation comes only to those who have the attainment in that Christ light. It does not come to those who are not yet able to sustain identity because they have never even considered that the glory of the only begotten Son does dwell within them.

And so the initiation upon the cross on Good Friday, as it has been told to you, “Father, Father, my God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?”<sup>1</sup> is the cry of the Son of God who stands suspended within the matrix of his own Christ consciousness. All other coordinates, all other friends of light ascended and unascended, are remote now, as the individual Son of God faces that supreme test to be at that point of light in the nexus of the cross of Alpha and Omega.

Beloved ones, these teachings are most practical, most real, most down to earth, and yet they sound as the great mysteries and as the mysteries of far-off worlds. Beloved ones, these are the very initiations through which you are passing day by day. Beloved ones, these are the initiations that we are giving to you as we give to you your dictations, your initiations, the lectures, and all of the glory of the joy and praise in song and dynamic decree.

All of this as a release of light through your own chakras, by your own self-effort, is calculated to release the spirals of the Sun from the many levels, temples, churches of being to whom the Lord Christ directed his message in the Book of Revelation.

The Gradual Process of Initiation Whereby You Stand and Affirm Your God-Victory

The messages to the seven churches<sup>2</sup> are the vibrations and the frequencies of light, of infinity, of infinitude, of Alpha and Omega in the white-fire core of being releasing through the nexus of the Christ consciousness that formula, that fohat, that key, that geometry whereby the spinning of the worlds and the wheels of the Law within you takes place whereby the great systems of worlds from out the Great Central Sun do come forth. And beloved ones, in the fullness of time and space, when time and space are no longer, great galaxies of light actually pass through the chakras of the sons and daughters of God and you find your congruency with starry bodies and with energy systems far too vast and too intense for the understanding of mere mortals.

Beloved ones, I say “mere mortals,” and I do not refer to your blessed selves. Beloved ones, the mere mortal is the individual who has the concept of himself merely as an instrument of the law of mortality, of the laws of death, decay, and degeneration, and of time and space. The mere mortals are those who have but that fragment of awareness that is called mortal existence and who have never contemplated the great boundaries of the habitation of the Most High God within themselves.

Precious ones of light, to even touch the hem of the garment of the teachings of the Lord Christ given in this age through the ascended masters is for you to find yourself translated out from the veils of mortality into the dimensions of immortality.

I bring to you the awareness that though it seems as though you are functioning yet in these planes and in these vibrations, many of you—though you do not realize it because the transcendence is so gradual—are actually functioning at various levels of the etheric plane while you are yet in your physical temple, various levels of release from the binding energies of time and space and from the matrices of death.

Beloved ones, I tell you this not as entertainment but as a point and a means whereby you can guard your consciousness and realize that the passing from the physical unto the emotional, mental, and etheric plane is the gradual process of initiation, and every level of attainment that is gained is a plateau upon which you stand and affirm your God-victory and claim that point of God-reality.

To Be a Career Son or Daughter of God

Beloved ones, there are many among you who have a certain attainment in the Matter dimensions, and for want of your confirmation of that attainment by Spirit's energies—for want of your acceleration of your being to the plane, the new plane of the mind of God—you have not, therefore, manifested the corresponding light and the corresponding victory. And therefore you stand to lose the attainment of the Matter plane because the Matter plane cannot be sustained, nor its attainment, nor its light, without that balance in the white-fire core of being—all of this because you do not understand the nature of attainment itself.

And perhaps some of you consider that having excellence in the fields of this world does not count. Well, beloved ones, indeed it does count. It counts more than you realize. For in becoming the fullness of the light of the seven rays, you must have that discipline and that understanding.

Did not Jesus show forth his mastery of the release of the prophets and of the teachings of the Old Testament and of the teachings of the retreats of the Great White Brotherhood?<sup>3</sup>

Beloved ones, Jesus, our Lord and Master, was a diligent student not only in his final incarnation but in many incarnations. He was indeed a career son of God. He was a professional in the field of becoming the Christ. He was the supreme scientist, psychologist, doctor, lawyer, teacher, and friend of man.

Beloved ones, he attained to that level not by some sudden miracle. He attained to that level by effort, by movement, by choosing, by free will, and by the realization that every area of human endeavor has its disciplines, and these disciplines are intended to be the replica of those areas of divine endeavor that are being pursued in the etheric octaves and in the ascended master octaves.

Therefore there is a need and there is a call and there is a dimension for those who are the professionals, those who are the career sons and daughters of God. Within this very movement we have need of those who have more than simply willing hearts, those who have willing hands. We have need of those who will to be trained, to receive the tutoring, and those who understand that for every accomplishment in Matter there must be a corresponding accomplishment in Spirit, else the sine wave will not be complete and the past-perfect and the future-perfect will not conjoin in the now. And in the moment of the call and in the moment of the hour when all should come together, you will find yourself wanting and you will say, "Well, what happened? We were ready but it didn't come to pass."

Well, beloved ones, it did not come to pass because you neglected your inner spiritual forcefield. You neglected the sharpening of the mind and heart and the energies of life. When you should have plunged into the Great Central Sun for that re-creation of the soul and that sharpening of the faculties of the mind, you were elsewhere in time and space. And correspondingly, when you should have taken the plunge into Matter for the mastery of those dimensions, you were elsewhere in time and space.

And therefore there are some among you who have the emphasis of the great blazing, dazzling sun of the Spirit and yet who are not well qualified even in the spoken Word, even in giving forth the teaching, even in the simplest disciplines of your lifestream so that you might offer yourself upon the altar of the community. And yet what glories there are in your great bodies of light, what glories in the kingdom of God!

And so, beloved ones, we must look to the entire mystical body of God upon earth. We must look to you and we must look to one another to provide the balance. As you look to the ascended masters to provide the grace, so the ascended masters look to the chelas to provide those qualities and conditions whereby the Word itself might be expressed to the greatest advantage, to the greatest understanding and awareness and the teaching of souls.

The Great Cosmic Interchange of Love

And so, beloved ones, let us come together in the reason, in the Logos of the Lord. Come now and let us reason together at that point of contact, that point of God-reality, the eternal Now.

Let us take the great harvest and the fruits of the Matter plane of those who have spent many incarnations developing the genius of these octaves, and let us take those who have spent their emphasis upon the genius of the Spirit. And let there be the call now for the great cosmic interchange of love, and let the causal bodies and the momentums of all souls gathered here and all lightbearers upon earth become as one.

Beloved ones, do you hold your attainment, your skill, your discovery, and your service as something that is a secret that you may sell at a price to others?

Well, beloved ones, then you are not ready for the community of the Holy Spirit. For here in the community of the sons and daughters of God, every ascended master lays upon the altar that genius, that science, that invention, that noble work of art, and it is there upon the altar of God, which is become the altar of the people for the use of all.

And so, beloved ones, if you feel a momentary sense of loss to think that your attainment might now become the property of the many, well, consider once again that that attainment in itself is God's energy on loan to you. And God has exacted a price for the loan of that energy, and the price is the dissemination of the glory, the dissemination of science, invention, and genius by the Lord Jesus unto all peoples, kindreds, nations, and tongues.

Beloved ones, even the inner meaning of the word Jesus is that of the genius of the Christ brought to its apex. This is our desire. This is the desire of the Lord Jesus in this life—that you yourselves will come together and represent the apex of achievement, the eye in the capstone of the pyramid whereby you individually and you collectively as a community of the Holy Spirit will show what will happen when each individual Christed one will bring to that altar, to that community—as a part of the garment of God and the garland of Mary, even as the lilies of the field bring forth their glory unto the resurrection of every son of God by joint effort, by the attainment of Gautama Buddha and the unascended chela—they will bring that noble effort, that cause made manifest in the point of the now.

It Is the Hour to Return to the LORD, the I AM THAT I AM, That Which Has Been Given unto You

Beloved ones, what is the point of the now? The point of the now is when the individual disciple, the seeker after God, enters the auditorium, enters the cathedral of the heart and beholds the Christ face-to-face for the very first time. This is the now. And the now is repeated again and again in each joy, in each encounter, in each loving embrace, in each new interchange of the love mysteries of God.

Now I call for that cosmic interchange, and I call to all sons and daughters of God who will hear my voice. I, John, standing in the midst of the new heaven and the new earth,<sup>4</sup> call forth all souls of light in heaven and in earth.

This is the hour of the harvest. This is the hour of the return of the LORD, who gave unto his servants, some of them a talent, some five talents, some ten talents for multiplication.<sup>5</sup> This is the hour of the return of your own Christ Self to see what you have made of these talents and how you have multiplied them. It is the hour to return to the LORD, the I AM THAT I AM, that which has been given unto you, and that multiplied with the interest of Cosmic Christ consciousness.

And therefore let the causal bodies of the saints of Church Universal and Triumphant, the mystical body of God in heaven and on earth, bring together now all of the light and the glory of their ascended light bodies and of the causal body of God. For in reality, beloved ones, before you can become the fullness of the light of God through the ascension, it is this causal body itself that you will lay upon the altar and that you will realize is now become a part of the great universal causal body of the universal God.

And so each and every one of you, in making invocation unto the LORD God Almighty for gifts and graces of the Spirit, is actually calling upon the combined momentum and attainment of the entire Holy Spirit of the Great White Brotherhood. And there has come to you on many occasions the virtues, the light, the talent, and the energy that have actually reached the kingdom of God, the causal body of God, by the individual effort of the embodied sons and daughters.

The Mighty Eagle Formation of Sons and Daughters of God

Now, therefore, unto those who are still seeking the fullness of the balance of Spirit and Matter in consonance with the Word and the decree of the Lords of Karma, I call forth the gathering of the cloud of witness and the great causal bodies of the ascended hosts as they hover over this canopy of light.

And now I call at the signal of the Lord Christ for the great cosmic interchange whereby, as Above so below, the fruit of the Spirit will be manifest in the point of the now, the point of your heart, the point of the rose and of the cosmic cross of white fire.

In a moment of silence and of stillness, now absorb light of Spirit, light of Mater, light purified, light sealed, light become light within you. [33-second pause]

O Mighty Blue Eagle from Sirius, great configuration of angelic hosts, descend into the temple America on this day, Good Friday, in the hour of the coming of the Lord Christ to the point of the eternal Now.

The ascended hosts of light have vowed the intercession of their eternal light bodies, and the Mighty Blue Eagle from Sirius is the sign of the extension of light from the Four and Twenty Elders. It is the sign of the descent into the heart of America of the mighty eagle formation of sons and daughters of God.

As this formation of the great eagle is in spirit a company of lightbearers, so it will remain hovering over America as the etheric blueprint of the formation of the bands of unascended disciples who will come together, first as the thousands and the tens of thousands, and ultimately as the 144,000, forming the mandala of the Mighty Blue Eagle and therefore the fulfillment of the prophecy, "Wheresoever the body is, there will the eagles be gathered together."<sup>6</sup> This Corpus Christi, this body of God, this light emanation, will be witnessed by the Eagle Above, the eagle below.

Now, therefore, let your attainment be in Spirit and in Matter by the great discipline of the eagle consciousness of the emissaries of light—of the will, the wisdom, and the love of God. And let your plunge into the infinite Spirit and your plunge into the infinite Mater be the coming and the going, the coming and the going of the mighty eagles and their gathering in the hour of the age of Aquarius.

I stand a brother of light in the fullness of love. Let love be your discipline. Let it be your chastisement. And let it be your dissolving into the bliss of God. By the dissolving of the lesser self unto the Greater Self you will know who you are. And until you know who you are, you will not therefore exercise the fullness of the gift of free will.

Pursue self-knowledge, and in the knowing of the Self, choose the eternal Now and know forevermore the movement of the spiral of being into the dimensions of heaven and earth until your cosmos, your very cosmos becomes the point of witness. And I, John, saw a new heaven and a new earth.

In the name of the Father, the Mother, the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, Amen.

"The Summit Lighthouse Sheds Its Radiance o'er All the World to Manifest as Pearls of Wisdom." This previously unpublished dictation by John the Beloved was delivered by the Messenger of the Great White Brotherhood Elizabeth Clare Prophet on Friday, March 24, 1978, during The Second Coming of Christ conference, held in Pasadena, California. Part 1 of this Pearl of Wisdom is published in this volume, no. 15. (1) Matt. 27:46; Mark 15:34. (2) See Rev. 2, 3. (3) The four Gospels demonstrate that Jesus was very learned in the scriptures of the Old Testament and other apocalyptic texts, such as the Book of Enoch. Jesus often quotes Old Testament scripture in explaining his actions and in his confrontations with his opponents. He also quotes scriptural passages to establish that the events surrounding his mission are the fulfillment of Old Testament prophecy. Many of Jesus' statements in the Gospels parallel passages in the Book of Enoch, showing his familiarity with the text. In addition to the Hebrew scriptures, Jesus studied Hindu and Buddhist texts in their original languages during his sojourn in the East, prior to his Palestinian mission. (4) Rev. 21:1. ## THE RADIANT WORD

Excerpt from a dictation by Sanat Kumara, published as Pearl of Wisdom, vol. 22, no. 21, May 27, 1979*

To be crucified with him is to be with him on the Ruby Cross in the death of the human ego and in the life of the Divine Ego. To be crucified with him is to be with him in the alchemy of self-transcendence whereby this mortal shall put on immortality and this corruptible shall put on incorruption. To be crucified with him is to be sealed with him, the chela with the Guru, in the tomb of Spirit/Matter.

This tomb is the ruby cube suspended as the sarcophagus within the King's Chamber of the Great Pyramid. Within the center of the ruby cube, suspended at the two-thirds level where the fire burns brightly, the crucified one declares to thy soul:

I in thou and thou in me
Before Resurrection's Spirit we bow,
Thou in me and I in thee
To Resurrection's Flame we vow.
I in the Father, the Father in me
Now, O soul, we make our abode with thee.
Come forth, O Threefold Flame of Life,
Be now the resurrection of the Lamb
Within the Lamb's wife.
Come forth, O light of immortality,
Consume the dark of that mortality.
Descend, O Spirit of Living Fire,
Thou Incorruptible One!
Descend, consume all death desire
Snuff out the corruptible one.

To be crucified with him is to be with him this day in paradise in the bliss of Alpha and Omega within the nexus of the Rose Cross. To be crucified with him is to be the instrument of the water, the blood, and the wine unto the initiates of the sacred fire processioning to the Sphinx, the Great Guru in Taurus. It is to teach the mastery of the self, the soul in the Christ, in the physical (earth) body.
