The Regenerative Powers of Universal Love

In the stillness of your hearts I AM come. In the stillness of your consciousness we create reverence for the immortal spark, the regenerative power that is within ye all.

We summon from the four corners of the earth the devotees of the Sacred Heart of God, who understand the need to breathe the air of the Holy Spirit and the truth that the Holy Spirit brings into manifestation.

Fear and doubt and the troubles of humankind are themselves barriers to divine realization, but the light of the reality of God within your heart is able to shatter the illusions of self and to proclaim to mankind everywhere that the strength of the earth is in the soul of those who understand the need to awaken the senses of the soul and the perceptions thereof, that they may once again drink of the waters of immortal life.

The Regenerative Powers of Universal Love

In the stillness of your hearts I AM come. In the stillness of your consciousness we create reverence for the immortal spark, the regenerative power that is within ye all.

We summon from the four corners of the earth the devotees of the Sacred Heart of God, who understand the need to breathe the air of the Holy Spirit and the truth that the Holy Spirit brings into manifestation.

Fear and doubt and the troubles of humankind are themselves barriers to divine realization, but the light of the reality of God within your heart is able to shatter the illusions of self and to proclaim to mankind everywhere that the strength of the earth is in the soul of those who understand the need to awaken the senses of the soul and the perceptions thereof, that they may once again drink of the waters of immortal life.

Think ye that it is the desire of any ascended being to see mankind wallow in the ignorance of deceit? To continue to be self-deceived? To hold themselves in a conception of imperfection, when the regenerative powers of universal love from the farthest reaches of space are magnificently conveying to the earth those crested jewels of immortal perfection that will enable each soul to summon that faith for himself that will shatter his sense of limitation and enable him to do the things that I have done and the things that ye can do and to imbue mankind with faith once again?

This is at a time in the history of creation when the world is continually pained by outer manifestation and the fact that they have vacated from their consciousness the sublime sense of universal reality that relates one's identity to the Father.

It has been said that I spake long ago, saying, "I and my Father are one."¹ And the unity of the Father with the son is today a necessary ingredient in the initiatic perfection, which the spiritual seeker must call forth and evoke from on high if he is to manifest the power to shatter the bonds of illusion and to feel that he is once again victor over sense consciousness and mortality.

For the flow of mortality is a flow of illusion from one type of confusing manifestation to another. But the flow of Reality is the power of light that comes into mankind not only through the heart but through the eye of the Spirit, known of old to the ancients as the spiritual eye in the center of the forehead, the door of ingress where spiritual power does flow and create the star-fire of manifestation that reveals the magnificence of the threefold flame pattern—the pink of divine love, the blue of the holy will, and the glow of the golden flame of illumination.

Christed perfection in these three primary-color ingredients is that which enables individuals to create the seamless garment of light around about themselves and to have the power to cast out the entities of imperfection that are constantly whispering into the ears of mankind those stultifying words that make mankind shrivel. And the seed of reality within dries up and there is no vibrant vitality manifesting in their being, while heaven calls forth amongst mankind saying, "We summon you now to the feast of identity where you are able to recognize that mankind's need is not to eat the flesh of captains and of kings and of wise men² but to devour instead the Christed power of the Sacred Eucharist, to identify with the body of God, to identify with the reality of God, to sustain oneself by cognition directly from the heart of your own Divine God Presence.”

The mighty sense of the I AM as the regenerative sense of every man re-creates those passions of identity that were the beginning of consciousness in the [human] race when mankind first perceived—in the dim fashionings of the conveyance of individuality—the radiant purposes behind individuality. And they saw that because God was, they were, and they held their existence to be in the supremacy of identification with the primacy of radiant order, the Law of the One.

The Realization of One's Own Immortal Wholeness

Hear, then, O Israel, the LORD thy God is one LORD!³ That which is real, that which is earnest, that which is sincere, that which holds the power of freedom within itself is that primal substance from which all things outward as well as inward were made.

The law of the Logos is the law of the Word! It is the emanation of the Deity from the heart—the origin of the Beginning that radiates in cycles out into the world, worlds without end, showing mankind the way back to the divine heart. But individuals have sought refuge in false identities, and the masquerades have gone on. And I spake of old, saying, “Think ye that those upon whom the tower of Siloam fell were sinners above all those that dwelt in Jerusalem?”⁴

I tell you, Nay! For except ye repent, ye shall likewise perish.⁵ And the meaning of the repentance is to turn from the discordant manifestations of the mortal sense, with its evaporating power, to hold man to a cohesive reality, and to turn from the sundering of the chord of universal harmony while turning to the identification with the God Presence.

For mankind see themselves as the little finite child without hope in the world, standing upon the stairs of cycles, of ever-new beginnings, and failing to apprehend in the whole round of the cycle the law of love that would have enabled them to know and to enjoy their freedom to infinitely express that Cosmic Christ truth that would cause them to wear the white robe of universal perfection.

The order of heaven has not paled. The order of heaven has not failed. The order of heaven has not seceded. The order of heaven has succeeded. And when we say unto you at this moment that you live in a time of great peril when the princes of darkness have come into the world order and have sought through the flesh of kings, of captains, and of mighty men to captivate the youth of the world to seek the temporal crown, it is again the whisperings of the Luciferian hordes saying, “If you will fall down and worship me, I will give you all the things of this world.”⁶

And I say with all of Christ truth to ye all, that these promises are not kept. These promises fail to materialize, for it is like unto a Faustian pact.⁷ The soul, then, sold into the toils of treachery, cannot reap the fruit of spiritual sincerity and mankind go then as beggars to the court of God and they ask for a sou,* when all that is necessary is the recognition of the real you.

God has made you in his own image.⁸ The trembling of that image is the beautiful Reality that will enable you to shatter the illusions of this moment or any other moment. For in the moment of failure, if mankind will only recognize that we do not intend for them to eat the husks but to partake of the feast of light that is brought about by a sense of

*sou: French, 1812; a five-cent piece

the survival of the universal Deity! For when mankind think that they themselves in one moment may cease to be, they have a tendency to feel that God is like unto themselves, made in the human image. It is not so.

It is not so, and we have lifted up our voice upon thousands of hills in the world proclaiming that Christ truth that beams hope and freedom in ever-new crescendos of infinite passion for the soul into the world order and summons mankind to the realization of his own immortal wholeness.

The Resurrecting Power That Enables You to Call unto the Divine Presence and Say, “Lo, I AM Come.”

Will you, then, with me now, envision around yourself my seamless garment? For a replica of myself now comes to stand by the side of every devotee of Christ truth and say:

I would invest you with this garment of swaddling, pure light until the immortal seed-flame spark, the infinite Reality of Self, parts the veil of illusion and enables the flesh form to transcend itself, to be reborn as the mind is renewed by the Spirit of Infinity, calling forth and summoning from the great celestial towers of reality that heavenly wisdom that has been bestowed throughout the ages upon the elect—which to this hour is imminent in the atmosphere of the planet and awaits the calling forth by every individual of its joy, of its release, of its flame, of its peace, of its strength, of the name of God I AM, of the I AM Law, of the resurrecting power that enables each one of you (for yourselves at any moment of outer distress) to call unto the Divine Presence and say, “Lo, I AM come.”

This is not the outer self in action, then! It is the power of Infinity speaking in the finite world, “I AM come!” Will you get that sense into your consciousness, blessed ones? Lo, I AM come!

As Saint Germain said to you long ago, “I AM here and I AM there!” If you will but have that sense, it will enable you to overcome those weaknesses in the picturization of your perfection that have allowed you to be indulgent with yourselves and to say, “This is my image,” as others hold for you a destructive and deleterious form, a concept of perfidy, of shadow, of shame, of mortality, of illusion, and of a waning flame that sheds hopelessness into the world community—whereas “I AM hope! I AM faith! I AM charity reborn” is the power to light again the taper of individuality and to enable you, one and all, to raise your torch of Christ-victory in the world order, which will create that holiness of concept, that purity of thought that dwelt amongst us in days of old!

For the elect are the Great White Brotherhood. They are those who have chosen to wash their robes white in the infinite light of God, who have understood that from the first photon flash of cosmic-light Reality glimmering in the domain of consciousness there was every whit the intention of God in the divine heart to enable each individual to overcome those hurdles of personal dimension and to feel the full divine intention surging, flowing through the individual consciousness, bringing into view the summoning of cosmic election and resurgent hope, perfection manifest as Law, infinite love, compassion from above sweeping through the world order and sustaining for all a new burst of freedom as immortal life!

The Sustaining Elements of Cosmic Christ Love

I AM the resurrection flame! I AM the resurrection and the life of every cell, of every organ, of every part of manifestation! I endow! I imbue! I enlighten consciousness!

Did I not say, “Come unto me, all ye who are heavy laden, and I will give you rest”?⁹ Did I not say, “My burden is light”?¹⁰

Well then, what are you waiting for? My burden was light in Judea of old! My burden is light in America today and in the world order! My burden is the sustainment of light in the world community! And I am the Nazarene carpenter, who seeks to frame in the world order those sustaining elements of Cosmic Christ love that teach man how to be a good neighbor unto all whom he meets, to evoke responses in the hearts of the men and women on the streets, to go out into the highways and byways and compel them to lay hold upon immortal life and to seize those elements that say the strife is o'er.

The struggle is ended, for the swaddling garments that I wear are the seamless garments of universal love, which ye all are endowed with, which ye all were endowed with, which is God's portion to every man, every prodigal son—of you—calling you forth now in the world community and in the world order to once again let the being of the elect flash forth the glimmer of the internal light in the world order, the outward expression coming, then, more and more into view as the immaculate sense to bestow upon everyone the wholeness pattern that makes men free, the holiness pattern that makes men to see that the law of love that I AM is the law of love that ye are.

There is no difference in us but one of attainment. It is a matter of levels of attainment. Ye stand now at the portal of that attainment. Ye stand at the threshold of cycle's stair, of the personal, individual world of you.

And we who support in the world domain the fashions of freedom do create new garments of loveliness for you to wear. That you may wear them proudly before mankind in order to bring emancipation into the universal order of mankind, to bring communion once again with the angelic host and with the hosts of light, is our prayer.

Ye seek healing of body; know healing of soul. Ye seek healing within your feeling world; know healing that produces the end of stain and sense of blame. Know healing that enables you to see that which is Real—to see it, to handle it, to touch it, to be molded by the Word, the fashion of adoration—Adonai, Adonai!

The Hour Is Now

O our Father, these are thy children called of old to their hidden destiny. And all mankind are thy children, flame sparks and spirits of the One. Mold them now and shape them by the sun* of their personal destiny. Let the flame within them begin once again its round to the pinnacle of achievement. Summon in them the best gifts and let them go free.

For the hour is now when they that are in the grave shall hear my voice, and those whited sepulchres moving yet among mankind shall find that the dead men's bones of human lore that they have held in consciousness have nevermore given them their freedom. And they will replace it now by the Word of God, Thyself.

Thou art within them. I AM the power to set you free.

I thank you.
