

Beloved Jesus the Christ
The Oneness of His Flame

Do you know, beloved ones, that the victory of the Christ everywhere manifest in the hearts of the sons and daughters of God is always and forever the victory of oneness, the supreme understanding that man is but an outline upon the consciousness of God—not apart, not separate, not divided, but forever dwelling and living in the very Presence of God?

And therefore, my final thoughts before entering into the birth canal to be born in Bethlehem of Judea were centered upon the oneness of God. I knew, as of old, that wherever I should go, there I would be in the center of his flame. And therefore my birth was without fear or trembling, which some souls experience when they descend into the world of form. It was without any thought whatsoever, as I descended into the place prepared by beloved Mary and Joseph, that I could depart from his Presence.

The rejoicing in the hearts of the angels, the shepherds, and the wise men three was a reflection of the rejoicing...

Beloved Jesus the Christ

October 15, 2023

The Oneness of His Flame

Oh, the wonders of his love as he came to me and said, “This is my beloved son, in whom I am well pleased.”¹ As I knelt before his throne to receive the benediction and the commission of my final and triumphant embodiment in the world of form, I felt his illimitable love, the heart of the Father, who placed the promise of this entire system of worlds in my mission.

Do you know, beloved ones, that the victory of the Christ everywhere manifest in the hearts of the sons and daughters of God is always and forever the victory of oneness, the supreme understanding that man is but an outline upon the consciousness of God—not apart, not separate, not divided, but forever dwelling and living in the very Presence of God?

And therefore, my final thoughts before entering into the birth canal to be born in Bethlehem of Judea were centered upon the oneness of God. I knew, as of old, that wherever I should go, there I would be in the center of his flame. And therefore [my birth] was without fear or trembling, which some souls experience when they descend into the world of form. It was without any thought whatsoever, as I descended into the place prepared by beloved Mary and Joseph, that I could depart from his Presence.

The rejoicing in the hearts of the angels, the shepherds, and the wise men three was a reflection of the rejoicing of my own heart, having come so fresh from the altar of the Almighty:

The Almighty shall be thy defense.

The Almighty shall be thy quickening Presence.

The Almighty shall be thy victory.

These words of the flaming cherubim, who stand to keep the way of the Tree of Life in every man,² were also given unto me. What rejoicing, then, to know that light should come to a darkened world in the consciousness of attunement with his Divine Presence.

The Players Played Their Parts during My Ministry

As the players played their parts during my ministry, each one to a greater or a lesser degree remembering that unity, so the plan unfolded; so the drama was played out, each one playing a part, each one having been selected to kindle the Christ, to bring forth a facet of the jewel of his appearing.

How we worshipped, how we worshipped, how we worshipped the divine ideal, the magnificent blueprint, for hours and days and months and years before ever taking embodiment. We studied the plan. We studied the course of victory each step of the way.

And so it was no surprise that we should have to flee into Egypt, there to hide from the dread and terror of those who sought to slay the infant Messiah. It was no surprise that the angel came to warn Mary and Joseph. Even the blessed donkey played his role to perfection, that same foal of the ass who had played the role with Balaam and who had seen the angel.³ He came forth once again, for in the evolution of the animal kingdom the group souls do evolve, and the blessed elemental who volunteered to take on the form of the ass in order that I might be carried in the womb of Mary [into Bethlehem] was tried and true. No stubborn mule was he but a servant of God also.

Blessed be the elemental kingdom. I infuse them with the resurrection flame this day in gratitude for their overcoming victory and their assistance to the sons and daughters of the flame. For without the infusion of the Holy Spirit through the blessed elemental kingdom—the beings of earth, air, fire, and water—I say, no son or daughter of God could achieve his victory. Gratitude to thee, O blessed nature spirits and devas of the Father's heart!

Much like the rehearsal of a play, the actors went forth. At times some forgot their lines, but then they were prompted by the heavenly angels who stood to minister over each disciple, each one who played the role to receive the Christ into the humble homes of Galilee.

Those who were to be healed, those who had faith in the Christ, also knew that they should descend into the world of form with the burden of their karma, that the Son of God would come forth with healing in his wings and that they should be remembered for all time as those who responded to the cry, "Rise, take up thy bed, and walk. Thy faith hath made thee whole."⁴

Even that faith was rehearsed in the mighty sphere of blue of the causal body of the Almighty. And there, those individuals were allowed to nourish the flame in the temples of God before taking embodiment.

That Final Lifetime Was Truly the Mission of the Alchemist of the Spirit

Do you know, beloved ones, that that final lifetime was truly the mission of the scientist, the alchemist of the Spirit?

I went forth to prove the laws of God as these laws applied to the material universe, the womb manifestation of the Spirit of the Almighty. For there in the world of form—where the polarity of the feminine is designed to be magnified and amplified through the Christ—there I should come to show what each one might do if he would apply himself to the mysteries of the Almighty, to learn the scientific keys of rearranging the electrons, even the nuclei within the heart of the atom. For it is the power of the Son of God not only to split the atom but also to transform it, to change it alchemically.

O beloved sons of God, you have not yet tasted of the draught of immortality that will bestow upon you the mastery of Godhood and of alchemy. You have come to the periphery of ascended master knowledge.

Think not, then, that you can learn in a day or a year all that we desire to impart to you. For your learning is based upon many factors—first of all, upon the program, the blueprint for your lifestream, even as there was the divine pattern for my own mission.

So your life is a center of activity of overcoming victory, of transmutation. It is programmed. And the Lords of Karma, together with your own beloved Holy Christ Self, know exactly the time and the hour when each victory should be manifest.

And therefore the quality of listening grace, of instantaneous obedience to the Son of God, will assure you that each initiation is passed at the right time, in the right place, for the right purpose, with motive pure, going forth as knights and ladies of the flame.

In the Twinkling of an Eye, You Can Manifest the Power of the Victory of the Son of God

Beloved ones, it is highly essential that when the time comes to take a step upward, you do not retreat in fear and doubt and unbelief, for thereby you can turn back the cycles of your manifest victory for centuries.

O beloved ones, those who desire to be “free”—free in their own sense of the word and not in God’s sense—consider the laws of God to be threats and they defy and challenge these laws, taking pride in their human questioning and doubt, in their own records of death. And so they wallow in that substance. And when the Son of God steps forth to command the resurrection, they are sunken deep into the astral mire of their pride in the intellect.

Do you see, beloved ones, that the most important thing that you can do is to be prepared? This is why your beloved Saint Germain gave that motto “Be Prepared” to the Boy and Girl Scouts of America. To be prepared is most important, for no man knoweth the hour of the coming of the Son of God and of his Spirit, save the Father.⁵

The parable of the foolish virgins illustrates this point.⁶ And therefore to keep your lamps trimmed with the oil of consecration demands daily application to the expansion of the lamp of the heart, the cosmic, threefold unfed flame—which, I tell you, is dynamite within your heart! It can explode in the universe as a mighty conflagration of light! And in the twinkling of an eye, by your faith, you can manifest the power of the victory of the Son of God!

Enter into the Oneness of God

O beloved ones, enter into the oneness of God. Now, the passing of your tests of initiation that are administered by the Cosmic Christs depends not only upon the program and upon your preparedness to move along that program, but it also depends upon your attunement, upon your obedience, upon the great laws of the cycles of the planetary body as a whole.

Sometimes the threat to nations, the threat of war, the disturbances in the economic world wreak such havoc in the world of form that individuals, whose divine plan is about to be brought forth in the fulfillment of the rose of light, cannot manifest the victory because the social climate is not right, the educational institutions are not bringing forth the teaching and the training, and there is the infiltration of drugs, for instance, in this age. In other ages it has been witchcraft (and this has endured to the present) and all manner of attacks against the entire social structure of the planet.

Therefore man cannot overcome alone unto himself, but there must be a blending of achievement between the microcosm and the Macrocosm, between man and his world. Therefore, right while you are overcoming, you must understand that the power of Almighty God unto salvation is just as effective on a planetary scale as it is on an individual scale. The two must go hand in hand. And your own mighty God Presence plays a very important role in seeing to it that the earth itself is balanced in the flame of the Cosmic Christ, that these conditions that rise up to threaten the sons of God do not endure.

And so I make my plea to you, one and all this day. There are those on the battlefields of life, in commerce, and even in the universities, where the truth is not being taught. There are those who do not belong there, beloved ones, who are put there by social pressures, who are forced there by their governments and by the climate of the time.

I ask you to pray for these souls. Pray for them, beloved ones, for they are completely out of their spiritual element. The entire blueprint for their life span has been tampered with and interfered with by the forces of darkness.

It is therefore our supreme hope, the star of our hope, that through this organization, through the promulgation of its teachings, these individuals may be brought back on the track of their own divine blueprint through the understanding and the true teaching of the laws of God, that they may come and sit at the feet of the ascended masters and at the feet of their own beloved Holy Christ Self and learn to know the truth that shall make them free.

Those Who Are Rebellious Do Not Have an Understanding of Their Unity with God

Rebellion is rampant across the face of the earth, for the pride of Lucifer has descended into the hearts of men in these, his final days. That one who fell from so high a position has gone forth to stir the young and old alike with feelings of rebellion.

O beloved ones, on the face of it, if you will examine this rebellion, it is so petty. What is it against? It is always outward conditions. Those who are rebellious do not have an understanding of their unity with God, beloved ones. Can you believe that one who is centered in the Divine Presence is going to go and rebel against that which is without?

Rebellion has no place in the universe. It was never ordained by God in any time or in any place, beloved ones, and it is never justifiable. I say this to you with all the fire of my mission!

Rebellion in any form is never justifiable, beloved ones, and I will tell you why. The reason is simple. There is only one rebellion, and that rebellion is against God. Every other form of rebellion is still against the Deity, even though those who have it will not confess this fact.

Do you understand the fine point of this teaching? If one is harmonious in the center of God's omnipotence, he has all things and an understanding of God's laws. He manifests the full power of his Presence. There is no need to rebel.

What shall he rebel against? Human creation? It is not real to the one who is centered in God. It has no reality whatsoever. Why should he take the fires of heaven and qualify them with rebellion against unreality?

Rebellion Was Born in the Seed of Pride

Therefore, rebellion was born in the seed of pride, in the consciousness of Lucifer. And he went forth to rationalize it, to cloak it with intellectual aphorisms, to say that it was not against God. But indeed it was, beloved ones. And therefore when you know who you are, you understand that you are never in submission to any outer authority but only to the authority of God, the pure and undefiled Presence who lives in all mankind.

This is the very power that will overthrow those conditions in the world that are unjust, beloved ones. It is the power of God's own law, the power of his justice, the power of perfection that overthrows all conditions that are less than the divine plan fulfilled. Rebellion is not a weapon of the Deity. Therefore it is not a sword that can be thrust by the son of God.

I hope that I have clarified this point for you this day. For so many among the youth abroad in the world in every nation take a sense of self-righteousness, a righteous indignation that they have the right to rebel against that which is unjust.

I say, heal that condition! Do not rebel against it. Heal it! Let the fire of the Christ go into it—the power that I give you this day, each one of you who will accept it into your heart's flame.

Stretch forth your hand and command that the fire of Almighty God shall heal every discordant manifestation in society. Invoke that healing power within the hearts of all mankind and ask Mighty Astrea to lock her cosmic circle and sword of blue flame around those individuals who persistently defy the will of God.

It is the spirit of rebellion and the rebellious ones who must be contained, beloved ones. And they will never be contained by the sons of God on earth if they too join into their rebellion.

Stand Fast in the Presence of the LORD

Be free, I say, this day! Be free of the need to fight in the world of form! But stand fast in the Presence of the LORD. Stand fast in the Presence of the Almighty. And admit once and for all that there is no struggle in this battle but only the putting down of the forces of darkness by the power of the Christ, the universal Christ manifest within you all.

Rise from that sense of duality! Rise from the sense of struggle! And manifest the all-oneness of sons and daughters of the flame!

If you will remember this teaching in the day of your travail, in the day of your initiation, in the day when Lucifer stands before you to tempt you as I was tempted in the wilderness, if you will remember your oneness with me and with Almighty God and his Spirit, you will not be moved, I say. You will not be turned away from the Path. You will not tear down the individuals who have sought to help you. You will not criticize and condemn the messengers. For all condemnation, beloved ones, is based on a sense of duality, of seeing yourself and other lifestreams as being separate identities apart from God.

There is no separation. And as you look out into the world, I tell you truly, you gaze upon your own self. And that condemnation that you send forth, when it harms others, harms yourself. And then it returns to you with your own motive and intent and harms you again, and therefore you are twice sinned against. You are sinned when you condemn, because it is always yourself whom you are condemning. And you are sinned against again when that vibratory pattern returns to your own forcefield.

Invoke the Fire from the Altar of God That Will Manifest His Perfection Right Where You Stand

Beloved ones, all is God! All is his oneness! All is the Christ! And that oneness can never be divided! It can never be divided! It can never be divided!

Therefore, I say unto you, take up your responsibility in the name of the living Christ and see that the place whereon you stand is holy ground. And if you have placed there the vibrations of fear and doubt and rebellion and pride and human aggressiveness and selfishness and all these vibrations, if these have been allowed to accumulate where you stand, then roll up your sleeves and invoke the flame of Almighty God and determine that it shall be no more! For that which you have allowed to rest within your auras, within your four lower bodies and electronic belts, that, I tell you, is the abomination of desolation standing in the holy place where it ought not.⁷

I say to you, seek not for that holy place without, going here and there in the world seeking this one and that one who says, "Lo, here and there is the Son of God." I say, the kingdom of heaven is within you,⁸ but it will never be in manifestation until you understand your responsibility to invoke the fire from the altar of God that will manifest his perfection right where you stand.

Then you can remove the shoes from your feet and stand in that flame, and that flame will not burn. It will be the coolness of the sacred fire, and its coolness will be there in manifestation because your polarity is exact in the masculine and feminine complements of the LORD. You are perfectly magnetized to his flame, and therefore the full power of the Holy Spirit can charge through you, charge through you, and expand the full magnetism of his light!

You Shall Be Victors in the Oneness of His Flame!

Do you see, beloved ones? This is the mission that is before every one of you. This is the mission that was given unto me by the Father as I knelt before coming into the world of form to do his will.

If you will remember that each one of you knelt in prayer before the hand of Almighty God and asked his blessing and vowed to do his will, that you, too, were given the benediction, “This is my beloved son in whom I am well pleased”; if you will remember that there is a divine blueprint that you have studied, that all of the actors in your play have also studied, that all are here now and ready to perform; if you will remember to listen to the prompters, the guardian angels who give you the cue each time, “Lest thou dash thy foot against a stone”;⁹ if you will remember to pause and breathe deeply of the sacred fire breath before making a decision, before being moved from the Rock of Christ, then nothing can stop you, beloved ones.

Go forward, I say, and you shall conquer! You shall be victors in the oneness of his flame!

The Call Compels the Answer

Truly the call is the salvation of the soul—the call that is heard even before we pray in His name:

O Great Shepherd of souls, Lord Jesus, thou Christ of God and Son of the Most High, we call unto thee and the great hosts of heaven to assist us as we call in thy name to all souls upon earth to hear the voice of Love, Wisdom, and Power that invokes for them communion and blessings without limit, that gives to all a new sense of freedom and hope and that awareness of thee which is oneness in purpose, plan, and infinitude.

O consecrated essence of the sacred fire, descend, we pray, upon all lands, and seas, and sky; bless elemental life and all that we pass by with the healing power of the hem of thy trailing garment of ever-new delight in the law of thy being—the law of Love, eternally sustaining the brightness of thy concepts over the earth and the souls of all men. Make them one, even as we are one.

Man need not speculate as to whether God exists; he need only invoke from the Godhead the proof that the LORD has challenged him to invoke, the proof of his very existence:

Show me, O LORD, thy infinite Mercy and Truth; show me thyself in formless Spirit and in Mater-form, in the elements and in man of whom thou art mindful; show me thy Power and thy Love in an immortelle and in the onrushing river of Light that descends from above. Show me, and I will cover the earth with the brightness of thy witness, the corona of thy glory.*
