To Reinfuse the the Chelas with the Will of God
Part 2

Beloved ones, I give you a cosmic calculation: For every individual upon the planetary body who beholds his God Presence face-to-face, who sees and knows the ineffable light, 100 million souls are given the impetus to pursue that God Self.

Now that I have told you this, you may adequately weigh the choices before you as to what to do to best serve this evolution, your soul, and the Great White Brotherhood. Why, it is to simply know God and know the Self and understand the co-measurement whereby Christ, in the midst of Macrocosm and microcosm, is the co-measurement of being.

I AM the light of your own Son-manifestation. I have come to Summit University with a single-pointed, single-minded purpose. It is this: to reinfuse the chelas with the will to be, the motivation to act in defense of the light, of the membrane of Self, of their circumference of being as...

To Reinfuse the Chelas with the Will of God

Part 2

Beloved ones, I give you a cosmic calculation: For every individual upon the planetary body who beholds his God Presence face-to-face, who sees and knows the ineffable light, 100 million souls are given the impetus to pursue that God Self.

Now that I have told you this, you may adequately weigh the choices before you as to what to do to best serve this evolution, your soul, and the Great White Brotherhood. Why, it is to simply know God and know the Self and understand the co-measurement whereby Christ, in the midst of Macro-cosm and microcosm, is the co-measurement of being.

I AM the light of your own Son-manifestation. I have come to Summit University with a single-pointed, single-minded purpose. It is this: to reinfuse the chelas with the will to be, the motivation to act in defense of the light, of the membrane of Self, of their circumference of being as a citadel of God-awareness.

I come, as it were, to pump you up with blue flame, that you might recognize that your temple and its forcefield extend by a radius of a minimum of three feet.

Thus, the extension of the self in the thrust to be, to act, to know, to love is a circle of fire that is like a rod planted in the earth—a thrust of being, a sense of direction, a sense of

To Reinfuse the Chelas with the Will of God

“Here I AM, O God, come for a cosmic purpose, to set a flame of life, to so understand the nature of my being that my very understanding will consume even the very laws of mortality itself.”

This is not a natural state—this mortal dream, this death and dying so accepted, so planned for, so insured, so wrapped up in money and more money and more money, as though it were the ancient Egyptians with their mummies and their tombs. Why the preoccupation with every form of death?

Whether it is the death of the mind through drugs or the body through illness or the sensitivities through hatred or the memory through the dying unto the self, all of this is unnatural. And those who stand in the earth with a proper perspective of self-worth counteract that which comes by the hordes of the astral plane.

Thus, my purpose is to extend my awareness that I AM and that I AM Real—such simple statements. But do you know that it is important for you to assess your own consciousness and your own day and to note how often you are tempted into a state of mind foreign to your Reality, to your God Presence, to the will of God in you?

The Doormat Consciousness

This condition is caused by the fact that there is a universal conditioning upon earth to a passivity that I call “the doormat consciousness.” People bask in the sun, so easily being passive to a gigantic government, an overriding metropolis, an exaggeration of surroundings that dwarf the individual and make people assume a passive role to an overpowering, materialistic civilization beyond their control, beyond their ability for a co-relation.*

Thus, the doormat consciousness causes a shriveling of that importance that came in the era of the patriarchs and the prophets, when the sponsoring ones were the enormous presence in life, when their auras were the key—not the skyscrapers or the multinational corporations or the huge interlocking directorates that control billions of dollars. It is these manifestations themselves that create the helplessness, and thus people look to institutions and to organizations rather than to individuals with a strong identity.

And in the very midst of this there come the strong-armed, the bandits, the tyrants, the demagogues. And the passive ones, in their false passivity that has naught to do with the true passive ray of the feminine nature, therefore polarize with a false action or active polarity.

They enter into their “ring-around-the-rosy” with their false gurus in Church and State. They dance to the tune of the pied piper, never knowing the trance of morbidity and the total unreality [they are in], while they have such a smug sense of sophistication and such utter certainty that they are real, when in reality they have entered into new lows of psychicism, where the vivid colors of the astral plane are a dying burst of embers before the darkening consciousness.

I Seal Your Chakras in My Own

Lo, I come, and I draw a circle of fire around you. I seal your chakras in my own. And I say this—not ill-advisedly but upon much deliberation and even by dispensation:

I, the Great Divine Director, have determined to place my seven chakras congruent with all true chelas of the will of God upon the planet, whether or not they are in this activity. If they be a true chela unto the will of God, I enter now their dimension and forcefield. And by passing through their chakras the will of my own, I create a new thrust.

And therefore I draw in the sand beneath their feet a circle of self-awareness and self-worth because—and only because—they are tethered to the will of God. This I must do for the very survival of earth, for the plan of Gautama, for all of the chelas and sons and daughters of God who have labored so lovingly and with such God-determination against such odds as they know not!

I am compelled by the very devotion of even a single chela, or ten or twenty. But now upon thousands and thousands more I place my mantle and my trust. This I do most gratefully in the name of my chela, Saint Germain, in the name of El Morya, who by their labor have raised up this mighty star—this, this wondrous mandala of souls.

I Multiply Your Motivation to Motivate the Men and Women of Earth

Thus I come, and I am determined that it is the highest panorama of the living Christ that shall be fulfilled. And now I stand and I take my position before you, and I vow, O my beloved, to multiply the facet of your own motivation to be a pure stream of cosmic consciousness.

I will multiply your motivation to motivate the men and women of earth to throw off the bondage and the enslavement of the addictions of the sinister force, and I will multiply your flame of action as Durga, as Kali, as Lakshmi, as Sarasvati. For in the Mother flame is action in the earth even as there is the passive light in the heaven.

Thus, the shakti of the Trinity in you will be the thrust of my heart, and you will then know what it means to be Lord Shiva’s shakti, his counterpart. And by the action of the feminine ray of the God and Goddess Meru, the feminine ray of Lord Himalaya, of Vaivasvata Manu, and of my own heart, there can be—and I do believe that there shall occur—a fulfillment more noble, more vast, more filled with a crystal light of purity.

My gaze is set to the practical action in the cities, in the homes, in the industries, in the factories, among the workers, midst the farmers, midst the blue-collar workers, and then on to those who occupy the decision-making chairs and who often do not make correct decisions.

I AM the Great Divine Director, and I choose to live where will is determined.

The Fleur-De-Lis—the Lily of Saint Germain

Beloved ones, I have acquainted you with the most serious of problems. Let us, then, together invoke the great causal bodies of the first, second, and third root races and their magnificent twin-flame Manus, who form now in the upper atmosphere of earth over this forcefield a focus of a cosmic fleur-de-lis, the lily of Saint Germain, the great symbol of the threefold flame. This focus of the fleur-de-lis is now made permanent over Camelot, high in the upper atmosphere.

By invoking it and the combined causal bodies of the root races three, you will then be able to channel through your dynamic decrees that balance of power, wisdom, and love that must, as a cosmic flame, reinfuse every heart upon earth, every cell and atom because of the distortions and the manipulations not only of life and the sacred fire but of physical energy itself.

Let us be, then, about our Father's business. Let us understand that which is most important to the Manus and the Karmic Board as we survey the step-by-step solutions.

Let the violet flame roll from these hills from the heart of Zadkiel and Holy Amethyst!

Let the winds of the Holy Spirit, let the waters of the Mother, let the sacred fire of the Father, let the mighty light of the Cosmic Christ sweep around the earth through the blessed elementals, and let the earth be swept clean of debris hour by hour so that the light of the Trinity might descend into forcefields cleared, receptive.

O flame of cosmic receptivity, descend into earth! Let the receptive hearts respond! And let those who are dead to the light of God and my voice now receive that transfusion of light from those already occupying the physical plane as chelas!

Let Us Mount Our Steeds of Light

I transfer to you that cosmic flame of receptivity unto the living Word. O my chelas, you are my chelas because you are chelas of Saint Germain and Morya, because you have saluted Lord Maitreya!

My beloved throughout the earth, I contact each one of you with a most intense love of my heart for the victory of your soul. Now know this flame of receptivity! By it, be made whole! By the resurrection, know thy God!

By the flame of love-freedom out of the heart of Saint Germain, I say: Transfer now this transfusion of light and let it be by a determination—the set, the determination, the will, the visualization of the All-Seeing Eye—that every lightbearer will now have from your heart an impetus of our hearts and of the hearts of the Holy Family—the Sacred Heart of Jesus, the Immaculate Heart of Mary, the purple fiery heart of Joseph.

My beloved, feel my determination. It is intense. Now let us mount our steeds of light! Let us move with the armies of the LORD! For many sweet people upon earth are entirely trusting that these armies will come and deliver them. Let us not, then, as emissaries of the Father in Jesus' name, let their trust be let down, but rather let us volunteer to implement that very simple, childlike faith that God is truly coming into the world and that he will make all things right.

This is our simple trust, my beloved. For we, the members of the Karmic Board, do kneel. We kneel as children here at the altar of Camelot, and we pray most simply for the sweet Presence of God in the person of Jesus Christ and the saints to right every wrong upon earth.

And when we pray our simple prayer, in simple trust that he will perform his perfect work, do you know that he sends his mighty angels to us and they read their scrolls? They read scrolls containing the divine plan and a history, already written, of the future.

Let Us Kneel in Prayer

We, then, are shown how to implement the plan. And the simple prayer of our childlike hearts is likewise returned by the simple prayer, the humble and trusting prayer of Alpha and Omega, who hold us in perfect trust that we will fulfill our office. Such is the trust of the entire body of God. Such is the childlike faith we hold in each one of you. And so, my beloved, as children of God's heart together, let us kneel in prayer.

[Audience kneels.]

O Alpha and Omega, thou who hast set the course of evolution for vast systems of worlds, thou who hast ordained by free will the choice to be or not to be, thou who hast allowed the tares and the wheat to grow side by side, thou who hast observed not only the great rebellion upon other systems of worlds but the ultimate victory through the legions of light and the successive offerings of the Son of God, we know that in thy flame is the omnipotence as the solution to every mundane problem of earth.

We know that in thy Presence is the wisdom, the science, the truth, the understanding of the implementation of omnipotence and we know that thy living love is thy omnipresence, hallowing all space, constructing time.

Thus inasmuch as by thy omnipotence, by thy omniscience, and by thy omnipresence, the threefold flame of life is established firmly in every heart. We therefore place ourselves in thy trust. With open hearts and hands, we come.

O LORD, make us, each one—the entire hierarchy of light who bow before thy flame with us—an emissary, a chalice for the fulfillment of each facet of the plan.

O infinite grace, thy grace is sufficient for the God-victory of the earth. We commune together in thy body and thy blood. We as one shall go forth together—never alone, never separate, but all one—to fulfill the divine plan that thou hast placed in my heart.

O our Father-Mother God, with thee we behold the end from the beginning and the victory of life. Help us, then, not only to see but also to be that victory.

With the Lord Christ we say, "I of mine own self can do nothing. It is the Father in me who doeth the works."¹

Thus, in each rung of the ladder of life we acknowledge that thou art, O God, the One Supreme Being within us who will perform thy perfect work of this age, who will swallow up by thy consuming fire the Evil One and his seed and every dragon and beast of world karma.

Thus, we bow before the light. We ingest the light. We are the light. We are the universal light. And now every chela, every soul of light throughout the planetary body repeats with us the simple prayer of Jesus:

I of mine own self can do nothing. It is the Father in me who doeth the works.

[Audience repeats:]

I of mine own self can do nothing. It is the Father in me who doeth the works.

I of mine own self can do nothing. It is the Father in me who doeth the works.

[26-second pause]

Rise now, ye chosen ones. [Audience rises.] The ship of Maitreya moves on. Let us journey together, safe and secure in the promise of our God.

[The Great Divine Director chants while audience joins:]

The Will of God for the Reinforcement of God-Identity

O descending light of the will of God, now reinforce God-identity within these souls. O descending light of the will of God, reinforce the will to be the Great Causal Body of the Great Divine Director. Descending light of the will of the first ray and all of its servants, be with us. Enfire our minds. Renew our hearts.

Legions from out the Great Central Sun, we implore the resolution of human infamy. We implore the dissolution by the sacred fire of all that is anti-Christ upon this planetary body by the action of the Ruby Ray from the heart of Sanat Kumara, Gautama Buddha, Maitreya Buddha, Jesus the Christ, and all of his saints and witnesses.

I call forth the light of God that never fails. Saint Germain, hurl! your mighty miracle pouch into the cause and core of every injustice. In the name of beloved Portia and the Lords of Karma, hurl! your miracle pouch. Let the violet flame burst forth! Let it transmute and consume all that is out of alignment with the will of God, worlds without end—in the air, the sea, and the land, in the white-fire core of the atom. Hurl! your miracle pouch. Blaze forth the light, O beloved Saint Germain! Blaze forth the light!

We call thee now. Will of God, reinforce in us this hour the commitment of the entire Spirit of the Great White Brotherhood and their chelas to the victory of each living soul upon earth. And let it be, O Serapis, the victory of the ascension marked by the cosmic cross of white fire, here and now, that the soul may in love rejoin eternity. Amen.*
